Saddam City:

Contested City Alissa Walter, 2025-02-04 Contested City offers a history of state society relations in Baghdad exploring how city residents managed through periods of economic growth sanctions and war from the oil boom of the 1950s through the withdrawal of US troops in 2011. Interactions between citizens and their rulers shaped the social fabric and political realities of the city. Notably low ranking Ba th party officials functioned as crucial intermediaries deciding how regime policies would be applied. Charting the social economic and political transformations of Iraq's capital city Alissa Walter examines how national policies translated into action at the local everyday level. With this book Walter reveals how authoritarian governance worked in practice. She follows shifts in mid century housing and urban development the impact of the Iran Iraq and Gulf Wars on city life and the manipulation of food rations and growth of black markets. Reading citizen petitions to the government Walter illuminates citizens self advocacy and the important role of low ranking party officials and state bureaucrats embedded within neighborhoods. The US occupation and ensuing sectarian fighting upended Baghdad's neighborhoods through violent displacement and the collapse of basic state services. This power vacuum paved the way for new power brokers including militias and neighborhood councils to compete for influence on the local level. The Human Terrain System Christopher J. Sims, 2015 The Human Terrain System embedded civilians primarily in brigade combat teams BCTs in Iraq and Afghanistan between 2007 and 2014 to act as a collection and dispersal mechanism for sociocultural comprehension. Set against the backdrop of the program's evolution the experiences of these social scientists clarifies the U S Army's decision to integrate social scientists at the tactical level in conflict. Based on interviews program documents material from Freedom of Information Act requests and secondary sources this book finds a series of limiting factors inhibiting social science research at the tactical level common to both Iraq and Afghanistan. Complexity in integrating civilians into the military decision making cycle in creating timely research with a high level of fidelity and in making granular research that resonated with brigade staff all contributed to inhibiting the overall effect of the Human Terrain System. Yet while high operational tempo in contested spaces complicates social science research at the tactical level the author argues that there is a continued requirement for a residual capability to be maintained by the U S Army. Stranger in Your Own City Ghaith Abdul-Ahad, 2023-03-14 A NEW YORKER BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR An award winning journalist's powerful portrait of his native Baghdad the people of Iraq and twenty years of war An essential insider account of the unravelling of Iraq Driven by his intimate knowledge and deep personal stakes Abdul Ahad offers an overdue reckoning with a broken history Declan Walsh author of The Nine Lives of Pakistan Dispatches from a Precarious State A vital archive of a time and place in history Impossible to put down Omar El Akkad author of What Strange Paradise The history of reportage has often depended on outsiders Ryszard Kapuściński witnessing the fall of the Shah in Iran Frances FitzGerald observing the aftermath of the American war in Vietnam What would happen if a native son was so estranged from his city by war that he could in essence view it as an outsider What kind of portrait of a war wracked place and people might he present A Stranger in Your Own City is award winning writer Ghaith Abdul Ahad's vivid shattering response This is not a book about Iraq's history or an inventory of the many Middle Eastern wars that have consumed the nation over the past several decades This is the tale of a people who once lived under the rule of a megalomaniacal leader who shaped the state in his own image a people who watched a foreign army invade topple that leader demolish the state and then invent a new country who experienced the horror of having their home fragmented into a hundred different cities When the Shock and Awe campaign began in March 2003 Abdul Ahad was an architect Within months he would become a translator then a fixer then a reporter for The Guardian and elsewhere chronicling the unbuilding of his centuries old cosmopolitan city Beginning at that moment and spanning twenty years Abdul Ahad's book decenters the West and in its place focuses on everyday people soldiers mercenaries citizens blown sideways through life by the war and the proliferation of sectarian battles that continue to this day Here is their Iraq seen from the inside the human cost of violence the shifting allegiances the generational change A Stranger in Your Own City is a rare work of beauty and tragedy whose power and relevance lie in its attempt to return the land to the people to whom it belongs With the 1st Marine Division in Iraq, 2003 Michael S. Groen,2006 This is a narrative describing the actions of Marines in combat during the liberation of Iraq Blue Diamond the 1st Division s Operation Iraqi Freedom nom de guerre consisted of some 20 000 Marines and Sailors and 8 000 vehicles organized into three regimental combat teams This is not a story of each of them but the story of all of them Foreword Generation Kill Evan Wright,2005-02-01 Based on Evan Wright s National Magazine Award winning story in Rolling Stone this is the raw firsthand account of the 2003 Iraq invasion that inspired the HBO original mini series Within hours of 9 11 America s war on terrorism fell to those like the twenty three Marines of the First Recon Battalion the first generation dispatched into open ended combat since Vietnam They were a new pop culture breed of American warrior unrecognizable to their forebears soldiers raised on hip hop video games and The Real World Cocky brave headstrong wary and mostly unprepared for the physical emotional and moral horrors ahead the First Suicide Battalion would spearhead the blitzkrieg on Iraq and fight against the hardest resistance Saddam had to offer Hailed as one of the best books to come out of the Iraq war Financial Times Generation Kill is the funny frightening and profane firsthand account of these remarkable men of the personal toll of victory and of the randomness brutality and camaraderie of a new American War Rage Simon Conway,2011-09-01 In a war of lies the truth can kill Jonah Said is a loner and a troublemaker shipped off by the British army to work with the UN in the buffer zone between Kuwait and Iraq because they want him out of harm s way Big mistake From the minute he lands Jonah becomes drawn into a deadly spiral of corruption and conspiracy involving Russians Americans Arabs and Brits and none of them tells the truth And the truth is more dangerous than even Jonah can imagine The New American Imperialism Vassilis Fouskas,Bülent Gókay,2005-10-30 With the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 the United States long war on communism was replaced by a perpetual war on terror The authors posit that this neo imperialistic phase is but the latest development in a line of thought and action established after World War II But they say 2005 is not 1945 Today they argue the United States uses its power to deplete the resources of the developing world and to compel the rest of the world to remain dependent on American management of the global economy Contending that this situation is ultimately untenable they assert that the United States is entering a period of deep crisis The best thing for American neo imperialists to do to avert their worst nightmare a strategic and economic alliance among Europe Russia China and OPEC would be to arrange for the orderly withdrawal of American power before it is too late for the human and environmental security of the world When the Soviet Union collapsed in 1991 the Cold War slowly gave way to a new world order in which the United States was left as the lone superpower But the organizing principle that would characterize the early 21st century was as yet unclear until the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 Now it is clear that the long war on Communism has been replaced by a perpetual war on terror Regardless of how long American troops remain in Iraq and irrespective of further military actions George W Bush will continue to be a wartime president whose foreign policy is dominated by the Pentagon And yet the authors argue this neo imperialistic phase with its emphasis on Eurasian oil supplies is but the latest development in a line of thinking and acting in the world that was established by such men as Dean Acheson and Paul Nitze after World War II But 2005 is not 1945 and the United States despite Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and Vice President Dick Cheney s assertions is not liberating Iraq and Afghanistan in the same way that U S forces liberated Germany and Japan it is not reconstructing Iraq or the former Yugoslavia as it did when it rebuilt war torn western Europe with the Marshall Plan The United States with its thinly stretched military and deficit laden economy does not possess the means to do so today Instead the authors maintain the United States is simply depleting the developing world s natural resources compelling the rest of the developed world to remain dependent on American management of the global economy This situation is ultimately untenable the authors argue and as a result the United States is entering a period of deep crisis The best thing for American neo imperialists to do to avert their worst nightmare a strategic and economic alliance among Europe Russia China and OPEC would be to arrange for the orderly withdrawal of American power before it is too late for the human and environmental security of the world as a whole

Host Communities and Pilgrimage Tourism Ricardo Nicolas Prozano, Joseph M. Cheer, Xosé Manuel Santos, 2023-04-25 This book delves into topics on pilgrimage travel and communities from a variety of perspectives through academic research based on the Middle East Northeast Asia the Indian subcontinent and Europe where sacred sites have become of great importance for both international and domestic tourism In particular Europe and Asia possess a high volume of world renowned pilgrimage sites that are currently being developed as tourism destinations in their respective countries such as Santiago de Compostela Spain Lourdes France and Koyasan Japan This book includes studies on these two continents that harbor both a great history of pilgrimage tradition as well as tourism development related to religious travel The book importantly covers the role of the community in religious tourism as well as the impact on the locals which is comparatively an unexplored area Whilst pilgrimage is seen as an effective tool to revitalize local economies this book also reveals the different challenges to achieving this goal Realizing the importance of the interrelationship of community and pilgrimage travel as well as the lack of studies on it this book seeks to address this research gap through 14 chapters divided into two parts Communities and Constestation and Pilgrimage Shaping Communities To ensure diverse perspectives case studies from different Eurasian countries written by authors with expertise in the study of pilgrimage and religious travel are included Readers can expect to gain new perspectives by having a deeper comprehension of the community side of pilgrimage travel in Eurasia and thus an integral understanding of contemporary pilgrimage

The Spiders of Allah James Hider, 2009-06-23 In his fascinating terrifying and often very funny book James Hider takes his doubts about religious beliefs straight into the dark heart of the world s holy wars from Israel to Gaza to Iraq the birthplace that spawned so many faiths and then back to

Jerusalem From hardcore Zionist settlers still fighting ancient Biblical battles in the hills of the West Bank to Shiite death squads roaming the lawless streets of Iraq in the aftermath of Saddam whether it s the misappropriation and martyrdom of Mickey Mouse by Gaza s Islamists or a US president acting on God s orders Hider sees the hallucinatory effect of what he calls the crack cocaine of fanatical fundamentalism all around him As he meets terrorists suicide bombers soldiers ayatollahs clerics and ordinary and extraordinary people alike the question that sparked his journey continues to plague his thoughts how can people not only believe in this madness but die and kill for it too This extraordinary and timely book takes the God Delusion debate onto the streets of the Middle East It casts an unflinching yet compassionate eye on the very worst and most violent crimes committed in the name of religion and then sharply asks the questions the world needs to answer if we are ever to stand a chance of facing our own worst demons

With The 1st Marine Division In Iraq, 2003 Groen Michael S.,2018-11 With the 1st Marine Division in Iraq 2003 No Greater Friend No Worse EnemyThe events chronicled here capture the story of the Marines of the Blue Diamond as they prepared for war conquered and army and liberated a nation From across America and beyond they chose the demanding path to become Marines These Marines marched in the ranks of this national treasure that we call the 1st Marine Division And at a time when timid souls or cynical pundits grew loudest these men shouldered their weapons and moved without hesitation against the enemy Our victory was not inevitable It was the courage unselfishness and skill of the young men of Blue Diamond to whom we owe our victory

The Highway War Seth W. B. Folsom,2006 The Highway War is the compelling Iraq War memoir of then Capt Seth Folsom commanding officer of Delta Company First Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion U S Marine Corps Mounted in eight wheeled LAVs light armored vehicles this unit of 130 Marines and sailors was one of the first into Iraq in March 2003 It fought on the front lines for the war s entire offensive phase from the Kuwaiti border through Baghdad to Tikrit Folsom s thoughtful account focuses on his maturation as a combat leader and as a human being enduring the austere conditions of combat and coming to terms with loss of life on both sides Moreover The Highway War is the story of a junior officer s relationships with his company s young Marines for whose lives he was responsible and with his superior officers Folsom covers numerous unusual military actions and conveys truthfully the pace stress excitement mistakes and confusion of modern ground warfare The Highway War is destined to be a Marine Corps classic
