Long Ships And Round Ships:

Long-ships from the beginning of the Christian era to end of the Crusades John Forsyth Meigs, 1924 The Book of Old Ships Henry B. Culver, 2012-09-26 DIV Superb authoritative history of sailing vessels with 80 magnificent line illustrations Galley bark caravel longship whaler many more Detailed informative text on each vessel by noted naval historian Introduction div Venetian Ships and Shipbuilders of the Renaissance Frederic Chapin Lane, 2018-12-01 ORIGINALLY published in 1934 this major study by Frederic Lane tracks the rise and decline of the great shipbuilding industry of Renaissance Venice Drawing on a wealth of archival sources Lane presents detailed descriptions of the Venetian arsenal including the great galleys that doubled as cargo ships and warships the sixteenth century round ships which introduced dramatic innovations in rigging and were less vulnerable to attack than the galleys and the majestic galleons whose straight lines and greater speed made them ideal for merchantmen but whose narrowness made them liable to capsize if loaded with artillery Lane also includes vivid accounts of the rivalries between the famous shipbuilders of the period There was the impassioned competition between Leonardo Bressan and Marco Francesco Rosso to design the quickest lightest galley a contest that Bressan won when Rosso was crushed to death the race between Vettor Fausto and Matteo Bressan to build the best galleon for use against pirates and the rivalry between Bernardo di Bernardo and Nicol Palopano to be the master builder of great merchant galleys Additional chapters detail the actual process of ship construction from the design stage to framing and ribbing the hull to building the rigging the organization and activity of the shipbuilders craft guilds and the various private shipyards and the development and management of the Arsenal Tables and appendixes detail the types measurements number and capacity of the ships as well as the wages of the shipbuilders The Art and Archaeology of Venetian Ships and Boats Lillian Ray Martin, 2001 Presents a brief history of Venetian art and then catalogues each known piece of Venetian art that depicts watercraft Through detailed analysis of these images the author reveals important facts about the construction rigging and use of these watercraft The Edinburgh Review , 1804 Elizabethan Sea-Dogs: A Chronicle of Drake and His Companions William Charles Henry Wood, In the early spring of 1476 the Italian Giovanni Caboto who like Christopher Columbus was a seafaring citizen of Genoa transferred his allegiance to Venice The Roman Empire had fallen a thousand years before Rome now held temporal sway only over the States of the Church which were weak in armed force even when compared with the small republics dukedoms and principalities which lay north and south But Papal Rome as the head and heart of a spiritual empire was still a world power and the disunited Italian states were first in the commercial enterprise of the age as well as in the glories of the Renaissance North of the Papal domain which cut the peninsula in two parts stood three renowned Italian cities Florence the capital of Tuscany leading the world in arts Genoa the home of Caboto and Columbus teaching the world the science of navigation and Venice mistress of the great trade route between Europe and Asia controlling the world s commerce Thus in becoming a citizen of Venice Giovanni Caboto the

Genoese was leaving the best home of scientific navigation for the best home of sea borne trade His very name was no bad credential Surnames often come from nicknames and for a Genoese to be called Il Caboto was as much as for an Arab of the Desert to be known to his people as The Horseman Cabott ggio now means no more than coasting trade But before there was any real ocean commerce it referred to the regular sea borne trade of the time and Giovanni Caboto must have either upheld an exceptional family tradition or struck out an exceptional line for himself to have been known as John the Skipper among the many other expert skippers hailing from the port of Genoa Elizabethan Sea-Dogs William Wood,2018-04-05
