The A to Z of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venice T. Berry, 2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson's victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history

Financial Literacy for Generation Z

Kenneth O. Doyle Ph.D., 2019-09-19 This indispensable resource explains principles of financial planning and financial psychology to help teens and young adults make good financial decisions now and achieve their financial goals Financial literacy for savvy teens and young adults means meeting them where they are which is in high school and college It also means understanding how they differ from their Gen X and elder millennial parents For example they tend to be debt averse thrifty and responsible but may err on the side of taking too little risk such as not investing early enough This book uses economics and psychology to help Generation Z students make better decisions throughout their lives and especially in their formative years Financial Literacy for Generation Z addresses decisions students have to make while still in school after graduation and later with the greatest emphasis on the decisions closest at hand to them It encompasses not just money talk for example how much to contribute to your 401 k but also decisions that are directly connected to money such as choosing a major and a career building a credit record and managing your first real income
