Brokaw writes and as he describes his own pilgrimage as it unfolded from childhood to love marriage the early days in broadcast journalism and beyond he also reflects on what brought him and so many Americans of his generation to lead lives a long way from home yet forever affected by it Praise for A Long Way from Home A love letter to the people and places that enriched a Tom Sawyer boyhood Brokaw has a knack for delivering quirky observations on small town life Bottom line Tom's terrific People Breezy and straightforward much like the assertive TV newsman himself Los Angeles Times Brokaw writes with disarming honesty The Atlanta Journal Constitution Brokaw evokes a sense of community a pride of citizenship and a confidence in American ideals that will impress his readers Richmond Times Dispatch Nuclear Country Catherine McNicol Stock, 2020-09-18 Militarization and nuclearization were the historical developments most essential to the creation of the rural New Right Both North Dakota and South Dakota have long been among the most reliably Republican states in the nation in the past century voters have only chosen two Democrats Franklin Roosevelt and Lyndon B Johnson and in 2016 both states preferred Donald Trump by over thirty points Yet in the decades before World War II the people of the Northern Plains were not universally politically conservative Instead many Dakotans including Republicans supported experiments in agrarian democracy that incorporated ideas from populism and progressivism to socialism and communism and fought against bigness in all its forms including bonanza farms out of state railroads corporations banks corrupt political parties and distant federal bureaucracies but also surprisingly the culture of militarism and the expansion of American military power abroad In Nuclear Country Catherine McNicol Stock explores the question of why between 1968 and 1992 most voters in the Dakotas abandoned their distinctive ideological heritage and came to embrace the conservatism of the New Right Stock focuses on how this transformation coincided with the coming of the military and national security states to the countryside via the placement of military bases and nuclear missile silos on the Northern Plains This militarization influenced regional political culture by reinforcing or re contextualizing long standing local ideas and practices particularly when the people of the plains found that they shared culturally conservative values with the military After adopting the first two planks of the New Right national defense and conservative social ideas Dakotans endorsed the third plank of New Right ideology fiscal conservatism Ultimately Stock contends that militarization and nuclearization were the historical developments most essential to the creation of the rural New Right throughout the United States and that their impact can best be seen in this often overlooked region's history Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books

American Culture in the 1950s Martin Halliwell,2007-03-13 This book provides a stimulating account of the dominant cultural forms of 1950s America fiction and poetry theatre and performance film and television music and radio and the visual arts Through detailed commentary and focused case studies of influential texts and events from Invisible Man to West Side Story from Disneyland to the Seattle World s Fair from Rear Window to The Americans the book examines the way in which modernism and the cold war offer two frames of reference for understanding the trajectory of postwar culture The two core aims of this volume are to chart the changing complexion of American culture in the years following World War II and to provide readers with a critical investigation of the 1950s The book provides an intellectual context for approaching 1950s American culture and considers the historical impact of the decade on recent social and cultural developments

Meet Joe Copper Matthew L. Basso,2022-12-22 I realize that I am a soldier of production whose duties are as important in this war as those of the man behind the gun So began the pledge that many home front men took at the outset of World War II when they went to work in the factories fields and mines while their compatriots fought in the battlefields of Europe and on the bloody beaches of the Pacific The male experience of working and living in wartime America is rarely examined but the story of men like these provides a crucial counter narrative to the national story of Rosie the Riveter and GI Joe that dominates scholarly and popular discussions of World War II In Meet Joe Copper Matthew L Basso describes the formation of a powerful white working class masculine ideology in the decades prior to the war and shows how it thrived on the job in the community and through union politics Basso recalls for us the practices and beliefs of the first and second generation immigrant copper workers of Montana while advancing the historical conversation on gender class and the formation of a white ethnic racial identity Meet Joe Copper provides a context for our ideas of postwar masculinity and whiteness and finally returns the men of the home front to our reckoning of the Greatest Generation and the New Deal era

Small-Town Dreams John E. Miller,2014-03-28 We live these days in a virtual nation of cities and celebrities dreaming a small town America rendered ever stranger by purveyors of nostalgia and dark visionaries from Sherwood Anderson to David Lynch And yet it is the small town that world of local character and neighborhood lore that dreamed the America we know today and the small town boy like those whose stories this book tells who made it real In these life stories beginning in 1890 with frontier historian Frederick Jackson Turner and moving up to the present with global shopkeeper Sam Walton a history of middle America unfolds as entrepreneurs and teachers like Henry Ford George Washington Carver and Walt Disney artists and entertainers like Thomas Hart Benton Grant Wood Carl Sandburg and Johnny Carson political figures like William

DePuy* Henry G. Gole, 2008-09-26 This excellent biography of one of the US Army's unsung heroes provides a much needed re-examination of the early post Vietnam Army Bowling Green Daily News By the 1970s the United States Army was demoralized by the outcome of the Vietnam War and shifting attitudes at home The institution as a whole needed to be reorganized and reinvigorated and General William E DePuy was the man for the job In 1973 DePuy was appointed commander of the newly established Training and Doctrine Command TRADOC. By integrating training doctrine combat developments and management in the US Army he cultivated a military force prepared to fight and win in modern war. General William E. DuPuy is the first full length biography of this key figure in American military history. With extensive interviews with those who knew DePuy as well as access to his personal papers, Henry G. Gole chronicles and analyzes his unique contributions to the Army and nation. Gole guides the reader from DePuy's boyhood and college days in South Dakota through the major events and achievements of his life. During World War II DePuy served in the 357th Infantry Regiment in Europe from the Normandy invasion until 1945 when he was stationed in Czechoslovakia. DePuy was asked by George Patton to serve as his aide; he supervised clandestine operations in China; he was instrumental in establishing Special Forces in Vietnam and he briefed President Lyndon B. Johnson in the White House. But his finest contribution was fixing a broken Army.

Social-Emotional Curriculum With Gifted and Talented Students Joyce Van Tassel-Baska, Tracy L. Cross, F. Richard Olenchak, 2021-09-03. A gifted education Legacy Award winner, Social Emotional Curriculum With Gifted and Talented Students provides a thorough introduction to methods for developing social emotional curricula for use with gifted and talented learners in the school setting. Including overviews of strategies that work for implementing social emotional strategies in the everyday curricula, this book is part of the Critical Issues in Equity and Excellence series, a joint publication project of the National Association for Gifted Children and Prufrock Press. It combines research and experience from leading scholars in the field of the affective needs of gifted students in a convenient guide for teachers, administrators, and gifted education program directors. The book covers theories to guide affective curricula, the needs of minority students, models to develop social emotional curricula, tips for counseling gifted students, and strategies to promote the social emotional needs of gifted students along with discussions of suicide prevention among this population, the use of bibliotherapy and discussion groups, and the teacher counselor connection in affective curricula. This handy guide to developing social emotional curricula for gifted students is a necessity for anyone serving and working with this population.

Afield Robert DeMott, Dave Smith, 2014-11-11. This marvelous collection features stories from some of America's finest and most respected writers about every outdoorsman's favorite and most loyal hunting partner: his dog. For the first time, the stories of acclaimed writers such as Tom Brokaw, Howell Raines, Rick Bass, Sydney Lea, Jim Harrison, Tom McGuane, and Chris Camuto come together in one collection. Hunters and non hunters alike will recognize in these poignant tales the universal aspects of owning dogs: companionship, triumph, joy, forgiveness, and loss. The hunter's outdoor spirit meets the writer's passion for detail in these honest, fresh pieces of storytelling. Here are the days spent on the trail, shotgun in hand, with Fido on point; the thrills and memories that fill the hearts of bird hunters. Here is the perfect gift for dog lovers, hunters, and bibliophiles of every makeup. This is a delightful, handsome volume that captures the wild spirit of dogs and those who love them.
