Selected Works of Laura Lee Hope Laura Lee Hope, Oh Bunny Here comes Bunker Blue Where is he I don't see him Bunny Brown and his Sister Sue were playing on the shady side porch of their house one morning when the little girl looking up from a cracker box which had been made into a bed where she was putting her doll to sleep saw a tall boy walking up the path There's Bunker went on Sue to her brother Bunny at the same time pointing Maybe he's come to take us for a ride in one of daddy's fishing boats Have you Bunker asked Bunny standing up and brushing some shavings from his little jacket for he had been using a dull kitchen knife trying to whittle out a wooden boat from a piece of curtain stick Oh Bunker have you Have I what asked the tall boy who worked on the dock where Mr Brown the father of Bunny and Sue carried on a boat and fish business Have I what Bunker asked again and he stood still and gazed at the two small children who were anxiously looking at him Have you come to take us for a ride asked Bunny In one of daddy's boats added Sue who generally waited for her brother to speak first since he was a year older than she Not this time messmates answered Bunker Blue with a laugh calling the children the name one sailor sometimes gives to another Not this time messmates I've come up to get the ark Oh the ark cried Bunny Did you hear that Sue Bunker has come up to get the ark Oh Oh and Sue fairly squealed in delight Then we'll have a nice ride in that Wait Bunker till I put my doll away and I'll come with you Wait for me And I'll come too added Bunny I can bring my boat with me Tisn't all done yet he added but I can whittle on it when we ride along and then I can sail it when we get to the dock Now avast there and belay messmates cried Bunker Blue with a laugh using some more of the kind of talk he heard among the sailors that came to Mr Brown's dock with boats of fish Wait a minute I didn't say I had come to give you a ride in the ark I just came to get it But you will let us ride won't you Bunker asked Bunny smiling at the tall boy Cause we'll sit just as still as anything added Sue And I won't touch the steering wheel not once promised Bunny I guess you'd better not not after you once got almost run away with in the big ark said Bunker I should say not Oh please let us come with you begged Sue We want awful much to ride in the ark Bunker While the two children were talking to the tall boy another little girl had crawled under the fence from the street and was now standing near Bunny and his sister She was Sadie West one of Sue's chums and when she heard Bunny's sister begging for a ride in the ark Sadie said Oh Sue is he going to take your Noah's ark away I wouldn't let him if I were you It isn't Noah's ark at all Sue explained We call the big automobile that we had such a long ride in the ark It looks a little like a Noah's ark but it's bigger and we can all get in it she added Oh exclaimed Sadie I thought Bunker meant he was going to take your little ark and all the wooden animals away she added Not this time said Bunker Blue Your father sent me up Bunny to get the big auto the ark as you call it It's got to be fixed and I'm to drive it to the shop over at East Milford That's why I came up Where's your mother I want to tell her I'm taking away the ark so she won't think some tramps or some gypsies have run off with it I'll call her Sue said while Bunny kept on brushing the tiny whittlings from his jacket and short trousers And there was a queer look on the face of Bunny Brown

What We Have Lost Robert Lee, When the hen lays her eggs the shells are soft and pliable forming their durable armour as they experience the outside world Each of us enters the world with similarly flawed and weak shells Our shells are not broken and cracked by life but are formed of the fragments that we encounter piece by piece growing more complete with each experience What We Have Lost is a series of disconnected but closely related anecdotes in the lives of a family shaped by extreme poverty These individual narratives chronicle the slow sculpting of the characters as they fuse with their world enveloped in mental illness Molded by their mother's paranoia social isolation and obsessive drive to instill the hunger for learning and sense of duty to others the four siblings evolve in unique and often pathological ways Not knowing or understanding the bonds of familial love Garry Judy Rob and Roger need to discover their own path to personal peace None may make it What We Have Lost exposes the cruelty of poverty It opens up the heart of that world in surprising and convoluted ways The pathos is clear the hidden pleasures need unearthing What We Have Lost is a collection of anecdotes but as you read you will find that they are far from disconnected after all
