Looking at photographs, 1973 Psychology of the Image Michael A. Forrester, 2000 Psychology of the Image outlines a theoretical framework bringing together the semiotic concepts developed by Charles Peirce the sociological insights of Ervin Goffman and the psychoanalytic ideas of Jacques Lacan Image studies in fashion advertising photography film studies and psychology have been influenced by these theorists in significant ways The framework presented helps the reader understand how these ideas relate to the study of different domains of the image the internal imagery of dreams external images such as the photograph and image processes which span both contexts e g images we have about ourselves The topics discussed are organised into three themes The first considers mental imagery including sound and dreams The second addresses the interdependent nature of internal and external images e g the gendered self and social identity In the third theme attention turns to external images including television film photography the computer and the internet

Psychology of the Image will be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates lecturers and researchers in the fields of psychology media studies and sociology Nearby History David E. Kyvig, Myron A. Marty, 2000 In the Second Edition of Nearby History the authors have updated all chapters introduced information about internet sources and uses of newer technologies as well as updated the appendices Reading Marie al-Khazen's Photographs Yasmine Nachabe

Taan, 2020-11-26 The Lebanese photographer Marie al Khazen seized every opportunity to use her camera during the years that she was active between 1920 and 1940 She not only documented her travels around tourist sites in Lebanon but also sought creative experimentation with her camera by staging scenes manipulating shadows and superimposing negatives to produce different effects in her prints Within her photographs bedouins and European friends peasants and landlords men and women comfortably share the same space Her photographs include an intriguing collection portraying her family and friends living their everyday lives in 1920s and 30s Zgharta a village in the north of Lebanon Yasmine Nachabe Taan explores these photographs emphasizing the ways in which notions of gender and class are inscribed within them and revealing how they are charged with symbols of women's emancipation to today's viewers through women's presence as individuals separate from family restrictions of that time Images in which women are depicted smoking cigarettes driving cars riding horses and accompanying men on hunting trips counteract the common ways in which women were portrayed in contemporary Lebanon Introducing Qualitative Research In Psychology Willig, Carla, 2013-05-01 This vital student resource takes six different approaches to qualitative methods and discusses the techniques to use these in research
