

A photograph of a rocky coastline at dusk or dawn. The foreground is filled with large, dark, wet rocks. In the middle ground, a small boat is visible on the water. The horizon is bright with a low sun or moon, creating a strong glow. The sky is dark and cloudy. The overall mood is serene and atmospheric.

Looking North Art From The University Of Alaska Museum:

Looking North University of Alaska Museum, Aldona Jonaitis, Susan McInnis, Alvin Amason, 1998 The University of Alaska Museum's collection of Alaskan art ranges from 2 000 year old ivory carvings to paintings done in the 1990s LOOKING NORTH presents 138 of the Museum's most treasured works The book also engages the reader intellectually challenging him or her to see each piece from multiple perspectives 146 illustrations 135 in color An Annotated Bibliography of Inuit Art

Richard C. Crandall, Susan M. Crandall, 2015-07-25 Archaeological digs have turned up sculptures in Inuit lands that are thousands of years old but Inuit art as it is known today only dates back to the beginning of the 1900s Early art was traditionally produced from soft materials such as whalebone and tools and objects were also fashioned out of stone bone and ivory because these materials were readily available The Inuit people are known not just for their sculpture but for their graphic art as well the most prominent forms being lithographs and stonecuts This work affords easy access to information to those interested in any type of Inuit art There are annotated entries on over 3 761 articles books catalogues government documents and other publications The Museums and Collections of Higher Education Andrew Simpson, 2022-12-23 The

Museums and Collections of Higher Education provides an analysis of the historic connections between materiality and higher education developed through diverse examples of global practice Outlining the different value propositions that museums and collections bring to higher education the historic link between objects evidence and academic knowledge is examined with reference to the origin point of both types of organisation Museums and collections bring institutional reflection cross disciplinary bridges digital extension options and participatory potential Given the two primary sources of text and object a singular source type predisposes a knowledge system to epistemic stasis whereas mixed sources develop the potential for epistemic disruption and possible change Museums and collections therefore are essential in the academies of higher learning With the many challenges confronting humanity it is argued that connecting intellect with social action for societal change through university museums should be a contemporary manifestation of the social contract of universities Much has been written about museums and universities but there is little about university museums and collections This book will interest museum scholars and practitioners especially those unaware that university museums are at the forefront of museological creativity It will also be of interest to academics and the growing number of leaders and managers in the modern university Anthropomorphic Images in Rock Art Paintings and Rock Carvings Terence Meaden, Herman

Bender, 2020-02-27 In rock art humanlike images appear widely throughout the ages The artworks discussed in this book range from paintings engravings or scratchings on cave walls and rock shelters images pecked into rocky surfaces or upon standing stones and major sacred sites in which exists the possibility of recovering the meanings intended by the artists

Imperial Museum Dynasties in Europe Alison L. Kahn, 2023-09-12 This book reveals the history of the Vatican's ethnographic collections by exploring the imperial scientific technological and religious agendas behind its collecting and curating practices in the early twentieth century It focuses on two principal contributors the academic priest and Pope's Curator Father Wilhelm Schmidt SVD and the missionary and linguist Father Franz Kirschbaum SVD Their narratives are embedded in a unique set of comparisons between the liberal humanist ideals that underpinned the 1851 Great Exhibition mid nineteenth century German museology and the 1925 Pontifical Missionary Exhibition It relates to the period of high colonialism and rampant missionary activity worldwide It unravels the complicated political and ideological stance taken by the Catholic Church and its place within the science religion debates of its time Establishing an essential link between the secular and catholic practices of collecting and curating ethnographic objects from non Western traditions the author proposes a broader framework for post colonial approaches to scholarly studies of ethnographic collections including those of the Catholic Church This book appeals to students and scholars of anthropology museum studies history art history religion politics and cultural studies An Exploration of Prehistoric Ontologies in the Bering Strait Region Feng Qu,2021-01-07

This book introduces readers to the belief and symbolism present in the prehistoric art of the Bering Strait region For about a century the archaeology of this area has mainly focused on material economic and technological perspectives leaving studies of prehistoric spirituality religion and cosmology to be under conceptualized This text questions the nature of materiality and the relationship between it and spirituality It employs an analytical and methodological approach located within the frameworks of practice theory and animist ontologies to open up thought provoking avenues for interpretive possibility This book also provides new knowledge about the prehistoric material culture of ancient Inuit people and offers an assessment of contemporary archaeological theories such as cognitive archaeology structural archaeology and shamanism theory in order to examine the reliability of these theories in the studies of prehistoric art According to the ontological trend which has constituted a powerful challenge to traditional nature culture and body mind dichotomies this book reconsiders prehistoric Inuit cultures providing an analysis of therianthropic motifs on prehistoric ivories to explore potential shamanism within ontological and cosmological structures On Aboriginal representation in the Gallery Lydia Jessup,Shannon

Bagg,2002-01-01 In recognizing the established intellectual and institutional authority of Aboriginal artists curators and academics working in cultural institutions and universities this volume serves as an important primer on key questions and issues accompanying the changing representational practices of the community cultural center the public art gallery and the anthropological museum Published in English Archaeological Approaches to Shamanism Dragoş Gheorghiu,Herman

Bender,Emilia Pásztor,George Nash,2018-04-18 This long awaited book discusses both ancient and modern shamanism demonstrating its longevity and spatial distribution The book is divided into eleven thought provoking chapters that are organised into three sections mind body nature and culture It discusses the clear associations with this sometimes little understood ritualised practice and asks what shamanism is and if tangible evidence can be extracted from a largely fragmentary archaeological record The book offers a novel portrayal of the material culture of shamanism by collating
