It offers the non-specialist a way in to unfamiliar philosophical texts and methods and the opportunity to explore non-European philosophical terrain and to connect her work in one tradition to philosophical ideas or texts from another. Sections on Chinese Philosophy, Indian Philosophy, Buddhist Philosophy, East Asian Philosophy, African Philosophy, and Recent Trends in Global Philosophy are each edited by an expert in the field. Each section includes a general introduction and a set of authoritative articles written by leading scholars designed to provide the non-specialist a broad overview of a major topic or figure. This volume is an invaluable aid to those who would like to pursue philosophy in a global context and to those who are committed to moving beyond Eurocentrism in academic philosophy.

The Oxford Handbook of Distributive Justice Serena Olsaretti, 2018. A Companion to Applied Ethics R. G. Frey, Christopher Heath Wellman, 2008-04-15. Applied or practical ethics is perhaps the largest growth area in philosophy today and many issues in moral, social, and political life have come under philosophical scrutiny in recent years. Taken together, the essays in this volume, including two overview essays on theories of ethics and the nature of applied ethics, provide a state-of-the-art account of the most pressing moral questions facing us today. Provides a comprehensive guide to many of the most significant problems of practical ethics. Offers state-of-the-art accounts of issues in medical, environmental, legal, social, and business ethics. Written by major philosophers presently engaged with these complex and profound ethical issues.

Heirs of Oppression Angelo J. Corlett, 2010-11-16. Packing his case with moral argument and relevant facts, Angelo Corlett offers the most comprehensive defense to date in favor of reparations for African Americans and American Indians. As Corlett sees it, the heirs of oppression are both the descendants of the oppressors and the descendants of their victims. Corlett delves deeply into the philosophically related issues of collective responsibility, forgiveness, and apology, and reparations as a human right in ways that no other book or article to date has done. He recommends specific policies and tests the basic arguments of this book with a lengthy chapter considering several objections to the line of reasoning grounding the project.

Arguments and Fists Mika LaVaque-Manty, 2002-03-22. Many theorists have addressed a central concern of current political theory by contending that the dithering intellectualism of left politics prevents genuine political action. Arguments and Fists confronts this concern by refuting these arguments and reconciling philosophical debates with the realities of current activism. By looking at theorists such as Montesquieu, Kant, Rousseau, the book contradicts current academic debates and also goes against contemporary theory's image of the liberal political agent as a narrowly rational abstraction. Mika LaVaque-Manty also argues that progressive political philosophy and political action go hand in hand. He then ventures past Kant and Rousseau to talk about specific environmental activism, finding middle ground between the two while asserting that the liberal urge for political reform stems from sound philosophical considerations about the nature of politics and isn't the cowardly afterthoughts some theorists have called it Arguments and Fists then puts these theoretical insights to use examining environmental justice movements and varieties of environmental radicalism showing how liberal theory illuminates concrete contemporary political practices

The Decline of Mercy in Public Life Alex Tuckness,John M.

Parrish,2014-04-21 Mercy is a marginalized virtue in contemporary public life but understanding its complex conceptual history suggests how that might change Basic Equality and Discrimination Dr Nicholas Mark Smith,2013-02-28 The focus of this book is the idea of equality as a moral political and jurisprudential concept The author is motivated primarily by a concern to better understand conundrums in the justification interpretation and application of discrimination law Nicholas Smith aims to provide a clearer understanding of the nature of the value that the law is trying to uphold equality He rejects the notion that the concept of equality is vacuous and defends the idea as the proper range of moral concern After discussing the general characteristics of the denial of equality and some types of discrimination Smith considers prominent views on the point of equality law He argues that human rights lawyers should step back from the business of trying to steer courts towards vague equality goals informed by conceptions of equality that are either empty or even more abstract than the notion of equality itself If they do Smith thinks that the meaning of equality will be apparent though abstract and our difficulties will be shown to be in the first instance moral ones These moral issues will require more rigorous attention before we can draft discrimination law which gives clear effect to a widely legitimate understanding of what it means to uphold and promote equality This book will be a valuable resource for students and researchers working in the areas of legal philosophy political theory public law and human rights law The Wood-worker ,1908

Thomas E. Hill,1991-07-26 This stimulating collection of essays in ethics eschews the simple exposition and refinement of abstract theories Rather the author focuses on everyday moral issues often neglected by philosophers and explores the deeper theoretical questions which they raise Such issues are Is it wrong to tell a lie to protect someone from a painful truth Should one commit a lesser evil to prevent another from doing something worse Can one be both autonomous and compassionate Other topics discussed are servility weakness of will suicide obligations to oneself snobbery and environmental concerns A feature of the collection is the contrast of Kantian and utilitarian answers to these problems The essays are crisply and lucidly written and will appeal to both teachers and students of philosophy State Punishment Nicola Lacey,2012-10-12 Nicola Lacey presents a new approach to the question of the moral justification of punishment by the State She focuses on the theory of punishments in context of other political questions such as the nature of political obligation and the function and scope of criminal law Arguing that no convincing set of justifying reasons has so far been produced she puts forward a theory of punishments which places the values of the community at its centre
