In the summer of 1995 El Vez, the Mexican Elvis, along with his backup singers and band The Lovely Elvettes and the Memphis Mariachis served as master of ceremony for a ground-breaking show Diva L.A. A Salute to L.A.'s Latinas in the Tanda Style. The performances were remarkable not only for the talent displayed but for their blend of linguistic, musical and cultural traditions. In Loca Motion Michelle Habell-Pallan argues that performances like Diva L.A. play a vital role in shaping and understanding contemporary transnational social dynamics. Chicano and Latino popular culture, including spoken word, performance art, comedy, theater and punk music aesthetics, is central to developing cultural forms and identities that reach across and beyond the Americas from Mexico City to Vancouver to Berlin. Drawing on the lives and work of a diverse group of artists, Habell-Pallan explores new perspectives that defy both traditional forms of Latino cultural nationalism and the expectations of U.S. culture. The result is a sophisticated rethinking of identity, politics and an invaluable lens from which to view the complex dynamics of race, class, gender and sexuality. The Value Line Investment Survey, 2007.
