How Can Man Die Better Mike Snook, 2010-05-30 This chronicle of the first battle in the Anglo Zulu War is the most powerful and moving modern account of the great Zulu epic that I have ever read Richard Holmes historian and author of The Age of Wonder On January 22 1879 a massive Zulu host attacked the British Army's 24th Regiment in its encampment at the foot of the mountain of Isandlwana It was the first major encounter in the Anglo Zulu War and a disastrous defeat for the colonial power Later that afternoon the victorious Zulus would strike the tiny British garrison at Rorke's Drift How Can Man Die Better is a unique analysis of the Battle of Isandlwana covering the weapons tactics terrain and the intriguing characters who made key military decisions While much is still unknown about the battle this work eschews the commonly held perception that the British collapse was sudden and that the 24th Regiment was quickly overwhelmed Rather historian Mike Snook argues that there was a protracted and heroic defense against a determined and equally heroic foe A British Army colonel who served in South Africa Snook reconstructs the final phase of the battle in a way that has never been attempted before

Robert Sobukwe - How can Man Die Better Benjamin Pogrand, 2015-06-26 I am greatly privileged to have known him and to have fallen under his spell His long imprisonment restriction and early death were a major tragedy for our land and the world ARCHBISHOP DESMOND TUTU on Sobukwe On 21 March 1960 Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe led a mass defiance of South Africa's pass laws He urged blacks to go to the nearest police station and demand arrest Police opened fire on a peaceful crowd in the township of Sharpeville and killed 69 people This protest changed the course of South Africa s history Sobukwe leader of the Pan Africanist Congress was jailed for three years for incitement At the end of his sentence the government rushed the so called Sobukwe Clause through Parliament to keep him in prison without a trial For the next six years Sobukwe was kept in solitary confinement on Robben Island On his release Sobukwe was banished to the town of Kimberley with very severe restrictions on his freedom until his death in February 1978 This book is the story of a South African hero and of the friendship between him and Benjamin Pogrund whose joint experiences and debates chart the course of a tyrannous regime and the growth of black resistance This new edition of How Can Man Die Better contains a number of previously unpublished photographs and an updated Epilogue
