Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 2013      Managing Contracted Services in the Nonprofit Agency Susan Bernstein, 2010-04-29 Interviews with nonprofit agency managers illuminate how welfare state mechanisms work in practice and in the tangled nature of bureaucracies      Sexual Identities and Sexuality in Social Work Priscilla Dunk-West, 2016-04-01 Sexuality and sexual identity have been relatively marginalized areas in both social work education and practice However changes in policy and legislation in the UK and other countries over the past decade have brought discussions of sexuality into the mainstream public service agenda In social work and social care gay and lesbian citizenship rights have been explicitly recognised In the fields of adoption and fostering new regulations and guidance have helped improve and develop practice around assessment and intervention It remains the case however that sex is often perceived as a problem area within social work and social care discussed only in relation to sexually diverse communities or in the realm of dysfunction or pathology This collection aims to generate a more proactive and challenging discussion of sexuality and sexual identity in social work Its starting point is that sexuality is an essential aspect of individual identity that users must be able to express their sexuality and that it is essential for social workers to be able to respond and discuss sexual issues appropriately The contributions are informed by feminist research considering in particular the experiences of women working in and using social care services since the 1990s In addition to a consideration of the wider policy legislative and service providers perspectives the book includes reflective accounts as well as research led contributions offering a comprehensive and balanced account of this important field which aims to inform both theory and practice

Care in Chaos Roger Hadley,Roger Clough,1998-09-01 This text book examines the policy and organizational context for community care and consists of interviews and case studies showing how community care is or is not working within the areas of care for the elderly learning disabilities mental health and physical disabilities

Successful Project Management in Social Work and Social Care Gary Spolander,Linda Martin,2012 This is a practical guide to the essential core skills of project management in social work and social care The authors set out the tools steps and stages necessary for successful project management Detailed case studies demonstrate the ideas in action and reflective activities practical tools and action checklists are included throughout
