In this book, Helena Bassil Morozow employs Jungian and post-Jungian concepts of unconscious mental processes along with film semiotics analysis of narrative devices and cinematic history to explore the reworking of myth and fairytale in Burton's gothic fantasy world. The book explores the idea that Burton's lonely rebellious monstrous protagonists roam the earth because they are unable to fit into the normalising tendencies of society and become part of the crowd. Divided into six chapters, the book considers the concept of the archetype in various settings, focusing on the child, the monster, the superhero, the genius, the maniac, the monstrous society. Tim Burton: The Monster and the Crowd offers an entirely fresh perspective on Tim Burton's works. The book is essential reading for students and scholars of film or Jungian psychology as well as anyone interested in critical issues in contemporary culture. It will also be of great help to those fans of Tim Burton who have been searching for a profound academic analysis of his works. Masters of the Grotesque Schuy R. Weishaar, 2012-10-16 The concepts and theories surrounding the aesthetic category of the grotesque are explored in this book by pursuing their employment in the films of American auteurs: Tim Burton, Terry Gilliam, the Coen Brothers, and David Lynch. The author argues that interpreting these directors' films through the lens of the grotesque allows us to situate both the auteurs and the films within a long history of the grotesque in art and aesthetics. This cultural tradition effectively subsumes the contribution of any artist or genre that intersects it but also affords the artist or genre, the auteur, and the genre filmmaker a pantheon and an abundance of images, themes, and motifs through which he or she can subversively represent the world and our place in it.

Translation Studies Abstracts/Bibliography of Translation Studies, 2008 More&More Marina

Zurkow, 2016-01-29 More More is an art and research project that explores the language and mechanics of global trade, container shipping, and the exchange of goods. It questions a mercantile structure that by necessity disallows the presence of ocean as a real space in order to flatten the world into a Pangaea of capital. The project is presented in two volumes released in conjunction with an exhibition of Marina Zurkow's work with collaborators Sarah Rothberg, Surya Mattu, and others at bitforms gallery in New York City in February 2016. This book, More More: A Guide to the Harmonized System, is an experimental brick of a book that intervenes in the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System, also known as the HS Code. The HS Code is the internationally accepted standard of product classification which codifies the way nations conduct import/export. All legal trade products and illegal ones that find loopholes are shipped using this system. More More: A Guide to the Harmonized System lists the astonishing variety of items that are shipped around the world and includes instructions for using the code to ship items both legally and illegally. It also includes poetic, personal, and scholarly annotations by Stacy Alaimo, Heather Davis, Kathleen Forde, Dylan Gauthier, Elena Glasberg, Calliope Mathios, Steve Mentz, Astrida Neimanis, Chris Piuma, Elspeth Probyn, Sarah Rothberg, Phil Steinberg, Rita Wong, and Marina Zurkow. Its companion book More More The Invisible Oceans is a catalog of the exhibition featuring many full color images of the art on display including video stills bespoke bathing suits and fungal sculptures as well as an introduction by Marina Zurkow and a conversation between Zurkow and international curator Kathleen Forde     A Study Guide for Stephen Sondheim's "Sweeney Todd: The Demon Barber of Fleet Street" \(film entry\) Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Stephen Sondheim's Sweeney Todd The Demon Barber of Fleet Street film entry excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Drama for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Drama for Students for all of your research needs
