Fighting the US Youth Sex Trade Carrie N. Baker, 2018-09-27 Campaigns against prostitution of young people in the United States have surged and ebbed multiple times over the last fifty years Fighting the US Youth Sex Trade Gender Race and Politics examines how politically and ideologically diverse activists joined together to change perceptions and public policies on youth involvement in the sex trade over time reframing juvenile prostitution of the 1970s as commercial sexual exploitation of children in the 1990s and then as domestic minor sex trafficking in the 2000s Based on organizational archives and interviews with activists Baker shows that these campaigns were fundamentally shaped by the politics of gender race and class and global anti trafficking campaigns The author argues that the very frames that have made these movements so successful in achieving new laws and programs for youth have limited their ability to achieve systematic reforms that could decrease youth vulnerability to involvement in the sex trade

The New Slave Narrative Laura T. Murphy,2019-09-17 A century and a half after the abolition of slavery in the United States survivors of contemporary forms of enslavement from around the world have revived a powerful tool of the abolitionist movement first person narratives of slavery and freedom Just as Frederick Douglass Harriet Jacobs and others used autobiographical testimonies in the fight to eradicate slavery today s new slave narrators play a crucial role in shaping an antislavery agenda Their writings unveil the systemic underpinnings of global slavery while critiquing the precarity of their hard fought freedom At the same time the demands of antislavery organizations religious groups and book publishers circumscribe the voices of the enslaved coopting their narratives in support of alternative agendas In this pathbreaking interdisciplinary study Laura T Murphy argues that the slave narrative has reemerged as a twenty first century genre that has gained new currency in the context of the memoir boom post 9 11 anti Islamic sentiment and conservative family values politics She analyzes a diverse range of dozens of book length accounts of modern slavery from Africa Asia the United States the United Kingdom and Europe examining the narrative strategies that survivors of slavery employ to make their experiences legible and to promote a reinvigorated antislavery agenda By putting these stories into conversation with one another The New Slave Narrative reveals an emergent survivor centered counterdiscourse of collaboration and systemic change that offers an urgent critique of the systems that maintain contemporary slavery as well as of the human rights industry and the antislavery movement

Survivor Martina Keogh,2003 Beyond Slavery Chris Gooding,2023-06-05 Is there life beyond slavery In the past twenty years there has been an explosion of research related to human trafficking. However, very little of it has examined the moral issues that survivors face after they are freed or that aftercare workers face as they help survivors try to live a life outside of bondage. And there has been almost nothing written on how the tools of moral and political theology might offer insight for Christians who wish to help survivors live a normal life after enslavement. This book hopes to address this gap in the discussion. Drawing on over fifty interviews with survivors, aftercare workers, and human trafficking specialists from his field work in India, Chris Gooding confronts difficult questions that arise during rehabilitation: Why do so many survivors of trafficking end up walking back into bondage? What might life after slavery look like for survivors who helped enslave other people? How can we build antislavery coalitions that keep survivors' voices at the center? Gooding looks at all these questions through the eschatological hope that Christians have that the Messiah will one day break every chain and free all people from all forms of bondage.

Sex Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation Lara Gerassi, Andrea J.

Nichols, 2017-09-28 This is the first comprehensive text to critically analyze the current research and best practices for working with children, adolescents, and adults involved in sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation (CSE). With a unique research-based focus on practice, the book synthesizes the key areas related to working with victims of sex trafficking: CSE, including prevention, identification, practice techniques, and program design, as well as suggested interagency, criminal justice, and legislative responses. Best practices are examined through an intersectional, trauma-informed lens that adheres to principles of cultural competency. Highlights include: Integrates a trauma-informed lens in practice, program design, and interagency responses; Uses an intersectional approach to examine identity-based oppression such as race, class, sex, LGBTQ identities, age, immigrant status, and intellectual disabilities; Highlights the importance of cultural competency in practice and program design; prevention and outreach efforts; and interagency and criminal justice system responses. Reviews the different types of sex trafficking and CSE, the physiological and psychological effects, various risk factors, and the distinct needs of survivors to encourage practitioners to tailor interventions to the specific needs of each client. Examines the role of social workers and practitioners in interagency, legislative, and criminal justice responses to sex trafficking. Takes a broad societal perspective by examining the role of macro-level risk factors facilitating sex trafficking victimization. The book analyzes the commonly reported indicators of sex trafficking, CSE, how to conduct a screening with potential victims, and direct practice techniques with various populations, including evidence-based trauma treatments. Other chapters guide the reader in implementing trauma-informed programming in a variety of organizational settings, advocating for sex trafficking and CSE survivors within the criminal justice system, and implementing effective prevention and outreach programs in schools and community organizations. Intended as a text for upper division courses on sex or human trafficking, interventions with women, trauma, interventions, violence against women or gender, and crime taught in social work, psychology, counseling, and criminal justice, this book is also an ideal resource for practitioners working with victims of sex trafficking and CSE in a variety of settings including child protective services the criminal justice system healthcare schools and more

The Concentration Camp Brothel Robert Sommer, 2025-05-06 Discover the chilling untold story of sexual forced labor in Nazi concentration camps In his seminal work The Concentration Camp Brothel Robert Sommer reveals the hidden horrors of sexual forced labor within the SS camp system a subject long overshadowed and seldom acknowledged in the discourse on the Holocaust Through his rigorous examination of over seventy archives and poignant interviews with more than thirty survivors including former visitors of camp brothels Sommer paints a vivid and harrowing picture of the atrocities committed This book is the first to offer a comprehensive exploration of the establishment operation and profound impact of brothels in Nazi concentration camps Sommer s research meticulously details the brothels integration into the concentration camp system their role in the Nazi exploitation of bodies for control and profit and the complex reactions of the prisoner society to these establishments He explores the desperate survival strategies employed by the women forced into sexual labor and the chilling motivations of their exploiters The book also places the tragedy of camp brothels in the broader context of sexual violence under Nazi rule making a critical connection between these acts of exploitation and the overall history of the Holocaust This updated English edition incorporates new findings and perspectives since the original German publication in 2009 providing a more comprehensive understanding of the subject The foreword by Annette F Timm adds further context and contemporary analysis enhancing the book s relevance and depth

Depth Psychology, Cult Survivors, and the Role of the Daimon Linda R. Quennec, 2024-06-10 This book explores the possibilities that exist for navigating out of and away from multiple levels of oppression through memoir based research It considers how those raised in oppressive high demand communities colloquially referred to as cults can emancipate themselves from controls and expectations inculcated from early childhood and examines processes surrounding the psychological reclamation of self Exploring and metaphorically tending to an orienting psychological dynamic that the ancient Greeks related to as the daimon and using the perspectives of Jungian and post Jungian depth psychology the author investigates how subjects can reclaim agency and avoid excessive control over their thoughts attention and life s intentions They suggest that depth psychologically oriented modes can be used to this attunement and explore this notion through a study of memoirs of individuals who were raised in cults Suggesting a more aligned approach to working with varying levels of psychological constraint and utilizing a phenomenological hermeneutic study it will appeal to scholars and professionals in depth psychology and other psychological orientations as well as individuals who are interested in more deeply understanding the psychological mechanisms involved in leaving a high demand group or other oppressive situations

Sex Trafficking in Postcolonial Literature Laura Barberán Reinares, 2014-08-27 At present the bulk of the existing research on sex trafficking originates in the social sciences Sex Trafficking in Postcolonial Literature adds an original perspective on this issue by examining representations of sex trafficking in postcolonial literature This book is a sustained interdisciplinary study bridging postcolonial literature in English and Spanish and sex trafficking as analyzed through literary theory anthropology sociology history trauma theory journalism and globalization studies It encompasses postcolonial theory and literature s aesthetic analysis of sex trafficking together with research from social sciences psychology anthropology and economics with the intention of offering a comprehensive analysis of the topic beyond the type of Orientalist discourse so prevalent in the media This is an important and innovative resource for scholars in literature postcolonial studies gender studies human rights and global justice

The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Bożena Karwowska, 2023-10-16 The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Early Literary Accounts of the Camp Experience examines bodily descriptions from early testimonies of concentration camp survivors focusing on questions related to meanings of corporeality as well as to Holocaust researchers and links the discourse of the body with a social cartography of the Auschwitz camp complex The heart of the book is comprised of memory based texts written by survivors in the early years after the war The early texts discussed were written in Polish and while some became internationally recognized others remain virtually unknown especially outside of Poland These early memoirs and literary works help navigate the space of the Auschwitz camp complex from the perspective of the victims based on their experiences and decipher those areas devoid of narratives spaces of total annihilation Literary accounts and early testimonies allow us to map the space of the camp differently than through the documents produced by the Nazi perpetrators Such a social cartography also includes specific gendered differences and allows Karwowska to critically analyze sensitive questions related to the body gender and sexuality of a prisoner
