A Memoir in Letters Hadwig Gofferje, 2005-06. A Memoir in Letters. My Life on Both Sides of the Iron Curtain is the touching autobiography that first chronicles the young life of German-born Hadwig Gofferje, born during World War II, then living under communist rule. She describes her journey to freedom, complete with an American university education and a new life in the United States. In 1945, after packing one carefully chosen favorite toy in her suitcase, Hadwig and her family fled the approaching Russian Red Army and immigrated to a small village in Thuringia. Hadwig describes not a peaceful beginning to her life but a life in which actions and choices were incredibly influenced by World War II and the division of Germany. Eventually moving without her parents to West Germany and later to the United States, Hadwig receives the university education that changes her life forever.
