Movements In English Literature 1900 1940:

Movements in English Literature, 1900-1940 Christopher Gillie, 1978 Movements in English Literature Gillie, 1975-05-29 In this 1975 volume Christopher Gillie follows the method of selecting writers that are most significant for this study. He tries to show the main movements in English literature between 1900 and 1940 and selects for discussion those writers who have an abiding relevance even those without a large readership. As a guide to himself as well as the reader, he includes in the account enough historical and social narrative as may help explain such relevance and why he has made particular selections. Gillie reinforces his critical comments with quotations from the selected writers and provides an extensive bibliography for further study.

The Oxford English Literary History: Volume 10: 1910-1940: The Modern Movement Chris Baldick, 2005-11-10 This exciting new volume provides a freshly inclusive account of literature in England in the period before, during, and after the First World War. Chris Baldick places the modernist achievements of Virginia Woolf, T. S. Eliot, and James Joyce within the rich context of non-modernist writings across all major genres, allowing high literary art to be read against the background of low entertainment. Looking well beyond the modernist vanguard, Baldick highlights the survival and renewal of realist traditions in these decades of post-Victorian disillusionment. Ranging widely across psychological novels, war poems, detective stories, satires, and children's books, The Modern Movement provides a unique survey of the literature of this turbulent time.

English Literature from the 19th Century Through Today J. E. Luebering, Manager and Senior Editor, Literature, 2010-08-15 Explores the works, writers, and movements that shaped the British literary canon from the nineteenth century through the beginning of the twenty-first century.

Twentieth-Century English Literature A. Norman Jeffares, Michael Morony, 1986-12-12 In revising this book for a second edition, Harry Blamires has updated his final chapters to give a thorough coverage to the work of dramatists, novelists, and poets who have achieved prominence in the 1980s, either as new writers or rediscovered authors who have recently been brought back into print or revived by radio and television.

British Sources of Information P. Jackson, 2003-09-02 This comprehensive and versatile reference source will be a most important tool for anyone wishing to seek out information on virtually any aspect of British affairs, life, and culture. The resources of a detailed bibliography, directory, and journals listing are combined in this single volume, forming a unique guide to a multitude of diverse topics. British politics, government, society, literature, thought, arts, economics, history, and geography. Academic subjects as taught in British colleges and universities are covered with extensive reading lists of books and journals and sources of information for each discipline, making this an invaluable manual.

The Modern Movement Chris Baldick, 2004 A major new survey of literature in England during the first half of the twentieth century. Chris Baldick places modernist with non-modernist writings, high art with low entertainment. The Modern Movement ranges broadly, covering psychological novels, war poems, detective stories, satires, children's books, and other literary forms evolving in response to the new anxieties and exhilarations of twentieth-century life.

Fragmenting modernism Sara Haslam,2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license

Fragmenting modernism is about Ford Madox Ford a hero of the modernist literary revolution Ford is a fascinating and fundamental figure of the time not only because as a friend and critic of Ezra Pound and Joseph Conrad editor of the English Review and author of The Good Soldier he shaped the development of literary modernism But as the grandson of Ford Madox Brown and son of a German music critic he also manifested formative links with mainland European culture and the visual arts In Ford there is the chance to explore continuity in artistic life at the turn of the century as well as the more commonly identified pattern of crisis in the time The argument throughout is that modernism possesses more than one face Setting Ford in his cultural and historical context the opening chapter debates the concept of fragmentation in modernism later chapters discuss the notion of the personal narrative and war writing Ford's literary technique is studied comparatively and plot summaries of his major books The Good Soldier and Parade's End are provided as is a brief biography Fragmenting Modernism will be useful for anyone studying the literature of the early twentieth century impressionism or modernism in general terms as well as for those who seek to investigate in detail one of the great polymorphous figures of the time

Origins of English Literary Modernism, 1870-1914 Gregory Tague,2009 The aim of this work is to focus on the non dramatic works of the early period of modernism in England with an emphasis on the origins and development of key writers and poets Other such studies date to the mid1980s Michael Levenson Sanford Schwartz Stan Smith e g and tend to lean heavily toward intellectual history or poetics This work strives to include a broad mix of thought as to the issue and the purpose of modernism including cultural anthropology mythology impressionism and the use of architectural space with some attention to publishing the development of the English short story emergence of literary magazines and use of literary reviews in creating a public for new writing Also as opposed the edited collections such as Shiach or Whitworth research is not confined to a single genre nor strays from the focus of literary as opposed to other modern movements then in creation Vital currents of modernism such as literary feminism secular humanism Darwinism and place and placelessness are also discussed The writers and poets discussed include Pound Eliot Wyndham Lewis T E Hulme Hardy F M Ford Joseph Conrad Virginia Woolf Walter Pater Michael Field Henry James Oscar Wilde and E M Forster Contributors include Tyrus Miller University of California Santa Cruz Elizabeth Foley O Connor Fordham University Jason B Jones Central Connecticut State University Charles Sumner University of Southern Mississippi Carme Font Paz Universitat Aut noma de Barcelona Lori M Campbell University of Pittsburgh Elizabeth A Primamore Borough of Manhattan Community College CUNY Robert McParland Felician College Sheng yen Yu National Taipei University of Technology Gregory F Tague St Francis College Alex Moffett Northeastern University Mitchell R Lewis Elmira College Divya Saksena Middle Tennessee State University Yevgeniya Traps Graduate Center CUNY Daniel Moore
