Old Babylonian Account Texts in the Horn Archaeology Museum Marcel Sigrist, Horn Archaeological Museum, 1990

Documentary Sources in Ancient Near Eastern and Greco-Roman Economic History Heather D. Baker, Michael

Jursa, 2014-08-31 This volume breaks new ground in approaching the Ancient Economy by bringing together documentary sources from Mesopotamia and the Greco Roman world Addressing textual corpora that have traditionally been studied separately the collected papers overturn the conventional view of a fundamental divide between the economic institutions of these two regions The premise is that while controlling for differences texts from either cultural setting can be brought to bear on the other and can shed light through their use as proxy data on such questions as economic mentalities and market development The book also presents innovative approaches to the quantitative study of large corpora of ancient documents The resulting view of the Ancient Economy is much more variegated and dynamic than traditional primitivist views would allow The volume covers the following topics Babylonian house size data as an index of urban living standards the Old Babylonian archives as a source for economic history Middle Bronze Age long distance trade in Anatolia long term economic development in Babylonia from the 7th to the 4th century BC legal institutions and agrarian change in the Roman Empire papyrological evidence for water lifting technology money circulation and monetization in Late Antique Egypt the application of Social Network Analysis to Babylonian cuneiform archives price trends in the ancient Near East and Mediterranean in the Hellenistic and Roman periods as well as the effects of locust plagues on prices The Akkadian Verb and Its Semitic

Background N. J. C. Kouwenberg, 2010-06-30 In this magnum opus N J C Kouwenberg presents a thoroughgoing modern analysis of the Akkadian verbal system taking into account all of the currently available evidence for the language during the course of the long period of its attestation The book achieves this goal through two strategies 1 to describe the Akkadian verbal system as comprehensively as the data permit and 2 to reconstruct its prehistory on the basis of internal evidence and reconstruction comparison with cognate languages and typological evidence Akkadian has one of the longest documented histories of any language data from nearly two and one half millennia are available even if the stream of data is sometimes interrupted and not always as copious as we would like During the course of this history numerous developments took place illustrating how languages change over time and offering parallels for reconstruction of changes that occurred in poorly documented periods As a result this book will be of great interest in the first place for all students of Akkadian both the language and the literature that is documented in that language and in the second place for all students of language and linguistics who are interested in the study of how languages are shaped develop and change during the course of a long history Ur in the Twenty-First Century CE , 2021-02-04 The city of Ur now modern Tell el Muqayyar in southern Iraq also called Ur of the Chaldees in the Bible was one of the most important Sumerian cities in Mesopotamia during the Early Dynastic Period in the first half of the third millennium BCE The city is known for its impressive wealth and artistic achievements evidenced by the richly decorated objects found in the so called Royal Cemetery which was excavated by the British Museum and the University of Pennsylvania from 1922 until 1934 Ur was also the cult center of the moon god and during the twenty first century BCE it was the capital of southern Mesopotamia With contributions from both established and rising Assyriologists from ten countries and edited by three leading scholars of Assyriology this volume presents thirty two essays based on papers delivered at the 62nd Rencontre Assyriologique Internationale held in Philadelphia in 2016 Reflecting on the theme Ur in the Twenty First Century CE the chapters deal with archaeological artistic cultural economic historical and textual matters connected to the ancient city of Ur Three of the chapters are based on plenary lectures by senior scholars Richard Zettler Jonathan Taylor and Katrien De Graef The remainder of the essays arranged alphabetically by author highlight innovative new directions for research and represent a diverse array of topics related to Ur in various periods of Mesopotamian history Tightly focused in theme yet broad in scope this collection will be of interest to

Assyriologists and archaeologists working on Iraq Neo-Sumerian Account Texts in the Horn Archaeological Museum Horn Archaeological Museum, Marcel Sigrist, 1984 The House of Prisoners Andrea Seri, 2013-07-31 This book deals with the house of prisoners bit asiri at the city of Uruk during the revolt against king Samsu iluna of Babylon Hammurabi s son The political history of this brief period ca 1741 1739 BC is not widely known and until now there has been no comprehensive treatment of the bit asiri This book includes autograph copies transliterations and translations of 42 unpublished cuneiform tablets from various collections collations and detailed tables and catalogues The analysis comprises some 410 documents dated or attributable to king Rim Anum one of the insurgents who attained relative independence as the ruler of Uruk The study of this corpus reveals details about diplomatic dealings between the central power and rebel rulers about the functioning of the house of prisoners of war and about the individuals who participated in different echelons of the local administration This monograph investigates what kind of organization the house of prisoners was how it worked how it interacted with other institutions the composition of its labor force and state management of captive and enslaved individuals Economy and Society in Northern Babylonia in the Early Old Babylonian Period (ca. 2000-1800 BC) Anne Goddeeris, 2002 Early Old Babylonian economy and society are analyzed in this volume The first part presents all the relevant cuneiform documents published before 2002 about 1200 in number As far as possible the texts are situated in their original archival context A short summary of the content of each of them is given and if necessary there is an accompanying discussion of specific problems Each reconstructed archive is followed by a description of the activities recorded in it and by a study of its protagonists A family tree is often added to clarify the history of the archive In the second part of the volume the data presented in the archival study are integrated in a comprehensive analysis of the early Old Babylonian economy Aspects of economy such as land and labor management trade crafts and credit are evaluated and situated in their specific historical context A Question of Identity Dikla Rivlin Katz, Noah Hacham, Geoffrey Herman, Lilach Sagiv, 2019-06-04

Who am I and Who are we are the existential foundational questions in our lives In our modern world there is no construct more influential than identity whether as individuals or as groups The concept of group identity is the focal point of a research group named A Question of Identity at the Mandel Scholion Interdisciplinary Research Center in the Humanities at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem The papers collected in this volume represent the proceedings of a January 2017 conference organized by the research group which dealt with identity formation in six contextual settings Ethno religious identities in light of the archaeological record Second Temple period textual records on Diaspora Judaism Jews and Christians in Sasanian Persia minorities in the Persian achaemenid period Inter ethnic dialogue in pre 1948 Palestine and redefinitions of Christian Identity in the Early Modern period From the Banks of the Euphrates Micah Ross,2008-01-01 Although Near Eastern languages and the history of the exact sciences are known for being obscure and deliberately arcane to general audiences Alice Slotsky has paradoxically established her legacy by exposing these topics to a wider audience As a visiting professor at Brown University Slotsky has taught more students than any previous Assyriologist and successfully brought this discipline to a wider audience than previously imagined possible This volume with articles written by former students as well as colleagues pays tribute to her broad interests Prisons in Ancient Mesopotamia J. Nicholas Reid,2022-05-05 Prisons in Ancient Mesopotamia explores the earliest historical evidence related to imprisonment in the history of the world While many historical investigations into prisons have revolved around the important question of punishment this work moves beyond that more narrow approach to consider the multifunctional practices of detaining the body in ancient Iraq It is the contention of this book that imprisonment arose out of the desire to control and detain the body in relation to labor The practice of detainment for coercion became adaptable to a variety of circumstances and goals which shaped the contexts and practices of imprisonment With time religious ideology was attached to imprisonment In one literary text a prisoner was refined like silver and given new birth in the prison The misery of imprisonment gave rise to lament through which a criminal could be ritually purified and restored to a right relationship with their personal god Beyond this literary perspective this work reconstructs how imprisonment and religious ideology intersected with the judicial process and explores the evidence related to the reasons behind imprisonment the treatment of prisoners and the evidence related to the lengths of their stays
