The Old Man and His Donkey Julia Johnson, 2017-02-19 Abu and his donkey have been together for as long as anyone can remember Everyday they bring water to the village in the mountains and every day the villagers are waiting for them ready to fill their pots Sometimes the donkey carries firewood sometimes sacks of rice and in the long dark nights she has a very special job to do But one day a young man in a shiny truck rolls up He can carry more of everything and much faster can't he So what will become of Abu and his donkey now But big isn't always best and nothing can rival the experience of an old man and his tired and trusted friend especially in the mountains Very Old Donkey Michael Hedley Burton, 1995-01-01
