Historical Dictionary of Ancient Nubia Richard A. Lobban Jr., 2021-04-10 This new book descends from a former combined reference book on Ancient and Medieval Nubia but now expands and focuses primarily on Prehistoric and Ancient times It contextualizes the foundational roots of human evolution in the Paleolithic and Mesolithic stone ages and on to the Neolithic revolution built on farming and livestock Meanwhile Kerma was the most ancient African states and their relationship with dynastic Egypt Precisely ancient Kerma was a serious political economic and military rival to Old and Middle Kingdoms of Egypt But in the New Kingdom the balance of regional forces was dramatically changed with Egyptians defeating Kerma and occupying and colonizing Kush Nubia for 500 years In the 11th century BCE the political unity of Egypt withered away and after recovering from foreign exploitation Nubians began to reconstitute a small state at Kurru with renewed pyramid building and then finding no Egyptian resistance these Nubians kings advanced on Egyptian Nubia and then on to Upper Egypt Finally Nubians were able to take over all of Egypt as the pharaohs of century long Dynasty XXV This so called Ethiopian dynasty had the famed pharaohs of Piankhy Shabaka Shabataka Taharka and Tanutamun ruling for various terms three of who are mentioned in the Biblical Old Testament Even when Nubians were expelled from Egypt by foreign Assyrian invaders they retreated to Napata to carry on their ancient state for three more independent centuries as Egyptian remained conquered by various foreigners for 2 500 years Most notable of these foreign conquerors of Egypt were the Greeks Ptolemies and the Roman who arrived and polytheists and left as Christians During this Greco Roman period in Egypt Nubians strategically withdrew still further south to the Kingdom of Mero from the 4th century BCE to the 4th century CE Meroe is also covered in great detail as it was famed for many regnant queens a unique and undeciphered writing system iron production and important monumental works including more pyramids than found in Egypt Yes smaller and later but many more pyramids that are still standing in several World Heritage sites in Nubia After Mero began a long decline it was finally vulnerable to attack from Christian Axum on the 4th century CE Two murky centuries of regional rule known as the X Group were to follow but by the 6th century Nubians recreated three Christian states that are covered in detail in the following Historical Dictionary of

Medieval Christian Nubia and the Historical Dictionary of Sudan for Islamic and modern times Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia Richard A. Lobban Jr.,2020-10-20 Medieval Christian Nubia is often a neglected period of medieval African history Because meaning is determined largely by context this work traces the Greco Roman Meroitic and Jewish precursors The regional historical and theological schisms within Christianity are also a highlight The dynamics of the three Nubian kingdoms of Nobatia Mukurra and Alwa are the centerpiece of this book that covers mural arts architecture and the names of the leading kings and bishops Another strength of the book is the analysis of the 700 year baqt peace treaty between Christian Nubia and Islamic Egypt this is considered to be the longest lasting treaty in diplomatic history The complex transition from Christianity to Islam in the 14th century is analyzed in great personal political and military detail Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on politics economy foreign relations religion and culture of the medieval Nubians This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Medieval Christian Nubia The Old Nubian Martyrdom of Saint George Gerald M. Browne,1998 The volume contains the editio princeps of two fragments of the Old Nubian Martyrdom of Saint George the first concerns the saint s torture in the cauldron and the second is from his final prayer For each text the editor provides transcription translation and commentary as well as a hypothetical Greek Vorlage in addition he assembles pertinent parallel passages not only from Greek sources but also from those in Latin Coptic Sahidic and Bohairic Arabic Syriac Armenian Ethiopic and Georgian Indices Verborum and photographs of both of the Old Nubian fragments conclude the work which should be of great interest to theologians orientalist Africanists linguists and philologists Dotawo: a Journal of Nubian Studies 3: Know-Hows and Techniques in Ancient Sudan Angelika Jakobi,Giovanni Ruffini,Vincent W. Old Nubian Textual Criticism Gerald M. Browne, 1998 On virginity David Brakke, 2002 This late ancient Christian treatise preserved in Syriac and falsely attributed to Athanasius of Alexandria d 373 exhorts female virgins to be holy in body and spirit 1 Cor 7 34 and to abstain from all that is in the world the desire of the flesh the desire of the eyes the pride in riches 1 John 1 16 Drawing on themes developed in the de virginitate literature of the fourth and fifth centuries the author instructs virgins on their proper physical deportment and use of the five senses but he incorporates into his work exhortations to purity and repentance originally addressed to a wider audience of male and female ascetics and perhaps even laity Most likely a translation of a Greek original composed between the fifth and ninth centuries the treatise is of interest also for its frequent and inventive use of the Bible in support of the ascetic ideal

Nubian Proverbs (Fadijja/Mahas) Maher Habbob, 2022 In the 1995 96 academic year twenty five Egyptian Nubian students of the Faculty of Social Work in Aswan were recruited by Dr Muddathir Salim to complete a brief Nubian ethnological survey largely restricted to the area of New Nubia over a period of several months They documented Egyptian Nubian culture and heritage among them proverbs tales lullabies marriage customs and moulid and mourning songs as well as models of Nubian clothes jewelry and houses This research has culminated in Maher Habbob s Nubian Proverbs which presents the fruits of decades of collecting proverbs from his native Nubian region in Fadijja Nobiin The five hundred proverbs gathered in this volume give a vivid picture of the Nubian imagination and represent a priceless archive of cultural heritage threatened by ongoing assimilation and cultural genocide The proverbs are presented in Nubian script accompanied by a transliteration in Roman script and a literal translation and paraphrase in English Maher Habbob is a Fadicca Nubian scholar working in Egypt on Nubian heritage folklore and language He is author of Mo jam al amthal el noubeya A Dictionary of Nubian Proverbs 2014 and collaborated on the research for Thayer Scudder s Aswan High Dam Resettlement of Egyptian Nubians Springer 2016 His research has appeared in Akhbar al adab Al Thaqafa al Gadida Amkenah Magazine and Dotawo He lives in Aswan where he works as a tour guide

Ishodad of Merw's Exegesis of the Psalms 119 and 139-147 Clemens Leonhard, 2001 Ishodad of Merw 9th century like other East Syrian exegetes understands himself as an heir of Theodore of Mopsuestia s died 428 approach to biblical interpretation The study examines this claim in one of the rare cases where the Syriac translation of Theodore s commentary on Ps 119 and 139 147 is extant Ishodad emerges as a competent representative of his scholastic tradition working creatively with his scientific tools Ishodad s commentary shows traces of Theodore s in less than a third of the verses explained This reflects the development of medieval academic exegesis and the changed expectations towards biblical interpretation and its presentation In its highly abbreviated style Ishodad s commentary shows that it was written for a learned audience for whom one could reduce one s explanations to their essential parts The study of Ishodad s commentary provides a glimpse into East Syrian scholarship in Abbasid Mesopotamia as mediating between different exegetical traditions and biblical translations

Studies in Medieval Georgian Historiography Stephen H. Rapp, 2003 Original literature first appeared among the indigenous population of Caucasia in the fifth century AD as a consequence of its Christianization Though a number of Armenian histories were composed at this time several centuries elapsed before the Georgians created their own But how many centuries Through a meticulous investigation of internal textual criteria Studies in Medieval Georgian Historiography challenges the traditional eleventh century dating of the oldest Georgian narrative histories and probes their interrelationships Illuminating Caucasia s status as a cultural crossroads it reveals the myriad Eurasian influences written and oral Christian and non Christian on these pre Bagratid histories produced between the seventh and the ninth century Eastern Georgia s place in the Eurasian world and its long standing connection to the Iranian Commonwealth are specially highlighted This volume also examines several related historical and historiographical problems of the early Bagratid period and supplies critical translations of six early Georgian histories previously unavailable in English Dr Stephen H Rapp Jr is Assistant Professor of History at Georgia State University Atlanta USA and is the Founding Director of its Program in World History and Cultures

Tatian and the Jewish Scriptures Robert F. Shedinger, 2001 It has long been argued that Tatian in the production of the Diatessaron made regular reference to the Old Testament Peshitta when he came across Old Testament citations in the Gospels This book argues on the contrary that Tatian made little or no use of the Old Testament Peshitta but regularly took over the text of the Old Testament citations as he found them in the Gospel sources out of which he created his harmony Where they differ from the form of these citations in the standard Greek text tradition of the Gospels it is because in the second century Tatian had access to Gospel sources which may have varied significantly from the text of the later manuscripts on which our modern critical editions are based. Thus Tatian's Diatessaron becomes a window into an early state of the Gospel texts and supports the idea that a significant amount of textual fluidity characterized the Gospel texts in the first two centuries of their transmission. This study will be of interest to those working in the fields of Diatessaronic studies, New Testament Textual Criticism and the history of the Syriac Church. Evidence of Greek Philosophical Concepts in the Writings of Ephrem the Syrian Ute Possekel, 1999
