Precious Bodily Fluids Charles Waterstreet, 1998 A memoir of spring and summer 1961 in an Australian country town when Charlie Waterstreet son of the local publican was eleven years old Precious Bodily Fluids Charles Waterstreet, 2014-03-24 a funny evocative memoir that perfectly captures a significant slice of Australian life Peter FitzSimons It is the end of 1961 and the New South Wales country town of Albury lies flat on its back in the sun swatting flies with its feet sticking out over the mighty Murray River into Victoria Everything is on the cusp of something else A battle royal rages as Alburnians present a united front against the dreaded prospect of fluoridation of the town's water supply This monstrous plot must be stopped in its tracks the people of Albury insist on their sacred right to let their teeth and those of their children rot Through this furore local larrikin Charles Waterstreet aged eleven and his mate Taillight roam the parks and highways of their home town and discover the real hidden horror of childhood everything is what it seems This is a story for every person who has ever been on the threshold of change A story of larrikins rival pubs words of wisdom and wistfulness from the inhabitants of a small town by the border William McInnes brilliantly and hilariously captures the humour tragedy and poignancy of what it was like to be a young boy growing up in rural Australia Woman's Day The Teacher's Secret: All is not what it seems in this close-knit community... Suzanne Leal, 2017-05-15 Packed with heart and suspense I absolutely loved it Jenny Ashcroft Things aren't always as they seem A small town can be a refuge but while its secrets are held it's hard to know who to trust and what to believe The Teacher's Secret is a tender and compelling story of scandal rumor and dislocation and the search for grace and dignity in the midst of dishonor and humiliation Suzanne Leal draws us into a public school in the intimate town of Brindle Australia in which vice principal Terry comes to generational loggerheads with stand in principal Laurie concerning teachers and their treatment of their pupils Told over four semesters this conflict will slowly change their lives Perfect for fans of The Slap by Christos Tsiolkas Big Little Lies by Liane Moriarty and A Song for Issy Bradley by Carys Bray What Reviewers and Readers Say Delicately woven a big hearted book Joanne Fedler it drew me in and held me page after page Rachel Seiffert Suzanne Leal is a writer of unusual sensitivity with a rare ability to shed light on the dark tangle of emotional attachments which lies just below the surface of everyday life John Colle What a great read I could not put it down I can imagine this book being talked about and passed around from teacher to teacher in the school staff room and from parent to parent in the school car park Schooldays Magazine Orphans of the Living Joanna Penglase, 2007-12-01 Drawing on interviews submissions to the Senate Inquiry and personal experience this revealing documentation describes for the first time the experience of Forgotten Australians from the perspective of the survivors In August 2004 Parliamentary senators wept as they presented the report from the Senate Inquiry into the treatment of children in care Half a million children grew up in care in 20th century Australia and most often these children lived with daily brutal physical and emotional abuse in the sterile environment of an institution Unraveling with tenderness compassion and intellect the seemingly explicable accounts as to how and why this occurred this study reveals the profound personal costs to the children involved and the huge social and economic ramifications of past policies Law, Lawyers and Justice Kim D Weinert, Karen Crawley, Kieran Tranter, 2020-04-01 This book engages with the place of law and legality within Australia's distinctive contribution to global televisual culture Australian popular culture has created a lasting legacy for good or bad of representations of law lawyers and justice down under Within films and television of striking landscapes peopled with heroes antiheroes survivors and jokers there is a fixation on law conflicts between legal orders brutal violence and survival Deeply compromised by the ongoing violence against the lives and laws of First Nation Australians Australian film and television has sharply illuminated what it means to live with a rule of law that rules with a legacy and a reality of deep injustice This book is the first to bring together scholars to reflect on and critically engage with the representations and global implications of law lawyers and justice captured through the lenses of Australian film television and social media Exploring how distinctively Australian lenses capture uniquely Australian images and narratives the book nevertheless engages these in order to provide broader insights into the contemporary translations and transmogrifications of law and justice Kaapse bibliotekaris ,2002 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2000
