Reading at a Crossroads? Rand J. Spiro, Michael DeSchryver, Michelle Schira Hagerman, Paul M. Morsink, Penny Thompson, 2015-03-05 The Internet is transforming the experience of reading and learning through reading Is this transformation effecting a radical change in reading processes as readers synthesize understandings from fragments across multiple texts Or conversely is the Internet merely a new place to use the same reading skills and processes developed through experience with traditional print based media Are the changes in reading processes a matter of degree or are they fundamentally new And if so how must reading theory research and instruction adjust This volume brings together distinguished experts from the fields of reading research teacher education educational psychology cognitive science rhetoric and composition digital humanities and educational technology to address these questions Every question is not answered in every chapter How could they be But every contributor has many thoughtful things to say about a subset of these important questions Together they add up to a comprehensive response to the issues the field faces as it approaches what may well be

Carto-bibliography, British and French Sir Herbert George Fordham,1914      Beyond Texas Through Time Walter L.
Buenger,Arnoldo De León,2011-01-27 In 1991 Walter L Buenger and the late Robert A Calvert compiled a pioneering work in Texas historiography Texas Through Time a seminal survey and critique of the field of Texas history from its inception through the end of the 1980s Now Buenger and Arnoldo De Le n have assembled an important new collection that assesses the current state of Texas historiography building on the many changes in understanding and interpretation that have developed in the nearly twenty years since the publication of the original volume This new work Beyond Texas Through Time departs from the earlier volume s emphasis on the dichotomy between traditionalism and revisionism as they applied to various eras Instead the studies in this book consider the topical and thematic understandings of Texas historiography embraced by a new generation of Texas historians as they reflect analytically on the work of the past two decades The resulting approaches thus offer the potential of informing the study of themes and topics other than those specifically introduced in this volume extending its usefulness well beyond a review of the literature In addition the volume editors introduction proposes the application of cultural constructionism as an important third perspective on the thematic and topical analyses provided by the other contributors Beyond Texas Through Time offers both a vantage point and a benchmark serving as an important reference for scholars and advanced students of history and historiography even beyond the borders of Texas      "Through the long corridor of distance" Valérie Baisnée,2014-08-01 Examined in this study are twentieth and twenty first century autobiographies and memoirs by major New Zealand women writers Brought together for the first time in a single study texts by Sylvia Ashton Warner Janet Frame Lauris Edmond Fiona Kidman Barbara Anderson Ruth Park and Ruth Dallas are analysed with the aid of spatial concepts that probe unexplored aspects of their life narratives Drawing on recent and revised concepts of place and space in cultural geography philosophy and sociology the book ac knowledges the link between identities and locations in a non essentialist way by pinpointing the various forms of inhabit ing and being in space It refutes the idea of autobiographies as pure self referential texts and shows how these works deploy their own horizon of reference Val rie Bais n e is currently a Senior Lecturer in English at the University of Paris Sud She holds a PhD in English from the University of Auckland New Zealand Her research interests include the personal writings and poetry of twentieth century women with a particular focus on New Zealand women writers She has contributed to several published books and journals on women s autobiographies and diaries and she is the author of Gendered Resistance The Autobiographies of Simone de Beauvoir Maya Angelou Janet Frame and Marguerite Duras 1997      Roman Roads Anne Kolb,2019-07-22 This volume aims to present the current state of research on Roman roads and their foundations in a combined historical and archaeological perspective The focus is on the diverse local histories and the varying degrees of significance of individual roads and regional networks which are treated here for the most important regions of the empire and beyond The assembled contributions will be of interest to historians archaeologists and epigraphers since they tackle matters as diverse as the technical modalities of road building the choice of route but also the functionality and the motives behind the creation of roads Roman roads are further intimately related to various important aspects of Roman history politics and culture After all such logistical arteries form the basis of all communication and exchange processes enabling not only military conquest and security but also facilitating the creation of an organized state as well as trade food supply and cultural exchange The study of Roman roads must always be based on a combination of written and archaeological sources in order to take into account both their concrete geographical location and their respective spatial cultural and historical context

Anyanwu, 2022-11-30 Given the consistent challenge of Islamist acute violence particularly in Nigeria this monograph attempts to respond to the question How can Jesus s followers pattern response to violence after Jesus s model demonstrated in his triumph over death evil sin and violence through staurocentric pathways And how can Jesus s followers in Nigeria adopt the same staurocentric model in order to not only overcome acute violence within the country but also to extend hands heads hearts and homes of staurocentric forgiveness hospitality and other practices toward Muslims In this study I posit that peacebuilding contextual theology be grounded on the mystery of the cross stauros a theologico theoretical framework that the church in Nigeria should espouse in order to position herself to extend hands heads hearts and homes of staurocentric practices whose appropriation must be undertaken through constructive and critical integration of the God given African peacebuilding concepts autochthonous to Africa s mosaic cultural contexts The pivotal thesis is that the staurocentric model remains the triune God s instrument for triumphing over violence and thus should be espoused by Jesus s followers in every era and context for peacebuilding in contexts of violence through a triadic constructive and critical integration of indigenous peacebuilding concepts     The Department of State Bulletin ,1948 The official monthly record of United States foreign policy     The Spectator ,1894
