Final Acts Gerry Cox, Robert Stevenson, 2016-12-05 The editors undertook this project to promote the International Conference on Death Grief and Bereavement in La Crosse Wisconsin USA Throughout its history the conference has attracted internationally known speakers This book illustrates the quality of their presentations Jesus Wept Gregory Wynot, 2006-11 One of the less formal but most important functions of parish ministry entails providing counseling to parishioners in need of sympathetic hearing and understanding advice from someone they personally know and trust Jesus Wept provides a theological psychological and doctrinal foundation of the Eastern Orthodox Christian view of death that counselors can pass along to help the bereaved place the decedent s passing into proper spiritual context It also discusses the psychological functional and spiritual aspects of the Eastern Orthodox funeral services Author Gregory P Wynot Sr focuses on the especially traumatic circumstances connected with the death of a family member or loved one and details the stages of dying and the grieving process He also discusses how to diagnose and categorize different kinds of grief as well as how best to approach specific situations Finally Wynot looks at the impact of bereavement counseling on the counselor who must find a delicate balance between being a spiritual father and psychological caregiver Also included are resource appendices and a bibliography for further reading Jesus Wept is an invaluable resource that can ease the burden of what is certainly one of the most challenging tasks any counselor is called upon to perform

A Healing Touch Richard Russo, 2008-04-25 Pulitzer Prize winning writer Richard Russo and five other Maine authors here prove that the close of life need not be filled with darkness when hospice help is at hand These writers recount intensely personal and profoundly moving end of life accounts that cover a wide spectrum of human experience All six authors are donating their royalties to a Maine hospice Down East will also donate 10 percent of proceeds to the same cause

A Long-Shadowed Grief Harold Ivan Smith, 2007-01-25 In the aftermath of suicide friends and family face a long road of grief and reflection With a sympathetic eye and a firm hand Harold Ivan Smith searches for the place of the spirit in the wake of suicide He asks how one may live a spiritual life as a survivor and he addresses the way faith is permanently altered by the residue of stigma that attaches to suicide

When the Dying Speak Ron Wooten-Green, 2002 In this collection of poignant and hope filled stories about people who are dealing with death Ronald Wooten Green draws on his experience as a caregiver for his dying wife and as a hospice chaplain to give us a glimpse of the spiritual reality known only by those nearing death From conversations with unseen visitors to visions of long dead ancestors When the Dying Speak reveals the unique phenomena surrounding death and helps us listen to and learn from those at the end of their earthly journeys Scripture passages biographical sketches and thought provoking questions provide spiritual and historical perspective while encouraging self reflection
