Safe Hands My Autobiography:

Hero in the Shadows David Tossell, 2021-11-15 Don Howe is one of English football's great coaches with an unrivalled record at international and club level As right hand man to three England managers he helped his country to the 1990 World Cup and Euro 96 semi finals He helped to steer them through the 1982 World Cup unbeaten and to the quarter finals four years later Howe masterminded the 1970 71 double at Arsenal where two spells as coach also brought European and further FA Cup glory He was also an integral part of one of the greatest Wembley upsets when he helped Wimbledon's Crazy Gang to victory over the mighty Liverpool in 1988 As a player at West Bromwich Albion Howe won 24 international caps but as a manager he failed to achieve the success he craved Yet over a three decade period he won acclaim from many of England's finest players as a genius of the coaching profession Through interviews with players colleagues friends and family this book examines the triumphs and challenges of Don Howe's career and assesses his contribution to English football Wenger

Jasper Rees, 2014-04-03 Granted access to Wengers friends and family players and rival managers Jasper Rees has written the untold story behind this private man He follows Wenger from childhood in Alsace through his stints as a journeyman player to his coaching days at Nancy Monaco Grampus Eight and Arsenal Safe Hands David Seaman, 2001 England hero and Arsenal living legend tells his own story THE sports book of the year updated to include the 2000 2001 season My Story Frederic Jesup Stimson, 1917 Second Yellow John Smith, 2020-09-21 Second Yellow More Adventures of our Footballing Heroes brings you more funny fascinating and downright baffling tales gleaned by authors John Smith and Dan Trelfer from their unflagging research of over 240 footballer autobiographies Together they have pored through the works of genuine legends cult heroes and players they can only dimly recall from their 1983 Panini sticker albums to find stories and facts that will delight shock and confuse sometimes all at once There's the chairman who owned a ventriloquist's dummy called Algernon There's the Liverpool legend who set a team mate's wife's hair on fire There's the Arsenal star who confronted some innocent fans with a samurai sword And there's the Ipswich hero who took on Sylvester Stallone in an arm wrestling contest possibly inspiring Stallone's half forgotten epic Over The Top This book covers all the bases of the typical footballer's life love violence gambling horrific injury banter it's mostly banter and apparently pigeons The Last Line:

My Autobiography Packie Bonner, 2015-10-01 Irish national hero a Celtic great and their most capped player Patrick Packie Bonner is a goalkeeping legend He was Jock Stein's last signing for the club when he left his native Donegal for the city of Glasgow in 1978 where Packie evolved from being a shy homesick teenager into a confident world class talent and first choice goalkeeper Billy McNeill handed him a debut on St Patrick's Day in 1979 and Packie went on to provide the last line of defence a record 641 times for the club A seasoned Irish internationalist Packie was a vital component in the most celebrated Irish national squad ever playing in a golden era under the tutelage of the inimitable Jack Charlton In The Last Line Packie shares stories from his incredible career including his greatest moment in front of a global audience during the Italia 90

World Cup tournament when he became the penalty shoot out hero of the nation by saving a spot kick that took the Irish to the quarter finals stage in their very first World Cup adventure. It was an iconic moment that would change his life forever not least because whilst in Italy he along with his teammates had an audience with another goalkeeper Pope John Paul II. Throughout his 80 cap international career he competed against the very best in the world. Men such as Ruud Gullit, Marco Van Basten, Gheorghe Hagi, Roberto Baggio and Gary Lineker came to know the name Packie Bonner. Equally in his glittering Celtic career that included the winning of four Scottish League titles, three Scottish Cups and one Scottish League Cup, Packie Bonner played alongside some great Celtic names like Tommy Burns, Paul McStay and Murdo Macleod. Along the way Packie had to endure a career threatening back injury as well as the devastation of a routine save going wrong and costing a goal on the world stage against Holland in 1994, ultimately leading to elimination from the World Cup in America. More than just the telling of trophies, titles and triumphs, this is the story of a Celtic legend and a true great of Irish International football.

KLIM Michael Klim, 2024-08-28. As one of Australia's most celebrated athletes, Michael Klim's impact extends far beyond the pool. Klim's journey to greatness began behind the Iron Curtain in communist era Poland. His family made a bid for freedom in the 1980s and immigrated to Australia where swimming became his passport into a new culture and eventually led him to become one of his adopted country's great sporting heroes. His crowning moment came at the 2000 Sydney Olympics where he captured the hearts of millions with his gold medal performances and world record breaking swims. But being a champion athlete does not come without personal challenges. Beyond his achievements in the pool, Klim's life has been equally compelling. Through transitions in the business world, family life and major health trials, his natural buoyancy kept him afloat until he faced a crisis that forced him to reassess his life and fight for his future. From the heights of Olympic glory to the depths of personal adversity, KLIM is a testament to the power of passion, perseverance and the unsinkable human spirit. An inspiring and sometimes shocking insight into the man behind the medals.

IAN THORPE Michael Klim's finest moment isn't Olympic glory, it's the courage he summoned to share himself so honestly in this sports memoir for the ages.

Memoirs of a Dipper Nell Leyshon, 2015-06-04. A reading experience that hums with an electric energy that never gets boring and feels shockingly painfully real. The Times: There's different ways to do it. I can slowly move closer, step by step, or I can do it in one movement and bump into them. Easiest is in a pub, then I can put my drink too close to theirs. Move my stool near theirs. Anything to cross the line. Gary is a dipper, a burglar, a thief. He is still at junior school when his father first takes him out on the rob and proves a fast learner, not much more than a child. The first time he gets caught, he is a career criminal as soon as he is out again. But Gary is also fiercely intelligent; he often knows more about the antique furniture he is stealing than the people who own it and is confident in his ability to trick his way out of any situation always one step ahead But all that changes when he falls for Mandy
