Shipping Out Anita Gonzalez, 2025-02-25 Shipping Out Race Performance and Labor at Sea provides a rare perspective on performance by staff above and below deck on Caribbean cruise ships as viewed through the lenses of race class and gender Drawing on her experiences as a destination lecturer on Caribbean cruise lines for twenty years Anita Gonzalez offers a unique viewpoint as she examines contemporary Caribbean cruise culture as an ethnographically complex site where North American and European travelers are exposed to other cultures through the orchestrated experiences on ship and via excursions to ports Gonzales argues that the cruise ship experience is deliberately crafted to deliver the best immersive performance by its workers However the workers never leave the theater they merely move below deck and like ships stewards and cooks from previous centuries they work within an imaginary where Global Majority people are envisioned as servants By utilizing ethnography and archival materials to illustrate ship workers experiences on contemporary cruise ships and then contrasting those circumstances with the personal accounts of workers on historical merchant ships Shipping Out illuminates how workers presence on ships complicates notions of freedom and enslavement home and journey place and space Sailing and Social Class Alan O'Connor, 2024-04-23 This book explores the sociology of sailing and yachting

Drawing on original research and employing a theoretical framework based on the work of Pierre Bourdieu the book argues that sailing is still an upper middle class activity that has much to tell us about the wider sociology of leisure and sport The book examines the historical foundations of blue water sailing as established by naval and colonial shipping to trace the roots of contemporary sailing and yachting culture It also examines archives of sailing narratives and cruising guides as well as the children's books of Arthur Ransome arguing that this archival material offers a social rather than a psychological interpretation of the bodily investment in sailing The book uses Bourdieu's concepts of illusio an investment of time emotion and body into a worthwhile activity and habitus or lifeworld alongside contemporary data sets to examine the yacht club as a social institution including why many boats never go out on the water the relationship between yacht clubs and the state and social issues as manifested in yacht clubs such as sexism racism and homophobia Offering a vigorous sociological critique of yachting and sailing this book is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in the sociology of leisure and sport subcultures social theory or social issues in wider society
