

SAILING WITH VANCOUVER

Sailing With Vancouver A Modern Sea Dog Antique Charts And A Voyage Through Time:

Sailing with Vancouver Sam McKinney, 2018-06-12 An updated edition of a classic travelogue of one man retracing the voyages of Captain Vancouver Sailing with Vancouver Sam McKinney, 2004 Could I have been one of them was what Sam McKinney wondered as he retraced alone from Puget Sound to Queen Charlotte Strait the explorations of Captain George Vancouver and his men In the 1790s day after day they had rowed for long hours camping on rocky beaches in all weathers and charting the intricate coastline for the first time Two hundred years later McKinney followed them in his 25 foot sailboat anchoring in the same locations as they had done experiencing the same winds and waves and sharing what McKinney calls the link of vulnerability that is the ever present condition of all people who go to sea With his boat his pipe and the occasional glass of rum McKinney invites readers along on a perceptive voyage through time and along the magnificent Pacific Northwest coast from Puget Sound through the Georgia and Queen Charlotte Straits Describing both the historical and contemporary voyages around the Inland Sea McKinney offers insightful comparisons of what sailors saw and experienced in the 18th century and what they see today At the end of his trip McKinney like Vancouver claims the area he had explored not by deed of ownership but out of love for the place its staggering beauty and the memories of the people and cultures who have found homes along its shores Could he have indeed been one of Vancouver s men He isn t sure but he would like to have given it a try John M. Horton, Mariner Artist Peter Vassilopoulos, 2007 John M Horton s marine art captures today and yesterday people places and events as we know and remember them His paintings grace the walls of corporate offices private homes mansions museums and even ships at sea While there are many artists who paint marine scenes few have Horton s ability to delineate accurately the architecture of a ship And few compare when it comes to depicting the history of maritime events through their work Horton s portrayals range from the Pacific voyages of discovery when captains Cook and Vancouver first anchored off British Columbia to contemporary settings on urban and rural waterfronts He gives us glimpses of other parts of the world or the military at work of bustling ports and tranquil inlets BOOK JACKET John. M Horton Peter Vassilopoulos, 2007-11-05 From vessels harbours and major seaports to Canadian troops in the Persian Gulf the subjects of John M Horton s paintings tell a story and this exquisite book presents some of the artist s finest work along with a revealing look at his life and professional development Horton s work is second to none and his paintings are prized by collectors all over the world A member of the Canadian Society of Marine Artists the Federation of Canadian Artists and The Honourable Company of Master Mariners of Canada Horton is also an official Canadian naval war artist Horton s marine art captures today and yesterday people places and events as we know and remember them His paintings grace the walls of corporate offices private homes mansions museums and even ships at sea While there are many artists who paint marine scenes few have Horton s ability to delineate accurately the architecture of a ship And few compare when it comes to depicting the history of maritime events through their work Horton s portrayals range from the Pacific voyages of discovery

when captains Cook and Vancouver first anchored off British Columbia to contemporary settings on urban and rural waterfronts He gives us glimpses of other parts of the world of the military at work of bustling ports and tranquil inlets Celebrating the beauty of the land and the majesty of the sea this collection of paintings complemented by Horton s intimate observations showcases the scope and vision of this talented artist Voices for the Islands Sheila Harrington,2024-07-09 A fascinating compendium of stories chronicling the creation of local nature conservancies and the people behind them on seventeen islands on the Salish Sea from the 1990s to the present day Voices for the Islands brings together the stories and experiences of those who rose to protect areas at risk within their island communities Narratively linked by author Sheila Harrington s three year sailing journey among the islands to interview more than fifty veteran conservationists the book shares an in depth view of local protests and the history and evolution of local conservancies from their timely emergence through legal battles and successful partnerships It highlights how local provincial and national support was won through the collaborative efforts of dedicated locals resulting in hundreds of new protected areas and parks within one of the most at risk ecological communities in Canada the islands of the Salish Sea Beginning in the 1980s when logging and development threatened the fragile ecosystems and natural habitats and culminating in the creation of more than seventeen local conservancies and the Gulf Island National Park Reserve Voices for the Islands will inspire readers to turn apathy into action and support the cause of conservation and reconciliation in an era of species extinction and climate change Full of colour photos maps and fascinating first hand stories by unsung heroes of conservation many of whom are now elders this book reveals how local people and grassroots movements have the power to transform the future of our precious planet
