The Confession of St. Patrick and Other Writings Saint Patrick, 2018-02-28. Saint Patrick was a fifth-century Romano-British Christian missionary and bishop in Ireland. Known as the Apostle of Ireland, he is the primary patron saint of Ireland. He is also venerated in the Anglican Communion, the Old Catholic Church, and in the Eastern Orthodox Church as equal to the apostles and Enlightener of Ireland. This volume contains The Confession of St. Patrick, an autobiography written in the fifth century. It provides details of his life and beliefs. This classic continues to fascinate and inspire many. The book also contains St. Patrick's Epistle to Coroticus, a letter written by Patrick after he had lived and worked as a bishop in Ireland for many years. It is a scathing letter St. Patrick wrote to British tyrant Coroticus and the British Christians condemning the kidnap and killing of Christian converts. St. Patrick repeatedly uses scripture to strengthen his argument against Coroticus and to implore his men and followers to change their ways. The volume also contains St. Patrick's Metrical Life of St. Patrick and Tripartite Life of St. Patrick, Parts I, II, and III.

The Vincentians: A General History of the Congregation of the Mission John E. Rybolt, THE SUBTITLE OF THIS SIXTH AND FINAL VOLUME of The Vincentians: Internationalization and Aggiornamento 1919-1980 describes the growth and change of the Congregation of the Mission in the twentieth century. Formerly European in focus, the provinces of the Congregation gained their own voice. Membership in mission lands such as China, Brazil, and Ethiopia surged as local vocations joined their European confreres. The same is true of maturing provinces elsewhere. St. Vincent de Paul's congregation became internationalized in both outreach and membership. The Vincentians in these recent decades also tasted the bitterness of persecution. The Congregation was suppressed at various times in Europe, Latin America, Asia, and Africa. Its members often reacted by moving elsewhere, thus furthering the internationalization of the Vincentian charism. Under the Nazis and Communist regimes, many suffered imprisonment, torture, and death. The provinces of Central Europe, Slovakia, Hungary, and

Poland to say nothing of China were particularly hard hit Updating aggiornamento was the watchword toward the close of this period As society changed so did the Church and with it the Vincentians The process was difficult and painful but it moved the Congregation in directions originally laid down by the Founder Increasingly the members emphasized mutual cooperation with many Vincentian inspired lay organizations the Vincentian Family The inspiration shared among them all has been a further manifestation of the compelling insights of St Vincent de Paul

Christianity in Western and Northern Europe Todd M. Johnson,Annemarie C Mayer,Kenneth R. Ross,2024-04-30

Although the origins of Christianity lie in the Near East Europe and Christianity have an exceptional relationship since most Europeans perceive Christianity as a Western more precisely as a European religion The region has seen rapid social change in the 21st century set off by factors including energy crisis and environmental awareness poverty and exclusion falling birthrates and increased migration changing attitudes to sexuality gender and family life and challenges to Europe s idea of itself and place in the global order Amidst all this flux this volume focuses on one particular issue the rapidly changing profile of the Christian faith that has shaped the life of the European continent for a millennium and more At a time when patterns of Christian life and worship appear to be dying out yet traces of new life are also appearing this volume maps out the current reality of Christianity in Western and Northern Europe with all its questions and uncertainties
