Saints and Lovers (Hollywood Talent) Lorianne Karney,2016-03-14 Poetic and compelling and eminently filmable this story paints the contours of human emotion and the heart's ability to forgive while still staying true Sometimes we forget and in forgetting remember who we are writes the girl on the train She becomes committed to a path through the reality of 36 hours on a journey that encompasses years of living Saints and Lovers tells the story of a woman going home a story peopled with the lives of friends and demons who travel with her As the train draws nearer to a destination the nameless woman finds herself coming face to face with these beasts in flesh and in memory and the terrible secret she has been running from for so long At the same time harsh and tender the story of her life crosses the landscapes of space and consciousness weaving fantasy and memory into the moment that is now here

The Big Book of Women Saints Sarah Gallick,2009-11-11 A fascinating collection that profiles more than 400 inspiring Catholic women Library Journal Most books about the saints are thin on women especially contemporary women Even Fr Alban Butler's popular Lives of the Saints lists far more men than women No book about the saints could ignore such beloved early martyrs as Agnes of Rome and Lucy of Syracuse but this new book will introduce you to many new women who have been canonized or beatified in recent decades Among them are martyrs and mystics rebellious daughters loving wives and mothers reformed prostitutes restless visionaries and humble recluses Of the hundreds of women mentioned 159 have been canonized or beatified since 1979 Approximately 100 of them lived in the twentieth century This book is also unique in that it uses the saint's own words wherever possible taking advantage of newly discovered archives memoirs and other primary sources It includes resources such as internet shrines and other websites as well as little known information on the canonization process A beautiful and concise guide to the luminous women who inspire us to deeper faith Edward L Beck author of God Underneath Spiritual Memoirs of a Catholic Priest Marriage Customs of the World George P.

Monger,2013-04-09 This book presents a comprehensive overview of global courtship and marriage customs from ancient history to contemporary society demonstrating the vast differences as well as the similarities across all of human culture This second edition of Marriage Customs of the World examines historical context social significance and current trends and controversies of matrimony in the Western world as well as other cultures Apart from detailing the ceremonies from specific countries the book identifies specific elements of the wedding event and discusses them in a comparative manner showcasing the similarities across cultures The new content in this work includes additional information on courtship and how future spouses are found in other cultures marriage in art cinema theater and poetry wedding bands forced marriages and shotgun weddings New Year's weddings legislation regarding marriage and engagement practices Entries carried over from the first edition have been revised and updated as well With its broad scope and consideration of contemporary issues alongside historical information this work will be ideal for high school and undergraduate students scholars of anthropology social studies and history and general readers Distortion and Love Nigel Rapport,2016-07-07 In this ground breaking book a theory of distortion of the way in which the processes of human life are subject to interference diversion and transformation is developed by way of the art of one of Britain's greatest twentieth century painters and that art's public reception Devoted to his native village of Cookham on Thames Stanley Spencer painted not only landscapes and portraits with loving detail but also the memory feelings which he felt were a sacred part of his consciousness Yet Spencer was also a controversial public figure with some taking the view that his visionary paintings were ugly distortions of human life even marks of an immoral nature Examining how Spencer lived his vision how he painted it and wrote it and also how his attempts to communicate that vision were received by his contemporaries and have continued to be interpreted since his death the author posits distortion as key an intrinsic aspect both of human creation and of human interaction What we intend to make to say to do and have done often mutates in the process of being expressed or put into effect we live amid distortion Love the affective appreciation of one another is then a means by which we accommodate distortion and its consequences in our lives An illustration through Stanley Spencer's story of significant aspects of a human condition this book will appeal across disciplines including to art historians and students of Spencer's work as well as to scholars of anthropology with interests in creativity perception and interpretation The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 4.2 John Donne,2021-11-02 This volume the ninth in the series of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne presents newly edited critical texts of 25 love lyrics Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscripts and printed editions in which these poems have appeared Volume 4 2 details the genealogical history of each poem accompanied by a thorough prose discussion as well as a General Textual Introduction of the Songs and Sonets collectively The volume also presents a comprehensive digest of the commentary on these Songs and Sonets from Donne's time through 1999 Arranged chronologically within sections the material for each poem is organized under various headings that complement the volume's companions Volume 4 1 and Volume 4 3 A Book of Feasts and Seasons Joanna Bogle,1992 A Book of Feasts and Seasons recaptures the lost traditions surrounding major feasts and festivals every occasion of the Christian Year The New Armenia ,1906 Love's Pilgrimage Grace Tiffany,2006 In Love's Pilgrimage Grace Tiffany explores literary adaptations of the Catholic pilgrimage in the Protestant poetry and prose of Edmund Spenser William Shakespeare John Donne John Milton and John Bunyan Her discussion of these authors works illuminates her larger claim that while in the sixteenth century conventional pilgrimages to saints shrines disappeared as did shrines themselves from English life the imaginative importance of the pilgrimage persisted and manifested itself in various ways in English culture Lives and Legends of the Evangelists, Apostles, and Other Early Saints N. D'Anvers,1901 Flowers and Flower Lore Hilderic Friend,1884 The Antiquary Edward Walford,George Latimer Apperson,1882 Returning to John Donne Achsah Guibbory,2016-03-23 Collected in this volume are Achsah Guibbory's most important and frequently cited essays on Donne which taken together present her distinctive and evolving vision of the poet The book includes an original substantive introduction as well as new essays on the Devotions upon Emergent Occasions the Songs and Sonnets and the subject of Donne and toleration Over the course of her career Guibbory has asked different questions about Donne but has always been concerned with recovering multiple historical and cultural contexts and locating Donne's writing in relation to them In the essays here she reads Donne within various contexts the early modern thinking about time and history religious attitudes towards sexuality the politics of early modern England religious conflicts within the church While her approach has always been historicist she has also foregrounded Donne's distinctiveness showing how and why he continues to speak powerfully to us now Presented together here with reflections on the trajectory of her engagement with Donne Achsah Guibbory illuminates Donne's understanding that erotic spiritual and political issues are often intertwined and reveals how this understanding resonates in our own times The Notion of Turning in Metaphysical Poetry Carmen Dörge,2018 In Metaphysical Poetry there is an emphasis on religious experience which often touches on diverse kinds of turning Among them are religious conversion a turn to God spatial movement turning in space divine transformation turning from one kind into another musical tuning turning as a requisite for harmony and circular turning Moreover there is a strong link between turning and its realisation through the language of the poems Focusing on John Donne and George Herbert this study explores various aspects of turning as well as their interrelation Dissertation Series Religion and Literature Religion und Literatur Vol 7 Subject Poetry Anniversaries and Holidays Mary Emogene Hazeltine,1928 The Complete Works of Saint Augustine (50+) Saint Augustine,2021-10-27 Augustine's
