Saints and Sinners in the Early Church W. H. C. Frend, 1985 Orthodoxy and Heresy in Early Christian Contexts

Paul A. Hartog, 2015-01-30 Eighty years ago Walter Bauer promulgated a bold and provocative thesis about early Christianity. He argued that many forms of Christianity started the race but one competitor pushed aside the others until this powerful orthodox version won the day. The victors re-wrote history marginalizing all other perspectives and silencing their voices even though the alternatives possessed equal right to the title of normative Christianity. Bauer's influence still casts a long shadow on early Christian scholarship. Were heretical movements the original forms of Christianity? Did the heretics outnumber the orthodox? Did orthodox heresiologists accurately portray their opponents? And more fundamentally, how can one make any objective distinction between heresy and orthodoxy? Is such labeling merely the product of socially situated power? Did numerous valid forms of Christianity exist without any validating norms of Christianity? This collection of essays, each written by a relevant authority, tackles such questions with scholarly acumen and careful attention to historical, cultural, geographical, and socio-rhetorical detail. Although recognizing the importance of Bauer's critical insights, innovative methodologies, and fruitful suggestions, the contributors expose numerous claims of the Bauer thesis in both original and recent manifestations that fall short of the historical evidence. With contributions from Rodney Decker, Carl Smith, William Varner, Rex Butler, Bryan Litfin, Brian Shelton, David Alexander, Edward Smither, Glen Thompson Augustine and the Catechumenate William Harmless, 1995 St. Augustine 354-430, a theologian whose views and controversies shaped the course of Christianity in the West, was also a struggling North African pastor who had a flair for teaching and who meditated deeply on the complexities of the human heart. This study examines a little-known side of Augustine: his work as a teacher of candidates for baptism. It reconstructs the experience of the ancient catechumenate. The portrait is relevant to all those involved with the RCIA: pastors, DREs, catechists, liturgists. Saints and Sinners in the Early Church W. H. C. Frend, 1985 A History of the Church in Africa Bengt Sundkler, Christopher Stead, 2000-05-04 Bengt Sundkler's long-awaited book on African Christian churches will become the standard reference for the subject. The Donatist Church in an Apocalyptic Age Jesse A. Hoover, 2018 The Donatist Church in an Apocalyptic Age examines an apocalypse that never happened seen through the eyes of a dissident church that no longer exists. Jesse A. Hoover considers Donatists' members of an ecclesiastical communion that for a brief moment formed the majority church in Roman North Africa, modern Tunisia, Algeria, and Libya, before fading away sometime between the fifth and seventh centuries. Hoover studies how Donatists perceived the end of the world to offer a glimpse into the inner life of the dissident communion: what it valued, whom it feared, and how it defined its place in history while on the cusp of history's end. By recovering these appeals to apocalyptic themes in surviving Donatist writings, this study uncovers a significant element within the dissident movement's self-perception that has so far gone unexamined. In contrast to previous assessments, it argues that such eschatological expectations are not out of sync with the wider world of Latin Christianity in late antiquity and that they functioned as an effective polemical strategy designed to counter their opponents claim to be the true church in North Africa Early Christianity Wendy Elgersma Helleman, Musa A. Tyconius' Book of Rules Matthew R. Lynskey, 2021-03-01 In Tyconius Book of Rules Matthew R. Lynskey explores the church centric interpretation of ancient biblical exegete Tyconius in his hermeneutical treatise Liber regularum. Influential within his Donatist tradition and the broader context of early North African Christianity, Tyconius wrote one of the earliest works on exegetical theory and praxis in Latin Christianity. By investigating five key concepts undergirding Tyconius's theology of church, Lynskey demonstrates how Tyconius's ecclesiology shaped his hermeneutical enterprise. Through careful readings and close analysis of Liber regularum, this study seeks to describe Tyconius's exegesis on its own terms, reflecting on notable historical, theological, formational and missiological implications of his ecclesial exegesis as it concerns the ancient and contemporary church.

The Church Triumphant E. Glenn Hinson, 1995

Arians and Vandals of the 4th-6th Centuries John R. C. Martyn, David O'Brien, 2020-12-15 As a background to this study of the Arians and Vandals in North Africa and their impact on the Catholic Church, three books have been written recently by John Martyn investigating the same period, late sixth century and the same country. They are firstly Pope Gregory's Letters published with commentary and translation by P. I. M. S. three vols. 2, 2004, see introduction pp. 32-42 and esp. 174, 236 and 117 and for the Manichean heresy see esp. 231, 57 and 614. Next the Life of Saint Gregory, bishop of Agrigento, published with his commentary and translation by Edwin Mellen, 2004, is set in North Africa in chapters 7, 30 and also covers the main schisms of that time. Finally in a book on Saint Leander, Archbishop of Seville, soon to be published by Lexington Books in Maryland, he shows that Leander's parents and baby sister were forced to flee from their home in Cartagena to Carthage from where the Vandals had recently been expelled. Note also his review of L'Afrique Vandale et Byzantine (Le Partir) Paris 2002 which was published in Parergon 21, 1, 2004, pp. 155-157 and involved a study of the same schisms, history and archaeology of North Africa.

BOOK JACKET

Paul and Apostasy B. J. Oropeza, 2000 B J Oropeza presents the concepts of apostasy and perseverance in the light of recent interpretative and intertextual methods He argues that the Pauline messages include warnings to congregation members who are in danger of falling away Paul often considers these members to be authentic converts to the early Christian message A prime example of this is presented in the apostle s use of the Exodus wilderness traditions in 1 Corinthians 10 1 13 In an effort to persuade the members against apostasy Paul echoes examples from the Jewish traditions regarding Israel s divine election and punishments The Corinthians are exhorted not to conduct themselves in a manner that parallels the Israelites who after crossing the Red Sea were rejected by God in the wilderness because they committed vices If the Corinthians commit the same vices in their own spiritual journey they will suffer divine judgment before the culmination of the eschaton This language is located within larger rhetorical arguments related to the problems of meat sacrificed to idols congregational factions and eschatological misperceptions B J Oropeza also deals with theological perspectives associated with the perseverance of the saints including the Calvinist and Arminian traditions He thus provides a compelling alternative approach to the theological controversy

Origeniana Nona György Heidl, Róbert Somos, 2009 This volume contains the written versions of the lectures delivered by the participants of the Colloquium Origenianum Nonum held in Pecs Hungary 29 August 2 September 2005 The main topic of the conference was Origen and the religious practice of his time Here 49 scholars from some 18 countries publish their newest findings on the greatest and most influential Christian thinker before Augustine who laid the foundation of the Biblical textual studies created systematic theology and was regarded as an authentic spiritual leader of Christianity The papers not only provide the best overview on a lively field of studies but also demonstrate how Origen s heritage in Christian history theology and spirituality carried with it the imprint of one of the most vital traditions of our civilization Similarly to the volumes of the earlier conferences Boston 1989 Chantilly 1993 Hofgeismar Marburg 1997 and Pisa 2001 the contributions are published by the series Bibliotheca Ephemeridum Theologicarum Lovaniensium
