Saints In The Making:

I'm a Saint in the Making Lisa M. Hendey, 2020-10-06 God has a special mission for each of us With engaging prose and delightful illustrations I m a Saint in the Making reminds children of their unique call from God to live with mission and love By recounting the highlights of the stories of both well known and newer saints including John Paul II Mary MacKillop Augustus Tolton Teresa of Calcutta Juan Diego and Chiara Badano in relatable lessons the book helps readers learn that there is no one single way to live a life of sanctity I m a Saint in the Making offers simple but impactful suggestions for ways children can offer acts of prayer service and love Resources for parents teachers and caregivers at the end of book provide support for adults as they seek to encourage and accompany their young saints in the making Making Saints Kenneth L. Woodward, 1991 A pioneering work of investigative journalism penetrates the Vatican to explain the canonization process and describes the political in fighting the medical questions and the costs of canonization Prophets in Their Own Country Aviad M. Kleinberg, 1992-10 In this original study of the making of saintly reputations Aviad M Kleinberg shows how sainthood though frequently seen as a personal trait is actually the product of negotiations between particular individuals and their communities Employing the methods of history anthropology and textual criticism Kleinberg examines the mechanics of sainthood in daily interactions between putative saints and their audiences This book will interest historians anthropologists sociologists medievalists and those interested in the study of religion A fascinating and sometimes iconoclastic view of saints in the medieval period Sandra R O Neal Theological Studies An important new book And an excellent piece of scholarship Diane L Mockridge Method the book is a pleasure to read Veronica Lawrence Theological Book Review Original and interesting Kleinberg has made a major contribution Anne L Clark American Historical Review Kleinberg s concern is not just with perceptions of sanctity but refreshingly with what actually happened and he is especially good on the conflict of the two This is not just a book but a way of thought and one that promises interesting conversations at all levels from the church porch to the tutorial and the academic conference Helen Cooper Times Literary Supplement

Politics of Worship in the Contemporary Middle East Andreas Bandak, Mikkel Bille, 2013-04-15 In Sainthood in Fragile States a wide range of social scientists explore the contested role of sainthood in the contemporary Middle East By expanding the notion of sainthood to cover both the religious and secular ways of dealing with extraordinary events people and things the volume offers new insights into the way sainthood is embedded in various levels of everyday life as well as national and international politics The case studies highlight how fragility as a central aspect of sainthood is a productive force that often consolidates tales of the extraordinary and is also the source of contesting social identities Contributors include Andreas Bandak Mikkel Bille J rgen Frembgen Sune Haugbolle Angie Heo Daniella Kuzmanovic Edith Szanto and Pnina Werbner Saints in the Making Felicity O'Brien, 1988 Still Protesting D. G. Hart, 2018-06-29 In this book D G Hart investigates what was at stake in the sixteenth century and why Protestantism still matters Of note is the author s recognition that the Reformers addressed the most basic question that confronts all human beings How can a sinner be right with and worship in good conscience a righteous God who demands sinless perfection Protestants used to believe that this question along with the kind of life that followed from answers to it was at the heart of their disagreement with Rome Still Protestants arise from the conviction that the Reformers answers to life s most important questions based on their study of the Bible and theological reflection are as superior today as they were when they provided the grounds for Christians in the West to abandon the bishop of Rome

Reading and Writing History from Bruni to Windschuttle Christian Thorsten Callisen, 2016-04-08 Featuring work by researchers in the fields of early modern studies Italian studies ecclesiastical history and historiography this volume of essays adds to a rich corpus of literature on Renaissance and early modern historiography bringing a unique approach to several of the problems currently facing the field Essays fall into three categories the tensions and challenges of writing history in Renaissance Italy the importance of intellectual philosophical and political contexts for the reading and writing of history in Renaissance and early modern Europe and the implications of genre for the reading and writing of history By collecting essays that cut across a broad cross section of the disciplines of history and historiography the book is able to offer solutions encourage discussion and engage in ongoing debates that bear direct relevance for our understanding of the origins of modern historical practices This approach also allows the contributors to engage with critical questions concerning the continued relevance of history for political and social life in the past and in the present

The Eloquence of Silence Marnia Lazreg, 2014-04-23 The Eloquence of Silence makes a critical departure from more traditional studies of Algerian women which usually examine female roles in relation to Islam and instead takes an interdisciplinary look at the subject arguing that Algerian women's roles are shaped by a variety of structural and symbolic factors These elements include colonial domination demographic change nationalism socialist development policy of the 1960s and 70s family formation and the progressive shift to a capitalist economy Covering both pre colonial and colonial eras as well as the independence period this book focuses on the changes that took place in family structure and law customs education and the war of decolonization as they affected gender relations Marnia Lazreg approaches the post colonial era through an examination of how Algeria s model of economic development structural adjustment policies and the rise of religious political opposition affected women s lives

Women and Faith Lucetta Scaraffia, Gabriella Zarri, 1999 This study of Italian women and Catholicism from the fourth through the twentieth century reflects this conflict and the tension between the masculine character of divinity in the Catholic church and the potential for equality in the gospels and early writings neither male nor female but one in Jesus
