Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz, 2019-12-12 London's West End is a global success story staging phenomenal hit shows that have delighted millions of spectators and generated billions of pounds in revenue In Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz provides a thematic survey of such popular theatre shows that were enormous commercial successes over the past 75 years He argues that these outstanding hits have a lot to say about the collective cultural social and political attitudes and aspirations of the country and about how our national identity and theatre's role in creating it has evolved over the decades The book spans a range of work from almost forgotten plays such as R F Delderfield's Worm's Eye View and Hugh Hastings's Seagulls Over Sorrento to well known mega hits such as The Mousetrap and The Phantom of the Opera Such popular work has tended to be undervalued by some critics and commentators mainly because it has not been thought to be a suitable subject for inclusion in the canon of English Literature By contrast Sierz demonstrates that genres such as the British musical light comedy sex farce or murder mystery are worth appreciating not only for their intrinsic theatrical qualities but also as examples of the dream life of the British people The book challenges the idea that mega hits are merely escapist entertainments and instead shows how they contribute to the creation of powerful myths about our national life The analysis of such shows also points towards the possibility of creating an alternative history of postwar British theatre Women

Writing Musicals Jennifer Ashley Tepper, 2024-11-19 The first ever book to tell the stories of over 300 inspiring women who wrote Broadway and Off Broadway musicals that Publishers Weekly calls an exhaustive tribute to women whose contributions to Broadway musical history have often been overlooked Library Journal praises the book saying Tepper has fashioned a winning book on the unsung heroines of Broadway musicals that will be appreciated by readers of women's studies and theater lore Kirkus Reviews says it's an encyclopedic reference and a long overdue tribute to female lyricists and composers From the composers who pounded the pavement selling their music in Tin Pan Alley at the turn of the twentieth century to the lyricists who broke new ground writing shows during the Great Depression to the book writers who penned protest musicals fighting for social justice during the 1970s to those who are revitalizing the landscape of American theatre today Women Writing Musicals tells the stories of over 300 inspiring women who wrote Broadway and Off Broadway musicals Jennifer Ashley Tepper's definitive book covers prolific and celebrated Broadway writers like Betty Comden and Jeanine Tesori women who have written musicals but gained fame elsewhere like Dolly Parton and Sara Bareilles and dramatists you've never heard of but definitely should have Among the gems shared here are the stories of Clara Driscoll who saved the Alamo and also wrote a Broadway musical Micki Grant whose mega hit musical about the Black experience made her the first woman to write book music and lyrics for a Broadway show Mar a Grever who made her Broadway debut at age 56 and who was the first Mexican female composer to achieve international success and the first all female writing team for a Broadway musical in 1922 Annelu Burns Anna Wynne O Ryan Madelyn Sheppard and Helen S Woodruff This book is a treasure trove for theatre loving readers that Tony and Emmy Award winning actor and singer Kristin Chenoweth praises as a wonderful resource for actors and an important read for anyone interested in theatre
