Sales Tax In The 21st Century:

The Sales Tax in the 21st Century Matthew Murray, William F. Fox, 1997-08-26 The book covers papers delivered at a seminar which was held in February 1996 in Clearwater Florida by the National Tax Association and the Institute of Property Taxation The contributions by various authors are divided into several general headings Sales tax overview Interstate dimension of the sales tax Sales taxation and federal policy New administrative techniques in auditing Emerging technologies and auditing practices Changing who pays the sales tax Information technology and the sales tax A Georgia Sales Tax for the 21st Century Roy W. Bahl, Richard Ross Hawkins, 1998 Tax Reform in the 21st Century John G. Head, Richard E. Krever, 2009-01-01 No government can be sustained without the ability to tax its citizens The question then arises how can a nation do so in a way that is fair and equitable to taxpayers while simultaneously promoting economic growth and providing the state with the funds it needs to adequately address the needs of its citizens This insightful work featuring contributions from a stellar array of international tax experts and economists addresses the crucial relevant issues which developed countries will confront in the early decades of the 21st century The pursuit of tax reform Personal tax base income or consumption Tax rate scale equity and efficiency aspects Business tax reform structural and design issues Interjurisdictional issues Controlling tax avoidance Taxing Corporate Income in the 21st Century Alan J. Auerbach, James R. Hines, Jr., Joel Slemrod, 2007-04-16 This book was first published in 2007 Most countries levy taxes on corporations but the impact and therefore the wisdom of such taxes is highly controversial among economists Does the burden of these taxes fall on wealthy shareowners or is it passed along to those who work for or buy the products of corporations Can a country with high corporate taxes remain competitive in the global economy This book features research by leading economists and accountants that sheds light on these and related questions including how taxes affect corporate dividend policy stock market value avoidance and evasion The studies promise to inform both future tax policy and regulatory policy especially in light of the Sarbanes Oxley Act and other actions by the Securities and Exchange Commission that are having profound effects on the market for tax planning and auditing in the wake of the well publicized accounting scandals in Enron and WorldCom A Tax System for the 21st Century, 1992 Tax and Government in the 21st Century Miranda Stewart, 2022-09-08 A broad accessible evidence based analysis of tax law and how democratic tax states are confronting today's global digital challenges Challenges facing the Medicaid program in the 21st century United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Health, 2004 21st Century Economics: A Reference Handbook Rhona C. Free, 2010-05-14 Interest in economics is at an all time high Among the challenges facing the nation is an economy with rapidly rising unemployment failures of major businesses and industries and continued dependence on oil with its wildly fluctuating price Economists have dealt with such questions for generations but they have taken on new meaning and significance Tackling these questions and encompassing analysis of traditional economic theory and topics as well as those that economists have only more recently addressed 21st Century Economics A Reference Handbook is a must have reference resource Key Features Provides highly readable summaries of theory and models in key areas of micro and macroeconomics helpful for students trying to get a big picture sense of the field Includes introductions to relevant theory as well as empirical evidence useful for readers interested in learning about economic analysis of an issue as well for students embarking on research projects Features chapters focused on cutting edge topics with appeal for economists seeking to learn about extensions of analysis into new areas as well as new approaches Presents models in graphical format and summarizes empirical evidence in ways that do not require much background in statistics or econometrics so as to maximize accessibility to students

Intergovernmental Management for the 21st Century Timothy J. Conlan, Paul L. Posner, 2009-11-01 A Brookings Institution Press and the National Academy of Public Administration publication America's complex system of multi layered government faces new challenges as a result of rapidly changing economic technological and demographic trends An aging population economic globalization and homeland security concerns are among the powerful factors testing the system's capacity and flexibility Major policy challenges and responses are now overwhelmingly intergovernmental in nature and as a result the fortunes of all levels of government are more intertwined and interdependent than ever before This volume cosponsored by the National Academy of Public Administration NAPA defines an agenda for improving the performance of America's intergovernmental system The early chapters present the current state of practice in intergovernmental relations including discussion of trends toward centralization devolution and other power sharing arrangements The fiscal underpinnings of the system are analyzed along with the long term implications of current trends in financing at all levels The authors identify the principal tools used to define intergovernmental management grants mandates preemptions in discussing emerging models and best practices in the design and management of those tools In Intergovernmental Management for the 21st Century applies these crosscutting themes to critical policy areas where intergovernmental management and cooperation are essential such as homeland security education welfare health care and the environment It concludes with an authoritative assessment of the system's capacity to govern oversee and improve Contributors include Jocelyn Johnston American University Shelley Metzenbaum University of Maryland Richard Nathan SUNY at Albany Barry Rabe University of Michigan Beryl Radin American University Alice Rivlin Brookings Institution Ray Sheppach National Governors Association Frank Shafroth George Mason University Troy Smith BYU Hawaii Carl Stenberg University of Nor
