Persian and Arabic Literary Communities in the Seventeenth Century James White, 2023-06-15 Shortlisted for the 2024 British Kuwait Friendship Society Book Prize A wealth of scholarship has highlighted how commercial political and religious networks expanded across the Arabian Sea during the seventeenth century as merchants from South Asia traded goods in the ports of Yemen noblemen from Safavid Iran established themselves in the courts of the Mughal Empire and scholars from across the region came together to debate the Islamic sciences in the Arabian Peninsula's holy cities of Mecca and Medina. This book demonstrates that the globalising tendency of migration created worldly literary systems which linked Iran, India and the Arabian Peninsula through the production and circulation of classicizing Arabic and Persian poetry. By close reading over seventy unstudied manuscripts of seventeenth century Arabic and Persian poetry that have remained hidden on the shelves of libraries in India, Iran, Turkey and Europe, the book examines how migrant poets adapted shared poetic forms, imagery and rhetoric to engage with their interlocutors and create communities in the cities where they settled. The book begins by reconstructing overarching patterns in the movement of over a thousand authors and the economic basis for their migration, before focusing on six case studies of literary communities which each represent a different location in the circulatory system of the Arabian Sea. In so doing, the book demonstrates the plurality of seventeenth century aesthetic movements, a diversity which later nationalisms purposefully simplified and misread. Shadow Climber Mickey Zucker

Reichert, 2019-04-18. His father wrongly executed when he was a child, Taziar Medakan had turned to stealing for his survival. He was the Shadow Climber, skilled at remaining one with the shadows, unseen in the midst of his enemies. And he stole not for profit but for the challenge of it, donating most of his booty to those in need. But though Taz could defeat any trap, he wasn't prepared for the treachery of Ilyrian, a cunning politician ready to sacrifice the Shadow Climber to gain power himself. So Taz found himself in the baron's dreaded dungeons from which even a master thief's only escape might be death. There he met Moonbear, a prince among barbarians, a swordsman beyond compare, and Taz's last hope for salvation. Together the two sought their pathway to freedom. But it was a pathway that would set a whole kingdom on their trail in a pursuit led by Ilyrian and a Dragonrank sorcerer on his own mission of magical revenge. The Oudh Law Journal, 1918 The Indian Law Reports, 1886 The Indian Law Reports, Allahabad Series, 1910 Nomination of Jeffrey M. Crane, 1999-11-23. This is an annotated translation of what is perhaps the most important Ottoman literary source for the Islamic monuments of the Ottoman capital Istanbul. Hafız H. Seyin bin Ismail Ayvansaray's Hadikat al-Cevami, The Garden of Mosques, long recognized by Turkish scholars as a unique source for the city's architecture and urban form, the text which was completed in 1195/1780 and revised and enlarged between 1248/1832-33 and 1253/1838 by Ali Sati, contains separate descriptions of each of Istanbul's more than 800 mosques plus accounts of its medreses, tombs, tekkes and other monuments. The annotations place each of these buildings within the city's urban plan and provide biographical information about the patrons, architects and other personalities mentioned in the text. An introductory essay gives an account of Ayvansaray's life and works, describes the various manuscript versions of the text and reviews the cartographic resources available for the study of Istanbul's urban form. Salik and His Father Keld Hansen, Catherine Maggs, 1981-01-01. When the meat supply is nearly gone, Salik is left to care for his family while his father goes in search of food. Shelter Me Rob Gittins, 2020-10-23. Shelter Me completes the trilogy following Gimme Shelter and Secret Shelter. The dramatic conclusion to the story of Witness Protection Officer Ros Gilet herself put into witness protection after violent events in her childhood. As the story draws to its bloody end and the truth about the past emerges, Ros contemplates a final, deadly revenge. Coney Amram Ducovny, 2001-10-02. Coney Island, 1939. On the eve of World War II, fifteen-year-old Harry Catzker spends his after-school hours on his bike picking up betting slips from Coney Island carnival freaks for the local bookie and racing his imaginary sworn enemy, German Captain Ziegenbaum, whose ship menaces the coastline. As the lights of the Cyclone and Luna Park glow in the Coney Island night, Harry finds a surrogate family in the freaks and low lifes. Oudh Law Journal, 1918.

Pakistan's Wars Tariq Rahman, 2022-06-09. This book studies the wars Pakistan has fought over the years with India as well as other non-state actors. Focusing on the first Kashmir war, 1947-48, the wars of 1965 and 1971, and the 1999 Kargil war, it analyses the elite decision-making which leads to these conflicts and tries to understand how Pakistan got involved in the first place. The author applies the gambling model to provide insights into the dysfunctional world-view, risk-taking behaviour and other behavioural patterns of the decision-makers which precipitate these wars and highlight their effects on India-Pakistan relations for the future. The book also brings to the fore the experience of widows, children, common soldiers, displaced civilians and villagers living near borders in the form of interviews to understand the subaltern perspective. A nuanced and accessible military history of Pakistan; this book will be indispensable to scholars and researchers of military history, defence and strategic studies, international relations, political studies, war and conflict studies and South Asian studies.

The Origins Of War In South Asia Sumit Ganguly, 2019-06-26. In examining the forces that made the Indo-Pakistani relationship prone to conflict, Dr Ganguly focusses first on the nature of the British colonial disengagement policy, a hasty and ill-conceived procedure that served to exacerbate the ideological differences between India's major political parties, the Congress and the Muslim League. Their competing views, the Congress espoused a secular polity while the League drew its inspiration from Islamic tenets, formed the basis of the two polities that emerged from the collapse of the British Indian empire. Disputes also arose over the uncertain status of Kashmir. With the lapse of the British doctrine of paramountcy, recognition of the British as the sovereign power in India, the so-called princely states had to join either India or Pakistan on the basis of geographic location and demographic composition. Kashmir posed a problem because of its location and because it had a Hindu monarch ruling a Muslim majority population This peculiar status made it the center of a Pakistani irredentist claim This claim was rejected by India intent upon demonstrating that all minorities could thrive under the aegis of secular government Once set in motion by the interplay of domestic regional and systematic factors these three forces disengagement ideological differences and the conflict over Kashmir brought the subcontinent to war in 1947 1948 1965 and 1971 Dr Ganguly provides a comprehensive and comparative analysis of these three Indo Pakistani conflicts as well as an assessment of both the impact of the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan on the security of South Asia and the changes in the perceptions of that security Those Swiss Money Men Ray Vicker, 1973
