Political Pilgrims Paul Hollander, 2017-07-05 Why did so many distinguished Western Intellectuals from G B Shaw to J P Sartre and closer to home from Edmund Wilson to Susan Sontag admire various communist systems often in their most repressive historical phases How could Stalin's Soviet Union Mao's China or Castro's Cuba appear at one time as both successful modernizing societies and the fulfillments of the boldest dreams of social justice Why at the same time had these intellectuals so mercilessly judged and rejected their own Western liberal cultures What Impulses and beliefs prompted them to seek the realization of their ideals in distant poorly known lands How do their journeys fit into long standing Western traditions of looking for new meaning In the non Western world These are some of the questions Paul Hollander sought to answer In his massive study that covers much of our century His success is attested by the fact that the phrase political pilgrim has become a part of intellectual discourse Even in the post communist era the questions raised by this book remain relevant as many Western and especially American intellectuals seek to come to terms with a world which offers few models of secular fulfillment and has tarnished the reputation of political Utopias His new and lengthy introduction updates the pilgrimages and examines current attempts to find substitutes for the emotional and political energy that used to be invested in them Historic Landscapes and Mental Well-being Timothy Darvill, Kerry Barrass, Laura Drysdale, Vanessa Heaslip, Yvette Staelens, 2019-09-05 Using archaeological sites and historic landscapes to promote mental well being represents one of the most significant advances in archaeological resource management for many years Prompted by the Human Henge project Stonehenge Avebury World Heritage Site this volume provides an overview of work going on across Britain and the near Continent Quarterly Guide for Readers Finsbury (England).
