factories the authorities set about identifying underground sites around Britain safe from the threat of air attack Unfortunately in the haste of the moment safety arrangements were not a high priority and as a result there were a number of appalling accidents the most serious occurred in November 1944 when 3 800 tons of HE bombs detonated at the same time resulting in the deaths of 68 people in a Staffordshire quarry Car, 1902 Cold War Warriors David Stone, 1998-09-01 With over four years research the author draws upon the regimental archives and journals anecdotes personal and official diaries and a wide range of other documents and interviews The book's recurring themes are the changing nature of infantry soldiering the constant battle of the Army to recruit and the traditions and the oneness of an infantry regiment Special emphasis and extensive coverage is also given to the 1st Battalion's operational activities and to the Northern Ireland campaign in particular Naive Diamond Des Thompson, 2011-08-19 The Annual Bonfire Festival was innocently arranged complete with Fairground Candy Floss and finishing with the ineffable Firework Display all the village people enjoyed the event But the consequences were a disaster A badly burnt body is found amongst the ashes the following morning leading to an intensive investigation that discovers a diamond smuggling ring that involves some of the local landed gentry who are amongst the ring leaders Fire and Water, 1896 Armed Forces, 1982 The 'Secret' World of Vickers Guided Weapons John Forbat, 2012-05-30 Based on the author's own involvement as an engineer at the company through the 1950s and early 1960s and on more recent research of the archives at Brooklands Museum and the PRO this book explains the successes and failures of leading edge developments at Vickers in the early days of guided weapons John Forbat explains missile and avionics systems and trials with diagrams and photographs and tells the story of the company and its individuals Projects covered in depth include Red Rapier Blue Boar Red Dean and Vigilant anti tank missile of which the author has first hand experience as he started working for Vickers as a graduate apprentice assembling airplanes and soon graduated into Special Projects where he was responsible for many of the trials Industrial Marketing Digest, 1984 A Region in Transition John Tomaney, Neil Ward, 2017-07-05 In the context of the general trend towards regionalism as a focus for public policy and as a source of cultural and political identity an interdisciplinary team from Newcastle University combine to analyze how this affects the North East of England Sister Brother Brenda Wineapple, 2008-03-01 Devoted eccentric and compelling Gertrude and Leo Stein were constant companions from childhood to adulthood until finally they spoke no more Americans expatriates and virtually orphans they lived together for almost forty years collaborating in one of the great artistic and literary adventures of the twentieth century Sister Brother tells the story of that adventure and relationship With a personality that drew people toward her regardless of what they thought of her inventive hermetic prose Gertrude Stein dazzled and perplexed Enigmatic intelligent and self absorbed Leo also dazzled but in his own way One of the crucial figures in Gertrude's early years he was the original guiding spirit of the famed salon at 27 rue de Fleurus which continued for almost two decades From her early days as a medical student to her first days in Paris

Gertrude was passionately driven toward the career in which she distinguished herself demanding appreciation as an exceptional writer who knew precisely what she intended This book shows how Gertrude slowly struggled with what became a unique voice and why her brother spurned it With its wealth of new and rare material its reconstruction of Leo s famed art collection and its array of characters from Bernard Berenson to Pablo Picasso this biography offers the first glimpse into the smoldering sibling relationship that helped form two of the twentieth century s most unusual figures Romantic Climates Anne Collett,Olivia Murphy,2019-06-29 This book seeks to uncover how today s ideas about climate and catastrophe have been formed by the thinking of Romantic poets novelists and scientists and how these same ideas might once more be harnessed to assist us in the new climate challenges facing us in the present The global climate disaster following Mt Tambora s eruption in 1815 the Year without a Summer is a starting point from which to reconsider both how the Romantics responded to the changing climates of their day and to think about how these climatic events shaped the development of Romanticism itself As the contributions to this volume demonstrate climate is an inescapable aspect of Romantic writing and thinking Ideologies and experiences of climate inform everything from scientific writing to lyric poetry and novels The Diodati circle that assembled in Geneva in 1816 Lord Byron Percy and Mary Shelley John Polidori and John Cam Hobhouse and the gothic novelist MG Monk Lewis is synonymous with the literature of that dreary uncanny season Essays in this collection also consider the work of Jane Austen John Keats and William Wordsworth along with less well known figures such as the scientist Luke Howard and later responses to Romantic climates by John Ruskin and Virginia Woolf The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 Portillo's Hidden History of Britain Michael Portillo,2018-11-01 A compelling and wonderfully evocative history of Britain through the stories of its lost or abandoned buildings
