Salka Valka:

Salka Valka Halldór Laxness, 1973      Salka Valka Halldór Laxness, 1936      Halldór Laxness Peter Hallberg, 1971
Study of Iceland's Nobel prize winning novelist and his works      Intersecting Worlds Jenna Grace Sciuto, 2025-01-15 Intersecting Worlds Colonial Liminality in US Southern and Icelandic Literatures recalibrates readings of US southern and American writers by exploring comparable depictions of race colonialism Whiteness gender and sexuality in Icelandic literature This book explores the liminality ambiguity and general unease that result when postcolonial theories are applied to both Iceland and the US South It investigates the parallels and also the limitations to such comparisons with the labels and binaries created to represent colonial dynamics flattening the complex positionings of Iceland and the US South Iceland an independent nation since 1944 has a complex colonial history As a former dependency of Denmark that endured a US military presence from 1941 to 2006 Iceland's global positioning invites comparisons to formerly colonized spaces At the same time Iceland's history and geopolitical location differ from other colonized nations which were subject to brutal violence and dehumanizing practices This comparative project investigates Iceland's colonial liminality and draws connections to the colonial ambiguity of the US South depicted as colonized by the federal government during Reconstruction and the site of the colonization of the Black population through slavery and its later iterations Exploring the work of US southern writers like William Faulkner Gayl Jones Jean Toomer and Carson McCullers alongside twentieth century Icelandic novelists including Halldór Laxness Svava Jakobsdóttir Guðbergur Bergsson and Frjáslaug Sigurðardóttir on both thematic and aesthetic levels reveals much about each region's history and the complexity of colonial dynamics Intersecting Worlds centers layers of Whiteness in both national and transnational contexts challenges ideas of Nordic and US southern exceptionalism and exposes the complex impacts of colonialism in the Global North and the Global South as depicted in twentieth century literature      Light in the Dark Björn Norðfjörð, 2025-02-24 Light in the Dark tells the dramatic history of Icelandic cinema from its modest origin in the early twentieth century to the heterogeneous and complex national cinema of today In tracing this wide ranging history author Björn Norðfjörð describes the constant tug between local and national cultural forces and the transnational and global pull of world cinema Norðfjörð starts by casting light on the earliest films made in the country expanding outward to survey Scandinavians adaptations of Icelandic literature filmed during the late silent period documentaries of the interwar period and the first narrative features following the end of World War II and national independence He traces the emergence of national cinema proper to the 1980s with the foundation of the Icelandic Film Fund explores the subsequent impact of first European art cinema and then Hollywood genre cinema and finally considers the remarkable international success of Icelandic cinema in the twentieth first century Along the way Norðfjörð draws attention to many additional issues and topics regarding Icelandic cinema including depictions of nature and animals the aesthetics of fire and ice the role of film adaptation the impact of Nordic noir and crime fiction Hollywood runaway productions and the question of women's cinema in Icelandic filmmaking Throughout the book films from all periods of Icelandic filmmaking are analysed in detail with equal emphasis on content and form including both lesser known titles and key films like The Outlaw and His Wife Victor Sjörström 1917 Salka Valka Arne Mattsson 1954 Land and Sons Guðmundsson 1980 When the Raven Flies Hrafn Gunnlaugsson 1984 Cold Fever Friðrik Friðriksson 1995 101 Reykjavík Baltasar Kormákur Rams Grímur Hkonarson 2015 and Godland Hlynur Pálmason 2022

The Islander Halldor Gudmundsson, 2023-09-28 An enthralling heartening study of a man of unflagging interest in life Independent A thoroughly researched biography New York Review of Books Provides readers of English with a perfect introduction to the life and works of an outstanding writer one whom everyone should read Irish Times I am thoroughly convinced by Gudmundsson's portrayal of Laxness J M COETZEE A strong and memorable portrayal of a man who fought heroically to write for the world but in one of its rarest languages Halldor Laxness won the Nobel Prize for literature in 1955 During his life which spanned nearly the entire century he not only wrote sixty books but also became an active participant in Europe's idealistic debates and struggles In the 1930s Laxness became attracted to Soviet communism He travelled widely in the Soviet Bloc and despite witnessing some atrocities remained a defender of communism until the 1960s But his political leanings never dominated his work Laxness continually sought to divulge the world of beauty that lurks beneath the everyday ensuring his artistry remained a sanctuary of humanism and reflection In this biography Guðmundsson has been granted access to unique material by Laxness family As a result the interrelationships between Laxness personal life his politics and his career are meticulously examined What emerges is a grand description of a fascinating personality in which the manifold conflicts of the 20th century are mirrored Laxness is a writer of the first degree a writer I dreamed of coming close to BORIS PASTERNAK 1960 When in a bad mood I have picked one of your books And there the pure and deep sound has welcomed me strong and charming from the first page KAREN BLIXEN in an open letter to Laxness in 1952 Translated from Icelandic by Philip Roughton

Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Literature and Theater Jan Sjøvik, 2006-04-19 The literature of Scandinavia is amazingly rich and varied consisting of the works produced by the countries of Denmark Norway Sweden Finland and Iceland and stretching from the ancient Norse Sagas to the present day While much of it is unknown outside of the region some has gained worldwide popularity including the fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen the stories of Isak Dinesen and the plays of Henrik Ibsen and August Strindberg While obviously including the area's most famous works the Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Literature and Theater also provides information on lesser known authors and currents trends literary circles and journals and historical background This is accomplished through a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries which together make this reference the most comprehensive and up to date work of its kind related to Scandinavian literature and theater available anywhere

A History of Icelandic Literature Daisy L. Neijmann, 2006-01-01 As complete a history as possible of the literature of Iceland

Northern Lights

B. J. Epstein, 2009 This volume is a collection of essays based on papers given at the Nordic Translation Conference which took place in London in March 2008 The purpose of the collection is twofold First it serves to place the Nordic languages firmly into the field of translation studies where hitherto little research has focused on the Nordic region the essays include many Nordic specific studies and ideas Second the book presents research and conclusions which are relevant to translation studies in all languages and cultures Therefore this volume which covers a wide range of Nordic languages and both literary and non literary topics is unambiguously pertinent to the Nordic countries while also being universally valuable The 20th Century Go-N Frank N. Magill, 2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography The Week in Germany, 1979 True North B.J. Epstein, 2014-06-02 True North Literary Translation in the Nordic Countries is the first book to focus solely on literary translation from to and between the Nordic tongues The book is divided into three main sections These are novels children's literature and other genres encompassing drama crime fiction sagas cookbooks and music although naturally there are connections and overlapping themes between the sections Halldór Laxness Virginia Woolf Selma Lagerlöf Astrid Lindgren Mark Twain Henrik Ibsen Henning Mankell Janis Joplin and Jamie Oliver are just some of the authors analysed Topics examined include particular translatorial challenges translating for specific audiences or influencing audiences through translation re translation the functions of translated texts the ways in which translation can change a genre the creation of identity through translation and more As is clear from this list many of the theories proposed and findings discussed here are also relevant to the wider field of translation studies as well as to literary studies more generally It is time for the world's growing Nordicmania to influence the field of translation studies and for translation to take its place as a relevant and essential issue in our understanding of the Northern countries The varied chapters in this book will contribute to these stimulating and critical conversations New Times, 1953-07 Land of the Olympians Robert Corfe, 2009-03-02 Aspects of everyday life and politics in both Scandinavia and Britain as seen through the author's 9 years residence in the Far North in the 1960s and through today's perspective in perceiving the future through the past From Coldwar Communism to the Global Emancipatory Movement Peter Waterman, 2014-12-12 Boaventura de Sousa Santos says This is an admirable memoir of an intellectual activist who has lived most intensely the progressive struggles of the last sixty years of world history because despite being born in Europe Peter in the best tradition of communist internationalism participated in struggles and movements not only in Central and Eastern Europe but also in Africa and most recently in Latin America But this is much more than a memoir It is so well documented that in this personal experience there are reflected some of the most decisive events of contemporary history It is a living history book But even more than this this book is so clearly and vividly written that at times it reads like the script for an imaginary documentary of our times This book should be read by all concerned with our recent history in order to get a much more complex inside view of what happened while it was happening In particular it should be read by the youth in order to get a close up of the difficulties and possibilities in building another possible world at a time where there existed a vibrant international communist movement It is up to such youth to evaluate whether difficulties are now or more daunting the possibilities less or more luminous Beyond Perception Caroline Gatt, Jan Peter Laurens Loovers, 2025-06-25

This book showcases the way a range of scholars have engaged with Tim Ingold's opus since the publication of his ground breaking The Perception of the Environment in 2000 Ingold's work has become key for a variety of disciplines ranging from anthropology archaeology and human geography to art architecture design and studies of material and visual culture As set out in The Perception of the Environment and subsequent publications Ingold proposed an understanding of the world that placed sentient remembering and imagining organisms or inhabitants some of them human at the heart of an extensive field of socio ecological relations In this work Ingold develops broad ranging analyses of personhood knowledge and skills among many other topics This volume sets out to synthesize critical scholarship drawing on Ingold's work to lay out its principles methods and results and to demonstrate its contribution to reshaping both contemporary anthropology and wider intellectual terrains By bringing together chapters from a variety of scholars all critically furthering Ingold's proposals the book advances a paradigm change occurring in various academic disciplines from fixist to emergence onto epistemologies Life and Letters and the London Mercury, 1935 The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 Life and Letters To-day, 1967

Re-Reading the Age of Innovation Louise Kane, 2022-07-28 The period of 1830-1950 was an age of unprecedented innovation From new inventions and scientific discoveries to reconsiderations of religion gender and the human mind the innovations of this era are recorded in a wide range of literary texts Rather than separating these texts into Victorian or modernist camps this collection argues for a new framework that reveals how the concept of innovation generated forms of literary newness that drew novelists poets and other creative figures working across this period into dialogic networks of experiment The 14 chapters in this volume explore how inventions like the rotary print press or hot air balloon and emergent debates about science trade and colonialism evolved new forms and genres Through their examinations of a wide range of texts and writers from well known novelists like Conrad Dickens Hardy and Woolf to less canonical figures like Charlotte Mew Elsie Mar and Walter Frances White the chapters in this collection re-read these texts as part of an age of innovation characterized not by division and divide but by collaboration and community
