Salmagundi Reader:

The Salmagundi Reader Robert Boyers, Peggy Boyers, 1996-10-01 The New Salmagundi Reader comprises forty three pieces in subject categories such as the Sense of the Past Homelands Writers The Art Scene Politics and Varieties A Cynthia Ozick Reader Cynthia Ozick, 1996 Ozick's range of influences is obvious in the fine selections of poems and short stories as well as essays from Art those new to Cynthia Ozick's work will revel in the discovery of a major writer Uncommon Readers Christopher J. Knight, 2003-01-01 Impressive in scope and erudition Christopher Knight's Uncommon Readers focuses on three critics whose voices mixing eloquence with pugnacity stand out as among the most notable independent critics working during the last half century The critics are Denis Donoghue Frank Kermode and George Steiner and their independence a striking characteristic in a time of corporate criticism is reflective of both their backgrounds Donoghue's Catholic upbringing in Protestant ruled Northern Ireland Kermode's Manx beginnings and Steiner's Jewish upbringing in pre Holocaust Europe and their temperaments Each represents a party of one a fact that has on the one hand made them the object of the occasional vituperative dismissal and on the other contributed to their influence and remarkable longevity Since the 1950s Steiner Donoghue and Kermode have each maintained a highly public profile regularly contributing to such influential publications as Encounter New Yorker New York Review of Books Times Literary Supplement and the London Review of Books This aspect of their work receives particular attention in Uncommon Readers for it illustrates a renewed interest in the role of the public critic especially in relation to the genre of the literary review essay and signals a sustained conversation with an educated public namely the common reader Knight makes the argument for the review essay as a serious and still viable genre and he examines the three critics in light of this assumption He expounds upon the critics separate interests Kermode's identification with discussions of canonicity Steiner's with cultural politics and Donoghue's with the persistent claims of the imagination while also revealing the ways in which their work often reflects theological interests Lastly he attempts to adjudicate some of the conflicts that have arisen between these critics and other literary theorists especially the post structuralists and to discuss the question of whether it is still possible for critics to work independently Original and deliberative Uncommon Readers presents a renewed defense of the tradition of the common reader Episodic Poetics Matthew Garrett, 2014 The early United States was a culture of the episode In Episodic Poetics Matthew Garrett merges narrative theory with social and political history to explain the early American fascination with the episodic piecemeal plot Since Aristotle's Poetics the episode has been a vexed category of literary analysis troubling any easy view of the subsumption of unwieldy narrative parts into well plotted wholes Garrett puts forward a new dialectical theory of episodic form to recast this peculiar object of literary history looking to the episode as a narrative unit smaller than the genre in order to give an account of all the period's major prose genres Garrett shows how in ways both magisterial and mundane episodic forms gave variegated shape to the social political and economic conflicts that defined the moment of national formation Episodic Poetics proposes a new method of reading and a new way of conceiving of literary history The book asks how we might understand the cultural role of the episode as a literary micro unit one that forces us to read individual narratives in terms of an always partial and fraught development toward plot Episodic Poetics combines theoretical reflection and historical rigor with careful readings of texts from the early American canon such as The Federalist Benjamin Franklin s Autobiography and the novels of Charles Brockden Brown along with hitherto understudied texts and ephemera such as Washington Irving s Salmagundi Susanna Rowson s Trials of the Human Heart and the memoirs of the metalworker and failed entrepreneur John Fitch Garrett recounts literary history not as the easy victory of grand nationalist ambitions but rather as a series of social struggles expressed through writers recurring engagement with incompletely integrated forms The Art of Retreat Laurel V. Hankins,2025-05-13 The political and cultural fantasy of home as a retreat from the pressures of the world first emerged in the U S alongside two major nineteenth century literary movements Romanticism and domestic fiction Upending accepted gendered narratives from this period The Art of Retreat posits that these movements originated from a domestic culture already in transition in which home was frequently a more complicated site of self interested pleasure coerced labor creole social reproduction homosocial intimacy bachelor whimsy petty tyranny racial abuse and transgender capacity The early national periodicals sketches and novels examined here lend themselves to this interpretation Hankins argues that the literary tradition emerging from these decades one that aligned creative genius with domestic retreat reminds us that a politics that appeals to private feeling must reckon with new interpretations of labor kinship and reform in exchange for the promise of consensual citizenship Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

The Death of Adam Marilynne Robinson,2014-03-18 In this award winning collection the bestselling author of Gilead offers us other ways of thinking about history religion and society Whether rescuing Calvinism and its creator Jean Cauvin from the repressive puritan stereotype or considering how the McGuffey readers were inspired by Midwestern abolitionists or the divide between the Bible and Darwinism Marilynne Robinson repeatedly sends her reader back to the primary texts that are central to the development of American culture but little read or acknowledged today A passionate and provocative celebration of ideas the old arts of civilization and life s mystery The Death of Adam is in the words of Robert D Richardson Jr a grand sweeping blazing brilliant life changing book culture architecture history literature and cultural studies      Fables Of Abundance Jackson Lears,1995-11-03 Fables of Abundance ranges from the traveling peddlers of early modern Europe to the twentieth century American corporation exploring the ways that advertising collaborated with other cultural institutions to produce the dominant aspirations and anxieties in the modern United States      Jameson on Jameson Fredric Jameson,2007-12-26 A collection of interviews with Fredric Jameson over a 20 year period      The Republic ,1885      A Careful Longing Aaron Santesso,2006-10 This book examines the emergence of a new genre during the eighteenth century the nostalgia poem This genre is best understood by reconceiving the premises of nostalgia itself examining it as first and foremost a mode of idealization rather than a longing for the past From the poems that make up this genre we have derived many of our modern ideas and images of nostalgia In tracing the history of the nostalgia poem this book also traces a pattern of tropic change in which a new genre is built around tropes extracted from the dying genres This new genre then begins producing its own tropes in the case of the nostalgia poem these include idealized school days and ruined villages As these tropes become overly familiar the nostalgia poem genre itself begins to fall apart This book reevaluates poems ranging from Dryden s Hastings elegy to Crabbe s The Village showing how works as varied as Gray s Eton College Ode Macpherson s forged epics and Goldsmith s The Deserted Village are all part of a doomed literary experiment an experiment that has nevertheless determined the course of modern nostalgic thought      American and British Poetry Harriet Semmes Alexander,1984      The Literature of the American People Arthur Hobson Quinn,1951
