Salmon & Women Wilma Paterson, Peter Behan, 1990-01-01

Scottish History: Strange but True John

Hamilton, Noreen Hamilton, 2016-06-06 This book contains hundreds of strange but true stories about Scottish history Arranged into a miniature history of Scotland and with bizarre and hilarious true tales for every era it will delight anyone with an interest in Scotland's past The Atlantic Salmon Journal, 1994 Boating, 1991-01 Common Ground

Geneviève Massard-Guilbaud, Stephen Mosley, 2010-10-12 Today's environmental problems climate change loss of biodiversity polluted air land and water all have their origins to a greater or lesser extent in how we have lived played and worked At a time when societies are confronted with the often dramatic consequences of past choices made in the fields of energy technology industry agriculture urbanisation and consumption we need a history that casts more light on the ways in which unsustainable human nature relationships came into being This means forging stronger connections between social and environmental history Common Ground opens up a dialogue between two sub disciplines that to date have remained largely parallel endeavours bringing together both established and younger scholars from both fields to explore how people's everyday lives have connected to their environments and with what effects The book is organised in six sections leisure and environment nature and conservation environmental conflicts folk and scientific knowledge environmental disasters and energy industry and urban infrastructure By exploring the complex interplay between people's day to day activities and ecological change especially the values beliefs and environmental experiences of ordinary men and women we can better understand our past relationships with nature and perhaps make more informed planning and policy choices in the future

Side Casts Hoagy B. Carmichael, 2015-09-15 This beautiful eclectic collection of first person stories from bamboo rod making legend Hoagy B. Carmichael explores various important parts of his life and how they tie into the sport of fishing Growing up in Beverly Hills with a famous jazz musician for a father young Hoagy wasn't exactly destined to become a fisherman But by the age of nine he had a subscription to Field and Stream magazine and regularly rode his bicycle to the local sport shop of the stars in town With strong and exciting prose Carmichael takes readers through these early years and those that followed where he not only honed his passion for fly fishing but also his skills as a rod builder fly fisherman and author In addition to reflecting on his life in fly fishing Carmichael gives readers a fascinating look into the history of rod making and competitive fishing He also describes encounters with some of the biggest names in the art of fine bamboo rod making such as Ed Fody and Everett Garrison Side Casts is an artfully crafted and meticulously researched book that expertly weaves together elements of memoir history and sports writing It will be a welcome addition to any fishing enthusiast's bookshelf Skyhorse Publishing is proud to publish a broad range of books for fishermen Our books for anglers include titles that focus on fly fishing bait fishing fly casting spin casting deep sea fishing and surf fishing Our books offer both practical advice on tackle techniques knots and more as well as lyrical prose on fishing for bass trout salmon crappie

baitfish catfish and more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to publishing books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked by other publishers and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

Biographical Dictionary of Scottish Women Elizabeth L. Ewan, Sue Innes, Sian Reynolds, Rose Pipes, 2007-06-27 This single volume dictionary presents the lives of individual Scottish women from earliest times to the present Drawing on news scholarship and a wide network of professional and amateur historians it throws light on the experience of women from every class and category in Scotland and among the worldwide Scottish diaspora The Biographical Dictionary of Scottish Women is written for the general reading public and for students of Scottish history and society It is scholarly in its approach to evidence and engaging in the manner of its presentation Each entry makes sense of its subject in narrative terms telling a story rather than simply offering information The book is as enjoyable to read as it is easy and valuable to consult It is a unique and important contribution to the history of women and Scotland The publisher acknowledges support from the Scottish Arts Council and the Scottish Executive Equalities Unit towards the publication of this title

Reading the Earth Michael P. Branch, 1998 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for the University of Idaho Press Ecocriticism is a scholarly approach to literature that is rapidly building momentum and legitimacy because of its usefulness as a means of inquiry into the relationship between human culture and the nonhuman world This collection demonstrates promising new directions in the study of literature and environment and suggests the importance and passion of this scholarly enterprise

A Different Angle Holly Morris, 1996 The literature of fly fishing offers great tales of adventure as well as stories of renewal and discovery Yet very little of it has been written by women until now A Different Angle presents a new look at the growing popularity of fly fishing among women through the writing of contemporary women anglers from Pulitzer prize winning author E Annie Proulx to fly casting champion Joan Salvato Wulff Whether exploring the sensual and spiritual pleasures of casting a line or the realities of being female in a predominately male sport the women in this collection write with humor and eloquence about the sport they love By turns lyrical witty and impassioned these stories add a new dimension to the sport literature and art of fly fishing Book cover Editor & Publisher ,1950 The fourth estate Pennsylvania Angler ,1947
