The A to Z of Fantasy Literature Brian Stableford, 2009-08-13 Once upon a time all literature was fantasy set in a mythical past when magic existed animals talked and the gods took an active hand in earthly affairs As the mythical past was displaced in Western estimation by the historical past and novelists became increasingly preoccupied with the present fantasy was temporarily marginalized until the late 20th century when it enjoyed a spectacular resurgence in every stratum of the literary marketplace Stableford provides an invaluable guide to this sequence of events and to the current state of the field The chronology tracks the evolution of fantasy from the origins of literature to the 21st century The introduction explains the nature of the impulses creating and shaping fantasy literature the problems of its definition and the reasons for its changing historical fortunes The dictionary includes cross referenced entries on more than 700 authors ranging across the entire historical spectrum while more than 200 other entries describe the fantasy subgenres key images in fantasy literature technical terms used in fantasy criticism and the intimately convoluted relationship between literary fantasies scholarly fantasies and lifestyle fantasies The book concludes with an extensive bibliography that ranges from general textbooks and specialized accounts of the history and scholarship of fantasy literature through bibliographies and accounts of the fantasy literature of different nations to individual author studies and useful websites

F. Rigelhof,2000 Punctuate his title as you like but T F Rigelhof considers This is Our Writing a declaration an enquiry and an exclamation As a writer of half a dozen a reviewer of dozens upon dozens and as a reader of a multitude more books Terry Rigelhof knows much about writing in Canada In these eleven essays he asks what is best in what has been written by Canadians in the twentieth century He examines selected works of some writers whose accomplishments need serious revaluation What are the real achievements of Robertson Davies Carole Corbeil Mavis Gallant Mordecai Richler Hugh Hood Leonard Cohen and George Grant Rigelhof comes up with a list that will surprise some and dismay others This is a book for readers who have always known in their heart of hearts that Robertson Davies was an egregious windbag and that underneath the inspired silliness of their carefully contrived and managed public images Mordecai Richler and Leonard Cohen have produced three of the most intelligent novels we have In a sequence of interlocking personal essays Rigelhof explores living a writerly life in Canada at the end of the twentieth century The text is fortified by a dozen photographs all but one previously unpublished by Gabor Szilasi one of Canada s greatest active documentary photographers The Columbia History of the American Novel Emory Elliott,1991 Designed as a companion to The Columbia Literary History of the United States this compilation of 31 major essays covers the American novel from the 1700s to the present although the majority deal with the 20th century Within each era themes genres and topics such as realism gender romance and technology are discussed in depth as well as modern Canadian Caribbean and Latin American fiction Each essayist selects only the authors who best illustrate the topic thus subtly skewing the view of the literary scene at that time The volume also covers women minorities popular fiction and the book marketplace ISBN 0 231 07360 7 59 95 Canadian Literary Landmarks John Robert Colombo,1984-01-01 Here is a list of three dozen of the top literary locales in the country The selection of sites is necessarily subjective yet it attempts to represent geographical historical social and cultural concerns as well as strictly literary interests Had this list been prepared by the editors of Michelin Guide they would have added asterisks or stars to the entries Interesting Worth a detour Worth a journey It is the opinion of the author of Canadian Literary Landmarks that all thirty six sites are Worth a journey It is recognized that the average person is unlikely to visit No 1 not to mention No 36 but as these sites happen to be the first and last entries in the book they mark a convenient and symbolic beginning and ending No 1 being L Anse aux Meadows Epaves Bay Nfld and No 36 being the North Pole NWT The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars,2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

Contemporary Authors: 1945 to the Present

Britannica Educational Publishing,2013-06-01 Contemporary literature encompasses so many genres literary forms and themes that it would seem almost impossible to identify a unifying thread between them Yet in the tradition established by literary heavyweights who came before modern writers of all stripes and backgrounds have continued to entertain and to confront the social cultural and psychological realities of the times including everything from racial identity to war to technology with their own flair and insight The diversity of authors profiled herein from Toni Morrison to Sylvia Plath to Stephen King to David Foster Wallace attests to the scope and complexity of modern society

A Celtic Temperament

Robertson Davies,2015 Robertson Davies 1913 1995 had a remarkable literary career that extended through the entire second half of the 20th century Chronicling his time as editor of the Peterborough Examiner his role as the founding master of Massey College and most of all his life as a writer from the failure of a play in New York to the beginnings of an idea for a novel that would become Fifth Business 1970 A Celtic Temperament is entertaining and illuminating and a major addition to Davies body of work
