Salud The Rise Of Santa Barbaras Wine Industry:

Salud! Victor W. Geraci, 2004-03-01 In 1965 soil and climatic studies indicated that the Santa Ynez and Santa Maria valleys of Santa Barbara County California offered suitable conditions for growing high quality wine grapes Thus was launched a revival of the area s two centuries old wine industry that by 1995 made Santa Barbara County an internationally prominent wine region Salud traces the evolution of Santa Barbara viticulture in the larger context of California s history and economy offering insight into one of the state s most important industries California has produced wine since Spanish missionaries first planted grapes to make sacramental wines but it was not until the late twentieth century that changing consumer tastes and a flourishing national economy created the conditions that led to the state s wine boom Historian Victor W Geraci uses the Santa Barbara wine industry as a case study to analyze the history and evolution of American viticulture from its obscure colonial beginnings to its current international acclaim As elsewhere in the state Santa Barbara County vintners faced the multiple challenges of selecting grape varieties appropriate to their unique conditions protecting their crops from disease and insects developing local wineries and of marketing their products in a highly competitive national and international market Geraci gives careful attention to all the details of this production agriculture science and technology capitalization and investment land use issues politics the specter posed by the behemoth Napa and multinational wine corporations and the social and personal consequences of creating and supporting an industry vulnerable to so many natural and economic crises His extensive research includes interviews with many industry professionals California is today one of the world s major wine producers and Santa Barbara County contributes significantly to the volume and renowned quality of this wine production Salud offers a highly engaging overview of an industry in which the ancient romance of wine too often obscures a complex and diverse modern vitibusiness that for better and sometimes for worse has shaped the regions it dominates

The War on Wine Victor W. Geraci, 2023-11-07 The development of an American wine ethos The history of wine is a tale of capitalist production and consumer experience and early Americans embraced the idea of having their own wine culture But many began to believe that excessive alcohol consumption had become a moral ethical economic political social and health conundrum The result was a national on again off again relationship with the concept of an American wine culture Citizens struggled to build a wine culture patterned after their diasporic European custom of wine as a moderating beverage that was part of a healthy diet Yet as America grew untold attempts to create a wine culture failed due to climate pests diseases wars and depressions resulting in some people considering the nation an alcoholic republic Thus began an anti alcohol culture war aimed at restricting or prohibiting alcoholic beverages With the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment Prohibition a culture war started between wet and dry proponents After the repeal of Prohibition the decimated wine industry responded by forming the Wine Institute to rebrand wine s role in American society after which neoprohibitionists attempted to restrict alcohol availability and consumption To confront these aggressive actions the Wine Institute hired politically trained John A De Luca to navigate the new attacks and pushed for rebranding wine as a cultural spirit with health benefits

Wine By Design Victor W. Geraci,2020-03-18 From its eighteenth century beginnings the Santa Barbara wine industry achieved success by embracing a wine by design model In this process farmers winemakers and entrepreneurs overcome roadblocks like diseases government policies and regulations and environmental concerns by utilizing the latest technological advances coupled with agribusiness capitalism As the American demand for premium wine grapes intensified in the late twentieth century the Northern California wine industry rapidly grew its boutique and innovative local designer winemaking to increase profit to meet demand and compete on a global scale Set in the context of the regional national and global wine community this story illuminates a regional story of how the Santa Barbara wine industry found solutions to current market conditions while utilizing local traditions to develop a new version of local wine terroir An accomplishment that allowed them to compete in the global marketplace yet develop highly specialized wine that is unique to the region By employing leading edge technology and entrepreneurship the California Central Coast region of Santa Barbara became a model for the American vision of agricultural innovation and an integral part of the international wine trade developing a personalized version of local wine terroir

Martin, 2014-12-16 Alcohol consumption goes to the very roots of nearly all human societies Different countries and regions have become associated with different sorts of alcohol for instance the beer culture of Germany the wine culture of France Japan and sake Russia and vodka the Caribbean and rum or the moonshine culture of Appalachia Wine is used in religious rituals and toasts are used to seal business deals or to celebrate marriages and state dinners However our relation with alcohol is one of love hate We also regulate it and tax it we pass laws about when and where it's appropriate we crack down severely on drunk driving and the United States and other countries tried the failed Noble Experiment of Prohibition While there are many encyclopedias on alcohol nearly all approach it as a substance of abuse taking a clinical medical perspective alcohol alcoholism and treatment The SAGE Encyclopedia of Alcohol examines the history of alcohol worldwide and goes beyond the historical lens to examine alcohol as a cultural and social phenomenon as well both for good and for ill from the earliest days of humankind Making

Slow Food Fast in California Cuisine Victor W. Geraci, 2017-03-02 This book follows the development of industrial agriculture in California and its influence on both regional and national eating habits Early California politicians and entrepreneurs envisioned agriculture as a solution to the food needs of the expanding industrial nation The state's climate geography vast expanses of land water and immigrant workforce when coupled with university research and governmental assistance provided a model for agribusiness In a short time the San Francisco Bay Area became a hub for guaranteeing Americans access to a consistent quantity of quality foods To this end California agribusiness played a major role in national food policies and subsequently produced a bifurcated California Cuisine that sustained both Slow and Fast Food proponents Problems arose as mid twentieth century social activists battled the unresponsiveness of government agencies to corporate greed food safety and environmental sustainability By utilizing multidisciplinary literature and oral histories the book illuminates a more balanced look at how a California Cuisine embraced Slow Food Made Fast Strangers on Familiar
