The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich, 2006-01-01 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan's hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy's social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel's narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions Mindscapes of Montreal Ceri Morgan, 2012-10-15 In examining a number of francophone Montr al novels from 1960 to 2005 this interdisciplinary study considers the ways in which these connect with material landscapes to produce a city of neighbourhoods In so doing it reflects on how Montr al has been seen as both home and not home for francophone Quebecers Morgan offers an overview of the fiction examines micro and macro geographies of Montr al and identifies some key literary trends In so doing it reflects on the importance of the imaginary in our experiencing and understanding of the urban The Cambridge Companion to the French Novel Timothy Unwin, 1997-10-28 This volume offers a unique and valuable insight into the novel in French over the past two centuries In a series of essays acknowledged experts discuss a variety of topics including nineteenth century realism women and fiction popular fiction experiment and innovation war and the Holocaust the Francophone novel and postmodern fiction They offer a challenging reassessment of major figures while deliberately reading traditional views of literary history against the grain Theoretical discussion is combined with close reading of texts and exploration of context comparison with other genres and other literatures and reference to novels from earlier periods This companionable introduction includes a chronology and guide to further reading From it emerges a strong sense of the vitality and energy of the modern French novel and of the debates surrounding it

Canadian Cultural Poesis Garry Sherbert, Sheila Petty, Annie G rrin, 2006-02-03 Annotation Examining culture as social identity this collection explores issues such as gender technology cultural ethnicity and regionalism in four general areas the media individual and national identity languages and cultural dissent Masculinities in Twentieth- and Twenty-first

Century French and Francophone Literature Edith Biegler Vandervoort, 2011-05-25 The study of masculinities and gender identity in contemporary literature is relatively new and with each year of this millennium gains momentum Indeed as the women's movement becomes forceful in developing nations the question of tolerance to gays lesbians bisexuals and transvestites undergoes a similar process At a time when women refuse to be subjected to war crimes when they begin entering the workforce and realize the need to support their families independently and when they refuse to remain in abusive marriages or remain silent in countries where governments ignore their needs men and women are questioning the meaning of gender in their culture and often seek alternatives to established gender roles In some countries this entails organized demonstrations for additional civil rights while in others the expression of sexual freedom remains a question of remaining silent or risking public execution Thanks to the scholarly commitment of its authors this book examines the range of masculine expression on three continents Europe Africa and the Americas In this collection they write about men's past and present challenges male friendships and male immigrants and outcasts Paralleling the independence movement of France's former colonies the goal of this collection is to continue the expression of freedom toward understanding and tolerance of all variances of sexuality

Operation Freak Christian Flaugh, 2012-06-01 In Operation Freak Christian Flaugh embarks upon an exploration of the intricate connection between the physical bodies and narratives that subjected to all manner of operations generate identity The author spotlights such voluntary and involuntary acts to show how discourses of ability disability and bodily manipulation regularly influence the production in and of various Francophone texts Flaug's foundation is the critical examination of mutually informing narratives Francophone novels that hyperbolically signal normative discourses through quintessential freaks monstres such as the Siamese twin the bearded lady and the exotic witch and the related sociocultural master narratives from North America North Africa and the Caribbean Employing disability and freak culture theories alongside studies of identification and narrative Flaug's close readings move beyond polarized discussions of disabled and non disabled bodies They expand such discussions to articulate how ability like identity and narrative is impermanent It passes and it is passed throughout a spectrum at the same time that it intersects regularly with various narratives of identity like citizenship gender and race Each chapter reveals how operation is a profit driven identification process informed by abilities and constantly reproduced by surgeons slave masters writers and the freak protagonists themselves An unflinching look at such manipulation Operation Freak illustrates the undeniably visceral relation between bodily ability identity narrative and normality carved onto the body of the freak of culture monstre de la culture

Autumn Rounds Jacques Poulin, 2021-11-16 A heartfelt masterpiece about the joys of travel reading and companionship In rural Canada dotted along the coast of a vast mauve river live villagers of different stripes a recently divorced hydroplane pilot a factory worker who closely resembles her fisherman husband a probing motorcyclist with a pet St Bernard a pair of beautiful blonde joggers and other curious characters For all their differences each is brought together by a soft spoken man referred to only as the Driver who travels up and down the coast each season delivering books to areas not served by libraries and listening closely to the villager's tales and to their woes This summer tour is bound to be different than all the rest The Driver has made friends with a traveling band of musicians jugglers artists and acrobats who decide to come along for a ride that the Driver has privately decided will be his last Jacques Poulin's compassionate prose delves into the hidden pains of aging and loss without losing sight of the tremendous joy that can be found in making the world a little more livable for other people

Jacques Derrida

(Routledge Revivals) William Schultz, Lewis L.B. Fried, 2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida's work and scholarship about his work. It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective, listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida's Master's thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated. It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction. The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy.

The Spiritual Geography of Modern Writing Constantin V. Ponomareff, 1997 This collection of essays deals with the spiritual crisis in modern society and focusses in particular on European writers of the 19th and 20th centuries. The essays trace themes of spiritual unease, narrowing of inner human space, impoverishment of the self, growing human isolation, dehumanization and the writer's attempts to overcome this malaise. The essays also try to show how inhuman political and social environments and feelings of cultural impasse can become mitigated and reclaimed by socially conscious acts of creative writing. Obsession, self-delusion, creative frustration and personal tragedy are seen to haunt this kind of modern writing which is at the same time infused with the writer's profound sense of moral responsibility to society and marked on occasion by that rare experience of Epiphany and transcendence.

Francophone Literatures Belinda Elizabeth Jack, 1996 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses. The first study in English of francophone literatures, this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French-speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa, French Canada, the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A-level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject. Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi-lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies. They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition. This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition, demanding new critical approaches. The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing, history, politics and culture, their violent rewritings, subversive versions and parodies, sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated French texts. Guides to further reading, a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area.

Postcolonial Thought in the French Speaking World Charles Forsdick, David Murphy, 2022-04-01 In the late 1990s Postcolonial Studies risked imploding as a credible area of academic enquiry. Repeated anthologization and an overemphasis on the English language literatures led to sustained critiques of the field and to an active search for alternative approaches to the globalized and transnational formations of the post-colonial world. In the early twenty-first century, however, postcolonial began to reveal a new openness to its comparative dimensions. French language contributors to postcolonial debate such as Edouard Glissant and Abdelkebir Khatibi have recently risen to greater prominence in the English speaking world and there have also appeared an increasing number of important critical and theoretical texts on postcolonial issues written by scholars working principally on French language material It is to such a context that this book responds Acknowledging these shifts this volume provides an essential tool for students and scholars outside French departments seeking a way into the study of Francophone colonial postcolonial debates At the same time it supplies scholars in French with a comprehensive overview of essential ideas and key intellectuals in this area Ici-là Mary Gallagher,2003 In Caribbean writing place is intimately inflected by displacement place and displacement are not dichotomous every here invariably implies a there In line with this extreme imbrication of dis location Caribbean writing in French explores questions of increasing global pertinence such as the relation between writing and displacement local and distant space text and place identity and migration passage and transformation Contributions range across genres and the work of writers such as Aimé Césaire Patrick Chamoiseau René Depestre Édouard Glissant Michel Ollivier Gisèle Pineau Simone Schwarz-Bart and Ernest Pépin Topics explored include the poetics of dwelling space the postmodern or postcolonial dynamic of the Creole town and the textualization of place and displacement Also included are essays on the drama of distance the metamorphosis of recent Haitian writing the literary reverberations of the figure of Toussaint L'Ouverture and links between Ireland and the French Caribbean The Encyclopedia of the Novel Peter Melville Logan,Olakunle George,Susan Hegeman,Efraín Kristal,2014-02-11 Now available in a single volume paperback this advanced reference resource for the novel and novel theory offers authoritative accounts of the history terminology and genre of the novel in over 140 articles of 500 7 000 words Entries explore the history and tradition of the novel in different areas of the world formal elements of the novel story plot character narrator technical aspects of the genre such as realism narrative structure and style subgenres including the bildungsroman and the graphic novel theoretical problems such as definitions of the novel book history and the novel's relationship to other arts and disciplines The Encyclopedia is arranged in A-Z format and features entries from an international cast of over 140 scholars overseen by an advisory board of 37 leading specialists in the field making this the most authoritative reference resource available on the novel This essential reference now available in an easy to use fully indexed single volume paperback will be a vital addition to the libraries of literature students and scholars everywhere

The Top Books of the Year Salut Galarneau The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
