Salut L'artiste:

Aesthetics and Ideology in Contemporary Literature and Drama René Agostini, Madelena Gonzalez, 2015-09-10 The conviction that the development and promotion of the arts humanities and culture through the study of literature and the aesthetic are the fundamental constituents of any progress in society is at the heart of this volume The essays gathered here explore the role of the imagination and aesthetic awareness in an age when the corporatization of knowledge is in the process of transforming literary studies and political commitment is in danger of disappearing behind a supposedly post ideological late capitalist consensus The main focus of the volume is the mutual implication of aesthetics and ideology and the status and value of different types of art within the political arena Challenging issues in contemporary aesthetics are examined within the wider framework of current debates on the disappearance of the real the crisis in representation and the use of new media The wide range of examples collected here stretching from experimental poetry in post war Germany political commitment in twentieth century French theatre and countercultural Rumanian theatre under Ceau escu to Neo Victorian fiction Verbatim theatre in the UK and political theatre for the masses in Estonia vouchsafe unique insights into the intersection of aesthetics and ideology and the practical consequences thereof As such the volume opens up a space for a meaningful engagement with authentic forms of art from inside and outside the Anglosphere and ultimately uses these examples as a platform from which to imagine some form of aesthetics representing an ideal union of aesthetics and ideology This concept first coined by the French philosopher Philippe Lacoue Labarthe will prove to be relevant both within the parameters of the examples discussed here but also beyond for the contributors to this volume are unanimous in refusing to believe that aesthetics and ideology can exist one without the other and in recognizing the centrality of ethics in any discussion of these notions La poésie congolaise ♦ l'aube d'un jour nouveau (Essai). Treason Hedi Kaddour, 2010-04-06 H di Kaddour s poetry arises from observation from situations both ordinary and emblematic of contemporary life of human stubbornness human invention or human cruelty With Treason the award winning poet and translator Marilyn Hacker presents an English speaking audience with the first selected volume of his work The poetries of several languages and literary traditions are lively and constant presences in the work of H di Kaddour a Parisian as well as a Germanist and an Arabist A walker s a watcher s and a listener s poems his sonnet shaped vignettes often include a line or two of dialogue that turns his observations and each poem itself into a kind of miniature theater piece Favoring compact classical models over long verse forms Kaddour questions the structures of syntax and the limits of poetic form combining elements of both international modernism and postmodernism with great sophistication Capturing Kaddour s full range of diction as well as his speed momentum and tone Marilyn Hacker s translations brilliantly bring these poems

Religion Jan Assmann, Albert I. Baumgartner, 2018-08-14 The role of representation in religion is complex While often perceived as essential it is also associated in many traditions with the liability of idolatry and provokes iconoclasm The essays in this volume examine the nuances of representation in religion and the debate concerning its place across a variety of traditions from the three Abrahamic faiths to those of antiquity and the East This volume consists of presentations made at an international conference held in honor of Moshe Barasch art historian and cultural critic who has done much to elucidate the light which representation and religion shed on each other It pays tribute to Barasch by expanding the base of understanding and insight he has erected It should be of interest to students of religion and of art history
