Sculptural Imagination:

The Sculptural Imagination Alex Potts, 2017 In the modern period sculpture has often been viewed as more limited more literal and also more primitive than the leading visual art painting But precisely because of its marginal status Alex Potts points out in this stimulating and original book sculpture has played a complex and intriguing role in modern ideas and fantasies surrounding visual art Potts explores the special qualities of sculpture as a free standing three dimensional entity and he considers the distinctive demands sculpture places on the viewer The book begins in the late eighteenth century when a systematic formal distinction began to be made between painting and sculpture Following changing attitudes toward sculpture through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Potts analyzes for the first time the radical transformation that has occurred not only in the nature of sculptural works but also in their display and reception He focuses on a broad range of texts by major writers who have in some way been obsessed by sculpture and by such artist theorists as Adolf Hildebrand and Donald Judd The author also offers a detailed view of selected iconic works by key players in modern thinking about the sculptural The impact of minimalism features prominently in this discussion for it placed the phenomenology of viewing three dimensional objects for the first time at the center of debate about modern visual art Publisher's description

The Photobook Patrizia Di Bello, Colette Wilson, Shamoon Zamir, 2020-08-07 The photograph found a home in the book before it won for itself a place on the gallery wall Only a few years after the birth of photography the publication of Henry Fox Talbot's The Pencil of Nature heralded a new genre in the history of the book one in which the photograph was the primary vehicle of expression and communication or stood in equal if sometimes conflicted partnership with the written word In this book practicing photographers and writers across several fields of scholarship share a range of fresh approaches to reading the photobook developing new ways of understanding how meaning is shaped by an image's interaction with its text and context and engaging with the visual tactile and interactive experience of the photobook in all its dimensions Through close studies of individual works the photobook from fetishised objet d'art to cheaply printed booklet is explored and its unique creative and cultural contributions celebrated

Modern Sculpture Reader Jon Wood, David Hulks, Alex Potts, 2012-08-21 In many anthologies of art sculpture is given short shrift in relation to other media if it is treated at all Modern Sculpture Reader aims to rectify this situation by presenting a collection of important texts that have defined sculpture's radically changing status and role since the end of the nineteenth century a time marked by a general reappraisal of the forms and functions of art From the rigorously theoretical to the experimental and poetic Modern Sculpture Reader offers a lively discourse on the medium by a range of artists writers critics and poets Marcel Duchamp Louise Bourgeois Claes Oldenburg Andr  Breton Ezra Pound and Clement Greenberg in a variety of genres poems lectures transcribed interviews newspaper and magazine articles and artists statements These diverse text selections offer valuable insight into the development of the critical language of sculpture and its connections to other media in an era of increasingly conceptual artistic practice Many of the essays highlight key ongoing concerns such as sculpture's physical properties and conditions of display both of which have important implications for the viewer's tactile and emotional interaction with sculptural works

Cavafy's Hellenistic Antiquities Takis Kayalis, 2023-12-11 This book reinterprets C P Cavafy's historical and archaeological poetics by correlating his work to major cultural political and sexualized receptions of antiquity that marked the turn of the 20th century Focusing on selected poems which stage readings of Hellenistic and late ancient texts and material objects this study probes the poet's personal library and archive to trace his scholarly sources and scrutinize their contribution to his creative practice A new understanding of Cavafy's historicism emerges by comparing his poetics to a broad array of discourses and intellectual pursuits of his time these range from antiquarianism physiognomy and Egyptomania to cultural appropriations of the classics which sought to legitimate British colonial rule as well as homoerotic desire As this volume demonstrates Cavafy embraced antiquarianism as an empathetic and passionate way of relating to the past and shaped it into a method that allowed his poetry to render modern meanings to Hellenistic antiquities

Wood,2004-01-01 This work discusses the art of the middle third of the twentieth century It consists of a short general introduction and four parts each concentrating on a key aspect of the art of the period David Smith in Two Dimensions

Sarah Hamill,2015-01-31 How does photography shape the way we see sculpture In David Smith in Two Dimensions Sarah Hamill broaches this question through an in depth consideration of the photography of American sculptor David Smith 1906 1965 Smith was a modernist known for radically shifting the terms of sculpture a medium traditionally defined by casting modeling and carving He was the first to use industrial welding as a sustained technique for large scale sculpture influencing a generation of minimalists to come What is less known about Smith is his use of the camera to document his own sculptures as well as everyday objects spaces and bodies His photographs of his sculptures were published in countless exhibition catalogs journals and newspapers often as anonymous illustrations Far from being neutral images these photographs direct a pictorial encounter with spatial form and structure the public display of his work David Smith in Two Dimensions looks at the sculptor s adoption of unconventional backdrops alternative vantage points and unusual lighting effects and exposures to show how he used photography to dramatize and distance objects This comprehensive and penetrating account also introduces Smith s expansive archive of copy prints slides and negatives many of which are seen here for the first time Hamill proposes a new understanding of Smith s sculpture through photography exploring issues that are in turn vital to discourses of modern sculpture sculptural aesthetics and postwar art In Smith s photography we see an artist moving fluidly between media to define what a sculptural object was and how it would be encountered publicly Film Stardom, Myth and Classicism

M. Williams,2012-11-16 Since the golden era of silent movies stars have been described as screen gods goddesses and idols This is the story of how Olympus moved to Hollywood to divinise stars as Apollos and Venuses for the modern age and defined a model of stardom that is still with us today Art and the Home Imogen Racz,2015-01-26 Our homes contain us but they are also within us They can represent places to be ourselves to recollect childhood memories or to withdraw into adult spaces of intimacy they can be sites for developing rituals family relationships and acting out cultural expectations Like the personal social and cultural elements out of which they are constructed homes can be not only comforting but threatening too The home is a rich theme running through post war western art and it continues to engage contemporary artists today yet it has been the subject of relatively little critical writing Art and the Home Comfort Alienation and the Everyday is the first single authored up to date book on the subject Imogen Racz provides a theme led discussion about how the physical experience of the dwelling space and the psychological complexities of the domestic are manifested in art focusing mainly on sculpture installation and object based practice discussing the work and ideas of artists as diverse as Louise Bourgeois Gordon Matta Clark George Segal and Cornelia Parker within their artistic and cultural contexts "Art, History and the Senses " Gabriel Koureas,2017-07-05 Should sight trump the other four senses when experiencing and evaluating art Art History and the Senses 1830 to the Present questions whether the authority of the visual in visual culture should be deconstructed and focuses on the roles of touch taste smell and sound in the materiality of works of art From the nineteenth century onward notions of synaesthesia and the multi sensorial were important to a series of art movements from Symbolism to Futurism and Installations The essays in this collection evaluate works of art at specific moments in their history and consider how senses other than the visual have or have not affected the works meaning The result is a re evaluation of sensory knowledge and experience in the arts encouraging a new level of engagement with ideas of style and form Art and Thought Dana Arnold,Margaret Iversen,2008-04-15 Art and Thought is a collection of newly commissioned essays that explores the relationship between the discipline of art history and important movements in the history of western thought Brings together newly commissioned essays that explore the relationship between the discipline of art history and movements in the history of western thought Considers the impact of the writings of key thinkers including Aristotle Kant and Heidegger on the way in which objects are perceived and understood and histories of art are constructed deconstructed and reconfigured according to varying sets of philosophical frameworks Introduces the reader to the dynamic interface between philosophical reflections and art practices Part of the New Interventions in Art History series which is published in conjunction with the Association of Art Historians Photography and Sculpture Sarah Hamill,Megan R. Luke,2018-01-02 Ever since the mid nineteenth century when the new medium of photography was pressed into service to illustrate sculpture photographs of sculptural objects have directed viewers as to what in the course of ambling around a sculpture was the single perfect moment to stop and look What is the photograph s place in writing the history of sculpture How has it changed according to culture generation critical conviction and changes in media Photography and Sculpture The Art Object in Reproduction studies aspects of these questions from the perspectives of sixteen leading art historians Their essays consider iconic photographs archival collections new and forgotten technologies and conceptual challenges in photographing three dimensional forms that have directed changing historical and stylistic attitudes about how we see write about and narrate histories of sculpture Chapters on such varied topics as picturing Conceptual art manipulating sacred images in India to be non photographs and framing Roman art with an iPad illustrate the latent visual and narrative powers and ever expanding potential of these images of sculpture Philosophy of Sculpture Kristin Gjesdal, Fred Rush, Ingvald Torsen, 2020-09-09 Sculpture has been a central aspect of almost every art culture contemporary or historical This volume comprises ten essays at the cutting edge of thinking about sculpture in philosophical terms representing approaches to sculpture from the perspectives of both Anglo American and European philosophy Some of the essays are historically situated while others are more straightforwardly conceptual All of the essays however pay strict attention to actual sculptural examples in their discussions This reflects the overall aim of the volume to not merely apply philosophy to sculpture but rather to test the philosophical approaches taken in tandem with deep analyses of sculptural examples There is an array of philosophical problems unique to sculpture namely certain aspects of its three dimensionality physicality temporality and morality The authors in this volume respond to a number of challenging philosophical questions related to these characteristics Furthermore while the focus of most of the essays is on Western sculptural traditions there are contributions that features discussion of sculptural examples from non Western sources Philosophy of Sculpture is the first full length book treatment of the philosophical significance of sculpture in English It is a valuable resource for advanced students and scholars across aesthetics art history history performance studies and visual studies W. B. Yeats and the Language of Sculpture Jack Quin, 2022-06-30 This book comprehensively examines the relationship between literature and sculpture in the work of W B Yeats drawing on extensive archival research to offer revelatory new readings of the poet The book traces Yeats s literary and critical engagement with Celtic Revival statuary public monuments in Dublin the coin designs of the Irish Free State abstract sculpture by the Vorticists and modernists and a variety of carvings decorative sculptures and objets d art By charting Yeats s early art school education in Dublin his attempts to raise funds for public monuments in the city and to secure commissions for his favourite sculptors the book documents a lifelong interest in the plastic arts New and original readings of Yeats s poetry drama and prose criticism emerge from this concerted inter arts and interdisciplinary study

Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe Imogen Hart, Claire Jones, 2020-10-29 By foregrounding the overlaps between sculpture and the decorative this volume of essays offers a model for a more integrated form of art history writing Through distinct case studies from a seventeenth century Danish altarpiece to contemporary British ceramics it brings to centre stage makers objects concepts and spaces that have been marginalized by the enforcement of boundaries within art and design discourse These essays challenge the classed raced and gendered categories that have structured the histories and languages of art and its making Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe is essential reading for anyone interested in the history and practice of sculpture and the decorative arts and the methodologies of art history Dynamic Form Cara L. Lewis, 2020-07-15 Dynamic Form traces how intermedial experiments shape modernist texts from 1900 to 1950 Considering literature alongside painting sculpture photography and film Cara Lewis examines how these arts inflect narrative movement contribute to plot events and configure poetry and memoir As forms and formal theories cross from one artistic realm to another and back again modernism shows its obsession with form and even at times becomes a formalism itself but as Lewis writes that form is far more dynamic than we have given it credit for Form fulfills such various functions that we cannot characterize it as a mere container for content or matter nor can we consign it to ignominy opposite historicism or political commitment As a structure or scheme that enables action form in modernism can be plastic protean or even fragile and works by Henry James Virginia Woolf Mina Loy Evelyn Waugh and Gertrude Stein demonstrate the range of form s operations Revising three major formal paradigms spatial form pure form and formlessness and recasting the history of modernist form this book proposes an understanding of form as a verbal category as a kind of doing Dynamic Form thus opens new possibilities for conversation between modernist studies and formalist studies and simultaneously promotes a capacious rethinking of the convergence between literary modernism and creative work in other media Arts of Healing

Arleen Ionescu, Maria Margaroni, 2020-06-22 This book occurs at the intersection of philosophy critical theory psychoanalysis and the visual arts Each chapter looks at art produced in various traumatogenic cultures detention centres post Holocaust film autobiography and many more Other chapters look at the Juarez femicides the production of collective memory of makeshift memorials acts of forgiveness and contemporary forms of trauma The book proposes new ways of thinking trauma foregrounding the possibility of healing and the task that the critical humanities has to play in this healing Where is its place in an increasingly terror haunted world where personal and collective trauma is as much of an everyday occurrence as it is incomprehensible What has become known as the classical model of trauma has foregrounded the unrepresentability of the traumatic event New revisionist approaches seek to move beyond an aporetic understanding of trauma investigating both intersubjective and intrasubjective psychic processes of healing Traumatic memory is not always verbal and iconic forms of communication are part of the arts of healing
