Sculpture Inside Out:

Chicano Art Inside/Outside the Master's House Alicia Gaspar de Alba, 2010-07-05 In the early 1990s a major exhibition Chicano Art Resistance and Affirmation 1965 1985 toured major museums around the United States As a first attempt to define and represent Chicano a art for a national audience the exhibit attracted both praise and controversy while raising fundamental questions about the nature of multiculturalism in the U S This book presents the first interdisciplinary cultural study of the CARA exhibit Alicia Gaspar de Alba looks at the exhibit as a cultural text in which the Chicano a community affirmed itself not as a subculture within the U S but as an alter Native culture in opposition to the exclusionary and homogenizing practices of mainstream institutions She also shows how the exhibit reflected the cultural and sexual politics of the Chicano Movement and how it serves as a model of Chicano a popular culture more generally Drawing insights from cultural studies feminist theory anthropology and semiotics this book constitutes a wide ranging analysis of Chicano a art popular culture and mainstream cultural politics It will appeal to a diverse audience in all of these fields The Closure of Space in Roman Poetics Victoria Rimell, 2015-06-05 This ambitious book investigates a major yet underexplored nexus of themes in Roman cultural history the evolving tropes of enclosure retreat and compressed space within an expanding potentially borderless empire In Roman writers exploration of real and symbolic enclosures caves corners villas bathhouses the prison of the human body itself we see the aesthetic philosophical and political intersecting in fascinating ways as the machine of empire is recast in tighter and tighter shapes Victoria Rimell brings ideas and methods from literary theory cultural studies and philosophy to bear on an extraordinary range of ancient texts rarely studied in juxtaposition from Horace s Odes Virgil s Aeneid and Ovid s Ibis to Seneca s Letters Statius Achilleid and Tacitus Annals A series of epilogues puts these texts in conceptual dialogue with our own contemporary art world and emphasizes the role Rome s imagination has played in the history of Western thinking about space security and dwelling Embodiment and Disembodiment in Live Art Ke Shi, 2019-12-06 Liveness is a pivotal issue for performance theorists and artists As live art covers both embodiment and disembodiment many scholars have emphasized the former and interpreted the latter as the opposite side of liveness In this book the author demonstrates that disembodiment is also an inextricable part of liveness and presence in performance from both practical and theoretical perspectives By applying phenomenological theory to live performance the author investigates the possible realisation of aesthetic dynamics in live art via re engagement with the notions of embodiment especially in the sense provided by philosophers such as Gabriel Marcel and Morris Merleau Ponty Creative practices from leading performance artists such as Franko B Ron Athey Manuel Vason and others as well as experimental ensembles such as Goat Island La Pocha Nostra Forced Entertainment and the New Youth are discussed offering a new perspective to re frame human human relationships such as the one between actor and spectator and collaborations in live genres In addition the author presents a new interpretation model for the human material in live genres helping to bridge the aesthetic gaps between performance art and experimental theatre and providing an ecological paradigm for performance art experimental theatre and live art Looking at Art from the Inside Out Mary Mathews Gedo, 1994 This book highlights the role played by an artist's psychological world in shaping the subject matter and form of art works Analyzing masterpieces by Manet Gauguin Magritte and Picasso the author details how the creative process can transform the artist's inner world into public statements meaningful for a broad audience Demonstrating how biological predisposition familial relationships and childhood experiences of future artists play a pivotal role in shaping their careers she merges formal iconographic and psychobiographical elements to provide insight into their production What Is Contemporary Art? Terry

Smith, 2012-08-10 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today's multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going An Anarchitectural Body of Work Friederike

Schäfer, 2025-05-19 The artist dancer and educator Suzanne Harris 1940-79 was a protagonist of the downtown New York City artists community in the 1970s With her boundary transgressing practice she played a decisive part in avant garde projects such as the Anarchitecture group 112 Greene Street FOOD and the Natural History of the American Dancer Harris furthermore participated in the Heresies editorial collective Nevertheless her own oeuvre fell into abeyance Friederike Schäfer reconstructs Harris's dispersed postminimalist body of work which broke the mold of art categories art practices art spaces and the common notion of space The author draws on post Marxist feminist theory to trace how Harris transcended both sculpture and dance to create site specific ephemeral installations Second revised edition Recipient of the Terra

Basilio Gaztambide, 2025-06-13 This book sheds light on an as yet unstudied aspect of The Museum of Modern Art's MoMA preeminent role in establishing the definition of the problematic term Latin American art in the United States from the 1930s to the present through its collection displays In examining the shifting categorization of Latin American works according to stylistic and geographic taxonomies we gain a greater understanding of the organization of the Museum's collections as a whole during the 1940s and 1950s This book is the first to document these institutional precedents crucial for the understanding of the articulation of a Modernist canon and its contested legacy today The MoMA is widely recognized as the preeminent institution that defined 20th century art through its collection shaping our understandings of the history of art with its hierarchies and exclusions as they sediment over time MoMA's holdings of art from Latin America shed light on a key period when the stylistic categories that have since come to be accepted by many today as the Modernist canon developed MoMA's collection displays suggest ways in which artists from areas of the world formerly excluded can be incorporated within today's increasingly global museums MoMA's approach may be compared to initiatives adopted by several museums since the 2000s creating geographically defined curatorial positions as a way to redress gaps in collecting art from Latin America and other areas of the world In this book author Miriam M Basilio Gaztambide offers a closer study of the history of collection displays as a means to understand canon formation in modern art museums This work will be of interest to those researching Latin American American modern and contemporary art and curatorial and museum studies

Calder: The Conquest of Space Jed Perl, 2020-04-14 The concluding volume to the first biography of one of the most important influential and beloved twentieth century sculptors and one of the greatest artists in the cultural history of America is a vividly written illuminating account of his triumphant later years The second and final volume of this magnificent biography begins during World War II when Calder known to all as Sandy and his wife Louisa opened their home to a stream of artists and writers in exile from Europe In the postwar decades they divided their time between the United States and France as Calder made his first monumental public sculptures and received blockbuster commissions that included Expo 67 in Montreal and the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City Jed Perl makes clear how Calder's radical sculptural imagination shaped the minimalist and kinetic art movements that emerged in the 1960s And we see as well that through everything their ever expanding friendships with artists and writers of all stripes working to end the war in Vietnam hosting riotous dance parties at their Connecticut home seeing the mobile Calder's essential artistic invention find its way into Webster's dictionary Calder and Louisa remained the risk taking singularly bohemian couple they had been since first meeting at the end of the Roaring Twenties The biography ends with Calder's death in 1976 at the age of seventy eight only weeks after an encyclopedic retrospective of his work opened at the Whitney Museum in New York but leaves us with a new clearer understanding of his legacy both as an artist and a man

How Local Art Made Australia's National Capital Anni Doyle Wawrzyńczak, 2020-08-31 Canberra s dual status as national capital and local city dramatically affected the rise of a unique contemporary arts scene This complex story informed by rich archival material and interviews details the triumph of local arts practice and community over the insistent cultural nation building of Australia's capital. It exposes local arts as a vital force in Canberra's development and uncovers the influence of women in the growth of its visual arts culture. A broad illumination of the city-wide development of arts and culture from the 1920s to 2001 is combined with the story of Bitumen River Gallery and its successor Canberra Contemporary Art Space from 1978 to 2001. This history traces the growth of the arts from a community-led endeavour through a period of responses to social and cultural needs and ultimately to a humanising local practice that transcended national and international boundaries.
