Sculptures In Landscape:

Sculptures for Landscape Angela Conner,1986 Ribbons Cliff Garten,Gina Crandell,Cydney Payton,Jane Lehman,2016-09-23 Commissioned by the United States General Services Administration Art in Architecture Program as part of the GSA s retrofit of a historic building for their new Pacific Rim headquarters the installation of the landscape sculpture entitled Ribbons elegantly shifts the hierarchical orders of Beaux Art and Second Renaissance Revival architecture into a site specific contemporary landscape sculpture at the center of the building s 24 000 square foot courtyard 50 UN Plaza is a showcase for appropriate sustainable measures in a significant historic building Awarded LEED Platinum certification the renovation is a stellar example of Deep Green Retrofit To meet the challenge for sustainable materials and stay within budget for Ribbons Garten developed a system of interchangeable repeatable sculptures that were fabricated by casting recycled concrete in fiberglass molds and carved the granite fountains from remnant blocks Ribbons is a significant sculptural response to the architecture and sustainability by extending the contemporary dialogue between sculpture architecture and landscape to integrate the three into a single statement comprised of a sculptural matrix of paving seating fountains and planting The titular sculptures twist and fall to form a rhythmic circulation system that loosely reflect the twists of a ribbon Two carved dark gray green granite fountains individually weighing 4 500 pounds anchor the long axis of the courtyard providing the subtle sound of water flowing over their polished surfaces The integrated composition of sculpture and landscape uses the vertical movement of a grid of Himalayan White Birch to counter balance the horizontal emphasis of the sculptures A Landscape for Modern Sculpture John Beardsley,1996 The monumental sculpture of the postwar years has generally achieved at best an uneasy truce with its surroundings too often crowned into urban settings that compete with rather than complement its scale and visual power But at Storm King Art Center a 200 acre country estate transformed into a sculpture park sculpture and landscape are brought together in the most deliberate manner and to the dramatic enhancement of both The collection features works by master sculptors such as Alexander Calder Mark di Suvero Louise Nevelson Isamu Noguchi and David Smith as well as by many younger artists Several pieces have been commissioned for specific sites at Storm King while the others have been sensitively installed throughout the park s striking terrain This handsome volume captures the many pleasures of a visit to one of the world s finest outdoor collections of twentieth century sculpture Using multiple views and details as well as spectacular aerial shots photographer David Finn reveals a great deal about these works that casual viewers might otherwise miss The thoroughly engaging text by John Beardsley conveys the distinctive spirit of Storm King and provides an enlightening look at the development of both the collection and the landscape over the past twenty five years The Rock-Art Landscapes of Rombalds Moor, West Yorkshire Vivien Deacon,2020-04-30 This landscape study of the rock art of Rombalds Moor West Yorkshire considers views of and from the sites In an attempt to understand the rock art landscapes of prehistory the study considered the environment of the moor and its archaeology along

Over the past decades Uri Dushy has been investigating the origins of art In his personal non compromising way he insists upon joining and creating within artistic genres unprecedented to him provocatively challenging mastering and adopting technical professional production processes There is a considerable amount of daring at times bordering on the naive in the manner by which Uri Dushy copes with the nearly impossible challenges he undertakes Perhaps in this course of his lies the key to understanding his success in the field of Israeli public art and the international exhibition establishments frequented by his works over the last decades Genuine and profound love of the creation process along with true inspiration from both classic and current artwork characterize Uri Dushy s works Uri Dushy appreciates beauty and aesthetics believing that it is his professional responsibility to contribute to their existence in the world He creates a dialogue with his audience while capturing them and enabling them to take part in the creative experience Uri Dushy s sculptures consist of five main series presented in this book along with his photo collage works The first and main series includes the public sculptures permanently positioned across cities and parks in Israel Uri Dushy s work does not confine itself to the limits of his private studio but rather exits into the public realm into open sites frequented by bypassers and members of the community who are not necessarily familiar with museums and galleries His magnificent public art works are colorful positive understandable and intended for the eyes of all people thus contributing to their positive outlook It can be said that the works reflect a positive inspiration sent from the artist to his audience which returns the positive energy that contributes to the continuity of the artist's creation Projects that included the urban landscape sculptures took place in over a dozen cities across Israel among which are Ashkelon Holon Petach Tikva Jerusalem Rishon Le Zion Ra'anana and more The second series is that of the unique wall sculptures consisting of two dimensional clusters of figures in animated order that creates an impressive movement The animation like movement which advances along the sculpture's space presents a narrative image situated in different urban environments The third series includes the small sized interior metal sculptures Each figure is represented as a two dimensional silhouette situated in its own sculptural environment a base of stone or a variety of other materials upon which it plays out its role in the narrative The three dimensional bronze sculptures make up the fourth series The added dimension enriches the figures with nuances which don't exist in the two dimensional works There is an element of freshness in the altered use he makes of the daily and realistic symbols he chooses The virtual sculpture project Status presents the fifth series which includes 2 meter high mixed media figures that expose their extreme emotional states while conducting a dialogue with classical sculpting theories Uri Dushy's photo collage works have created a new artistic language Combining details of various segments of urban reality within the framework of one picture enables to refer to specific places and events with which Dushy becomes acquainted Parallel to his Israeli career Uri Dushy exhibited in one man exhibitions around the world and participated in numerous group exhibitions and international art projects
