Sea And Earth The Life Of Rachel Carson Women Of America:

Sea and Earth Phillip Sterling, 1974 A biography of the marine biologist author and conservationist whose book Silent Spring alerted the public to the possibility of dangerous long range effects of pesticides Sea and Earth Philip Sterling, 1970 A biography of the marine biologist author and conservationist whose book Silent Spring alerted the public to the possibility of dangerous long range effects of pesticides Rachel Carson Karen F. Stein, 2013-02-11 Karen F Stein University of Rhode Island Kingston USA Rachel Carson is the twentieth century's most significant environmentalist Her books about the sea blend science and poetry as they invite readers to share her celebration of the ocean's wonders Silent Spring her graphic and compelling exposé of the damage caused by the widespread aerial spraying of persistent organic pesticides such as DDT opened our eyes to the interconnectedness of all living beings and the ecological systems we inhabit Carson's work challenges our belief that science and technology can control the natural world asks us to recognize our place in the world around us and inspires us to treat the earth respectfully She calls us to rekindle our sense of wonder at nature's power and beauty and to tread lightly on the earth so that it will continue to sustain us and our descendants This book guides readers on a journey through Carson's life and work considers Carson's legacies and points to some of the continuing challenges to sustainability It provides a listing of resources for reading learning or teaching about the environment about nature writing and about Carson and the crucial issues she addressed American Women Afild Marcia Bonta, 1995 A collection of the writings of 25 women naturalists of the late 19th through early 20th century with biographical profiles Writings by naturalists including Susan Fenimore Cooper Alice Eastwood Ynes Mexia E Lucy Braun and Rachel Carson recount travels and findings and discuss vanishing species and deforestation Includes bandw photos Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR A More Perfect Union Linda Sargent Wood, 2012-10-18 This book uncovers a holistic sensibility in post World War II American culture that challenged Cold War logic and fed some of the century's most powerful social movements This impulse is illustrated by focusing on Rachel Carson Buckminster Fuller Martin Luther King Jr Abraham Maslow Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and the Esalen Institute Rachel Carson Linda Lear, 2009-04-01 The authoritative biography of the marine biologist and nature writer whose book Silent Spring inspired the global environmentalist movement In a career that spanned from civil service to unlikely literary celebrity Rachel Carson became one of the world's seminal leaders in conservation The 1962 publication of her book Silent Spring was a watershed event that led to the banning of DDT and launched the modern environmental movement Growing up in poverty on a tiny Allegheny River farm Carson attended the Pennsylvania College for Women on a scholarship There she studied science and writing before taking a job with the newly emerging Fish and Wildlife Service In this definitive biography Linda Lear traces the evolution of Carson's private professional and public lives from the origins of her dedication to natural science to her invaluable service as a brilliant if reluctant reformer Drawing on unprecedented access to sources and interviews Lear masterfully explores the roots of Carson's powerful connection to the natural world crafting a fine portrait of the environmentalist as a human being Smithsonian Impressively researched and eminently readable Compelling not just for Carson devotees but for anyone concerned about the environment People A combination of meticulous scholarship and thoughtful often poignant writing Science A sweeping analytic first class biography of Rachel Carson Kirkus Reviews A to Z of American Women Writers Carol Kort, 2014-05-14 Presents a biographical dictionary profiling important women authors including birth and death dates accomplishments and bibliography of each author's work Women of Vision Eileen Gavin, Aphrodite Clamar, Mary Anne Siderits, 2007-03-20 From the reviews Women of Vision blends biographical narrative with psychological perspectives on human development resulting in a moving and passionate book that is suitable for both academic and nonacademic readers It is a useful tool for teaching purposes or for simple enjoyable and informative reading Psychology of Women Quarterly a fascinating look of preservation and perceptiveness that is differentiated from its predecessors in its range of disciplines and emphasis This new life course approach to understanding female leaders gives valuable insight into the lives of these imminent women furnishing insights into how the social economic political milieu and the attitudes and values of the time played a significant role in the lives of these women but also in all our lives Women of Vision will serve as a springboard for exploration of how the psychologies of individual human lives affect their life course and as a galvanizing step for many more future women of vision and leadership The accounts in the book should be of substantial significance for readers interested in gender issues However the book will appeal to an even wider audience Persons hoping to move in new directions in their own lives e g women looking wistfully at new academic and occupational paths after years in stereotypic niches can surely also find inspiration in the various accounts SirReadaLot.org We all know of women of great vision women whose efforts and accomplishments have had a major impact on the arts politics women's rights sports or science But often we may not understand how they became such powerful agents of change and what sorts of questions we should ask of their pasts to understand how the trajectories of their lives were formed In this extraordinary textbook leading experts cast new light on the role of circumstance accomplishments and personality in the development of various twentieth century women of vision This is a brand new life course approach to understanding female leaders and gives valuable insight into the lives of such eminent women as Rachel Carson Evelyn Gentry Hooker Georgia O'Keeffe Eleanor Roosevelt Babe Didrikson Zaharias Ella Fitzgerald Alice Paul Lucille Ball and many others Study questions and exercises at the end of each chapter further enhance the text Women of Vision will serve as the springboard for exploration of how the psychologies of individual human lives affect their life course and as a galvanizing step for many more future women of vision and leadership Notable American Women Barbara Sicherman, Carol Hurd Green, 1980 Modeled on the Dictionary of American Biography this set stands alone but is a good complement to that set which contained only 700 women of 15 000 entries The preparation of the first set of Notable American Women was supported by Radcliffe College It includes women from 1607 to those who died before the end of 1950 only 5 women included were born after 1900 Arranged throughout the volumes alphabetically entries are from 400 to 7 000 words and have bibliographies There is a good introductory essay and a classified list of entries in volume three Macmillan Dictionary of Women's Biography
