Sea And Earth The Life Of Rachel Carson:

Sea and Earth Phillip Sterling, 1974 A biography of the marine biologist author and conservationist whose book Silent Spring alerted the public to the possibility of dangerous long range effects of pesticides Sea and Earth Philip Sterling, 1974 The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people A E s Biography best selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre But where does one begin Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10 000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians Each entry includes a brief profile autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals A More Perfect Union Linda Sargent Wood, 2012-10-18 This book uncovers a holistic sensibility in post World War II American culture that challenged Cold War logic and fed some of the century s most powerful social movements This impulse is illustrated by focusing on Rachel Carson Buckminster Fuller Martin Luther King Jr Abraham Maslow Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and the Esalen Institute Province of Reason Sam Bass Warner, 1988 This book sees the sweeping changes of the 20th century through the eyes of 14 Bostonians in an attempt to understand the disorienting experiences of recent history These lives span the years from 1850 to 1980 a time when American cities were being rebuilt according to the specifications of science engineering mass wealth and big corporations

Women of Vision Eileen Gavin, Aphrodite Clamar, Mary Anne Siderits, 2007-03-20 From the reviews Women of Vision blends biographical narrative with psychological perspectives on human development resulting in a moving and passionate book that is suitable for both academic and nonacademic readers It is a useful tool for teaching purposes or for simple enjoyable and informative reading Psychology of Women Quarterly a fascinating look of preservation and perceptiveness that is differentiated from its predecessors in its range of disciplines and emphasis This new life course approach to understanding female leaders gives valuable insight into the lives of these imminent women furnishing insights into how the social economic political milieu and the attitudes and values of the time played a significant role in the lives of these women but also in all our lives Women of Vision will serve as a springboard for exploration of how the psychologies of individual human lives affect their life course and as a galvanizing step for many more future women of vision and leadership The accounts in the book should be of substantial significance for readers interested in gender issues However the book will appeal to an even wider audience Persons hoping to move in new directions in their own lives e g women looking wistfully at new academic and occupational paths after years in stereotypic niches can surely also find inspiration in the various accounts SirReadaLot.org We all know of women of great vision women whose efforts and accomplishments have had a major impact on the arts politics women s rights sports or science But often we may not understand how they became such powerful agents of change and what sorts of questions we should ask of their pasts to understand how the trajectories of their lives were formed In this extraordinary textbook leading experts cast new light on the role of circumstance accomplishments and personality in the development of various twentieth century women of vision This is a brand new life course approach to understanding female leaders and gives valuable insight into the lives of such eminent women as Rachel Carson Evelyn Gentry Hooker Georgia O Keeffe Eleanor Roosevelt Babe Didrikson Zaharias Ella Fitzgerald Alice Paul Lucille Ball and many others Study questions and exercises at the end of each chapter further enhance the text Women of Vision will serve as the springboard for exploration of how the psychologies of individual human lives affect their life course and a galvanizing step for many more future women of vision and leadership

A Natural History of Nature Writing Frank Stewart,2012-07-11 A Natural History of Nature Writing is a penetrating overview of the origins and development of a uniquely American literature Essayist and poet Frank Stewart describes in rich and compelling prose the lives and works of the most prominent American nature writers of the19th and 20th centuries including Henry D Thoreau the father of American nature writing John Burroughs a schoolteacher and failed businessman who found his calling as a writer and elevated the nature essay to a loved and respected literary form John Muir founder of Sierra Club who celebrated the wilderness of the Far West as few before him had Aldo Leopold a Forest Service employee and scholar who extended our moral responsibility to include all animals and plants Rachel Carson a scientist who raised the consciousness of the nation by revealing the catastrophic effects of human intervention on the Earth s living systems Edward Abbey an outspoken activist who charted the boundaries of ecological responsibility and pushed these boundaries to political extremes Stewart highlights the controversies ignited by the powerful and eloquent prose of these and other writers with their expansive and often strongly political points of view Combining a deeply felt sense of wonder at the beauty surrounding us with a rare ability to capture and explain the meaning of that beauty nature writers have had a profound effect on American culture and politics A Natural History of Nature Writing is an insightful examination of an important body of American literature

Waves of Knowing Karin Amimoto Ingersoll, 2016-10-13 In Waves of Knowing Karin Amimoto Ingersoll marks a critical turn away from land-based geographies to center the ocean as place. Developing the concept of seascape epistemology, she articulates an indigenous Hawaiian way of knowing founded on a sensorial, intellectual, and embodied literacy of the ocean. As the source from which Kānaka Maoli Native Hawaiians draw their essence and identity, the sea is foundational to Kānaka epistemology and ontology. Analyzing oral histories, chants, artwork, poetry, and her experience as a surfer, Ingersoll shows how this connection to the sea has been crucial to resisting two centuries of colonialism, militarism, and tourism. In today's neocolonial context, where continued occupation and surf tourism marginalize indigenous Hawaiians, seascape epistemology, as expressed by traditional cultural practices such as surfing, fishing, and navigating, provides the tools for generating an alternative indigenous politics and ethics. In relocating Hawaiian identity back to the waves, currents, winds, and clouds, Ingersoll presents a theoretical alternative to land-centric viewpoints that still dominate studies of place-making and indigenous epistemology.
