Sea Drums And Other Poems:

Sea Drums & Other Poems Bert J. Hubinger, 2003 The original and appealing voice in this volume tempts the reader into a world of contrasts His poems take us to a place where water meets the shore and irony meets the literal Susan Rosen from page 4 of cover Anglophone Caribbean Poetry, 1970-2001 Emily A. Williams, 2002-12-30 Caribbean poetry written in English has been attracting growing amounts of scholarly attention The first substantial annotated bibliography of primary and secondary materials related to the topic this reference chronicles the development of Anglophone Caribbean poetry from 1970 through 2001 Included are nearly 900 entries for anthologies reference works conference proceedings critical studies interviews and recorded works The volume also includes a chronology an overview of the development and significance of Caribbean poetry in English and extensive indexes In 1971 the Association for Commonwealth Literature and Language Studies held a conference on West Indian literature at the University of the West Indies This was the first assembly for the discussion of West Indian literature by West Indian people on West Indian soil Since then interest in Caribbean poetry written in English has grown dramatically Caribbean poetry was influenced by the American Black Power movement during the 1970s and women poets began to contribute their voices throughout the 1980s Caribbean poets have in turn gained greater access to publishing outlets resulting in a wider international readership and a corresponding increase in scholarly and critical studies This book is the first substantial annotated bibliography of primary and secondary materials related to Caribbean poetry written in English The volume begins with the rise of interest in Anglophone Caribbean poetry in the 1970s and continues through 2001 Included are entries for nearly 900 anthologies reference works conference proceedings critical studies interviews and recordings The entries are grouped in chapters devoted to particular types of works In addition the volume includes a chronology a discussion of the history of Anglophone Caribbean poetry and extensive indexes The Fin-de-siècle Poem Joseph Bristow, 2005 Featuring innovative research by emergent and established scholars The Fin de Siecle Poem throws new light on the remarkable diversity of poetry produced at the close of the nineteenth century in England Opening with a detailed preface that shows why literary historians have frequently underrated fin de siecle poetry the collection explains how a strikingly rich body of lyrical and narrative poems anticipated many of the developments traditionally attributed to Modernism Each chapter in turn provides insights into the ways in which late nineteenth century poets represented their experiences of the city their attitudes toward sexuality their responses to empire and their interest in religious belief The eleven essays presented by editor Joseph Bristow pay renewed attention to the achievements of such legendary writers as Oscar Wilde John Davidson Ernest Dowson Lionel Johnson and W B Yeats whose careers have always been associated with the 1890s This book also explores the lesser known but equally significant advances made by notable women poets including Michael Field Amy Levy Charlotte Mew Alice Meynell A Mary F Robinson and Graham R Tomson The Fin de Siecle Poem brings together innovative research on poetry that has been typecast as the attenuated Victorianism that was rejected by Modernism The contributors underscore the remarkable innovations made in English poetry of the 1880s and 1890s and show how woman poets stood shoulder to shoulder with their better known male contemporaries Joseph Bristow is professor of English at the University of California Los Angeles where he edits the journal Nineteenth Century Literature His recent books include The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Poetry Oscar Wilde Contextual Conditions and the variorum edition of Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters

Music of a Distant Drum, 2021-07-13 Music of a Distant Drum marks a literary milestone It collects 129 poems from the four leading literary traditions of the Middle East all masterfully translated into English by Bernard Lewis many for the first time These poems come from diverse languages and traditions Arabic Persian Turkish and Hebrew and span more than a thousand years Together they provide a fascinating and unusual window into Middle Eastern history Lewis one of the world's greatest authorities on the region's culture and history reveals verses of startling beauty ranging from panegyric and satire to religious poetry and lyrics about wine women and love Bernard Lewis one of the world's greatest authorities on the region's culture and history offers a work of startling beauty that leaves no doubt as to why such poets were courted by kings in their day Like those in the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam the poems here as ensured by Lewis's mastery of all the source languages and his impeccable style and taste come fully alive in English. They are surprising and sensuous, disarmingly witty and frank. They provide a fascinating and unusual glimpse into Middle Eastern history. Above all, they are a pleasure to read. They range from panegyric and satire to religious poetry and lyrics about wine, women, and love. Lewis begins with an introduction on the place of poets and poetry in Middle Eastern history and concludes with biographical notes on all the poets. This treasure trove of verse is aptly summed up by a quote from the ninth-century Arab author Ibn Qutayba: Poetry is the mine of knowledge of the Arabs, the book of their wisdom, the muster roll of their history, the repository of their great days, the rampart protecting their heritage, the trench defending their glories, the truthful witness on the day of dispute, the final proof at the time of argument. In one hand the Qur'an, in the other a wineglass. Sometimes keeping the rules, sometimes breaking them. Here we are in this world, unripe and raw. Not outright heathens, not quite Muslims. Mujir, 12th century.
