In early Spring of 2022 the author boarded a 52 foot sailboat to cross the Atlantic with a close friend and a captain and sailor he did not know From the start of the 2 600 mile trip from St Martin in the Caribbean to the Azores off Portugal things went awry with the captain the boat the weather and most precipitously the author s state of mind As a recreational sailor with no experience of being out of sight of land the author s darkest fears materialized as the small crew sailed through squalls then gales and finally a tropical storm with near hurricane force winds In Crossing Glyn Vincent explores why he ventured into the middle of the ocean in the first place and how he first fell in love with the sea He describes his unsettled childhood in New York City his parents tabloid existence his mother was the Broadway and television actress Betsy von Furstenberg and the itinerant unstable lives of his grandparents and great grandparents whose troubled history goes back on his mother s side to a Gothic castle in Germany and on his father s side to an orphanage in Alexandria Egypt and a massacre in Damascus in 1860

In the end this enthralling memoir is as much about the storm Vincent inherited and harbored within as it is about the one he encountered at sea The Relation of Political Economy to the Labor Questions Carroll Davidson Wright, 1882
