study of the poetry of Bloody Sunday written by critically acclaimed Irish poets including Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Thomas Kinsella Seamus Deane and Medbh McGuckian By focusing on poems written between 1972 and 2015 this book examines each poet's attempt to find an apt way of articulating the anger trauma and grief over the massacre with most of the poets continuously returning to the shooting in their poetry throughout their careers The monograph outlines how in the face of adversity the poets draw on old Irish literary traditions such as Gaelic laments and Aisling poetry which offer an indigenous anti colonial and counter hegemonic response to a massacre that was experienced as a colonial aggression It also discusses the complex relationship between poetry and politics and the negotiation between aesthetic freedom and the moral obligation to write about Bloody Sunday

The Real Ireland Harvey O'Brien, 2004 The Real Ireland is the first study of Irish documentary film but more than that it is a study of Ireland itself of how the idea of Ireland evolved throughout the twentieth century and how documentary cinema both recorded and participated in the process of change More than just a film studies work it is a discussion of history politics and culture which also explores the philosophical roots of the documentary idea and how this idea informs concepts of society self and nation It features rare and previously unseen illustrations and a detailed documentary filmography the first of its kind in print anywhere
