Danielewski, 2025-10-28 From the bestselling author of House of Leaves comes a magisterial novel about two friends determined to rescue a pair of horses set for slaughter This is an amazing work of fiction I absolutely loved it At the heart you'll find a blood drenched story of pursuit and two brave and resourceful children But there's so much more I immersed myself Have never read anything like it Stephen King Hard to figure how so much awful horror could've started out with just them two horses and not a one yet named While folks still like to focus on the crimes that shocked the small city of Orvop Utah back in the fall of 1982 not to mention the trials that followed far more remember the adventure that took place beyond municipal lines For sure no one expected the dead to rise but they did No one expected the mountain to fall either but it did No one expected an act of courage so great and likewise so appalling that it still staggers the heart and mind of anyone who knows anything about the Katanogos massif to say nothing of Pillars Meadow As one Orvop high school teacher described that extraordinary feat just days before she died For sure no one expected Kalin March to look Old Porch in the eye and tell him You get what you deserve when you ride with cowards Children's Publishing and Black Britain, 1965-2015 Karen Sands-O'Connor, 2017-06-23 This book examines a critical period in British children's publishing from the earliest days of dedicated publishing firms for Black British audiences to the beginnings of the Black Lives Matter movement in the UK Taking a historical approach that includes education acts Black protest community publishing and children's literature prizes the study investigates the motivation behind both independent and mainstream publishing firm decisions to produce books for a specifically Black British audience Beginning with a consideration of early reading schemes that incorporated Black and Asian characters the book continues with a history of one of the earliest presses to publish for children Bogle L Ouverture Other chapters look at the influence of community based and independent presses the era of multiculturalism and anti racism the effect of racially motivated violence on children's publishing and the dubious benefit of awards for Black British publishing The volume will appeal to children's literature scholars librarians teachers education policy makers and Black British historians Thoughts of a Creole Woman Petronella Breinburg, 2006 Diasporic Literature and Theory - Where Now? Mark Shackleton, 2009-03-26 The theoretical innovations of Edward Said Homi Bhabha Gayatri Spivak Stuart Hall Paul Gilroy James Clifford and others have in recent years vitalized postcolonial and diaspora studies challenging ways in which we understand culture and developing new ways of thinking beyond the confines of the nation state The articles in this volume look at recent developments in diasporic literature and theory alluding to the work of seminal diaspora
