Searching For Survivors:

Trakr Searches for Survivors Matthew K. Manning, 2024 On September 11 2001 terrorists attacked the World Trade Center in New York City Nearly 3 000 people were killed and many were trapped under the collapsed buildings When Canadian police officer James Symington heard about the attacks he knew he and his trained search and rescue dog Trakr had to help Follow Trakr's lead as he and Symington bravely search and dig through the rubble to help rescue survivors of one of the deadliest days in U S history Proceedings United States. Merchant Marine Council, 1950 Tracing and Documenting Nazi Victims Past and Present Henning Borggräfe, Christian Höschler, Isabel Panek, 2020-06-08 After World War II tracing and documenting Nazi victims emerged against the background of millions of missing persons and early compensation proceedings This was a process in which the Allies international aid organizations and survivors themselves took part New archives documentation centers and tracing bureaus were founded amid the increasing Cold War divide They gathered documents on Nazi persecution and structured them in specialized collections to provide information on individual fates and their grave repercussions the loss of relatives the search for a new home physical or mental injuries existential problems social support and recognition but also continued exclusion or discrimination By doing so institutions involved in this work were inevitably confronted with contentious issues such as varying political mandates neutrality vs solidarity with those formerly persecuted data protection vs public interest and many more Over time tracing bureaus and archives changed methods and policies and even expanded their activities using historical documents for both research and public remembrance This is the first publication to explore this multifaceted history of tracing and documenting past and present

Searching for a Demon Steven M. Chermak, 2002 This provocative volume thoroughly examines the ways in which the media demonized militia groups following the devastating bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah building in Oklahoma City Using quantitative and qualitative research methods Steven M. Chermak offers a fresh perspective on how news coverage and popular entertainment transformed a largely overlooked movement into a symbol for this new threat of domestic terrorism and ignited a national panic over the militia menace Searching for a Demon describes the representation of the militia movement in the news media editorial cartoons films and television Chermak delves into such topics as the type and amount of coverage after the blast how social problems are constructed in the news the motivations and biases of authoritative or celebrity figures used as news sources and why images of militias were framed in specific ways Chermak balances his account with an in depth look at the philosophies activities and strategies of militia groups Drawing on extensive interviews he conducted at gun shows and preparedness exhibitions the author compares and contrasts media depictions of militia life and ideology with the firsthand accounts of members and leaders themselves and he assesses how media coverage affected changes in the movement In conclusion Chermak discusses the parallels between media treatment of militias in the wake of the Oklahoma City bombing and the coverage of the al Qaeda terrorist network after the September 11 2001 attacks Solidly grounded in social constructionist theory Searching for a Demon fills a significant gap in the literature on terrorism as well as on the roles of the news media and popular culture in reshaping the public consciousness after dramatic crimes

Benefits for Survivors of Military Personnel United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Armed Services. Subcommittee on Manpower and Personnel,1978 Searching for Augusta Martin King,2017-09-01 A brutal siege A forgotten heroine A war torn romance And a historian determined to uncover the truth Untold millions who saw and read Band of Brothers can finally know the whole story of what happened to American soldiers and civilians in Bastogne during that arduous Winter of 1944 45 In the television version of Band of Brothers a passing reference is made to an African nurse assisting in an aid station in Bastogne When military historian Martin King watched the episode he had to know who that woman was thus began a multi year odyssey that revealed the horror of a town under siege as well as an improbable love story between a white Army medic Jack Prior and his black nurse Augusta Chiwy as they saved countless lives while under constant bombardment Based on the recent discovery of Prior s diary as well as an exhaustive and occasionally futile search for Augusta herself King was at last able to bring belated recognition of Augusta s incredible story by both the U S Army and Belgian government shortly before she died This is not only a little known story of the Battle of the Bulge but also the author s own relentless mission to locate Augusta and bestow upon her the honors she so richly deserved Umberto Nobile And the Arctic Search for the Airship Italia Garth Cameron,2017-09-09 By the time it was over eight of the crew and nine rescuers were dead and scores more had been put in harm s way The disappearance and search for the airship Italia was headline news all over the world for months after its last radio message on 25 May 1928 It had reported being to the north east of its base at Kings Bay on the Arctic island of Spitsbergen returning from a long flight to Greenland and the North Pole Ships aircraft and men from many countries converged on Kings Bay to participate in the rescue effort The Italian airship designer and pilot Umberto Nobile had flown to the North Pole and beyond in 1926 He resolved to return to the Arctic with a new airship in 1928 The expedition had geographical and scientific aims but the political environment was also an important motivator Benito Mussolini and his fascist party had come to power in 1922 and a successful expedition to the Arctic would be excellent propaganda On Scene ,1993 National Search and Rescue Manual ,1973 Reparations for Victims of Genocide, War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity Carla Ferstman,Mariana Goetz,2020-02-17 Reparations for Victims of Genocide War Crimes and Crimes Against Humanity Systems in Place and Systems in the Making provides a rich tapestry of practice in the complex and evolving field of reparations which cuts across law politics psychology and victimology among other disciplines Ferstman and Goetz bring their long experiences with international organizations and civil society groups to bear This second edition which comes a decade after the first contains updated information and many new chapters and reflections from key experts It considers the challenges for victims to pursue reparations looking from multiple angles at the Holocaust restitution movement and more recent cases in Europe Asia Africa and the Americas It also highlights the evolving practice of international courts and tribunals First published in a hardbound edition this second fully revised and updated edition is now available in paperback National Search and Rescue Manual United States. Coast Guard,1959
